

Anti-Bullying Resources

Dear community members and educators -

Thank you for taking the time to read our Anti-Bullying Guide. Vegas PBS strongly supports anti-bullying efforts and created this resource guide for your convenience.

This guide provides a list of resources that are available on PBS LearningMedia. PBS LearningMedia offers a wide range of digital resources available to PreK-12 educators and community members nationwide. Since its launch in 2011, PBS LearningMedia has continued to actively expand its offerings of educational content. Resources are available in English and Spanish, and are aligned to National and Nevada Academic Content State Standards.

PBS LearningMedia offers FREE registration to community members and Clark County School District staff can access these resources (as well as additional resources) through the OnePlace database. Instructions on how to sign-up or access these resources can be found on the following pages, along with a list of titles and their descriptions.

For additional resources, please also see

Say No to Bullying

(<https://ccsd.net/students/bully/>)

Community Quick Start User Guide

Vegas PBS LearningMedia™ is your destination for direct access to thousands of classroom-ready, curriculum-targeted digital resources. PBS LearningMedia builds on the strength of public media and is designed to improve teacher effectiveness and student achievement. Resources are aligned to NV Academic Content Standards and include videos, interactives, as well as audio, documents, and in-depth lesson plans. Browse by standards, grade level, subject area, and special collections. You can also favorite and share resources with your class and colleagues through folders and social media.

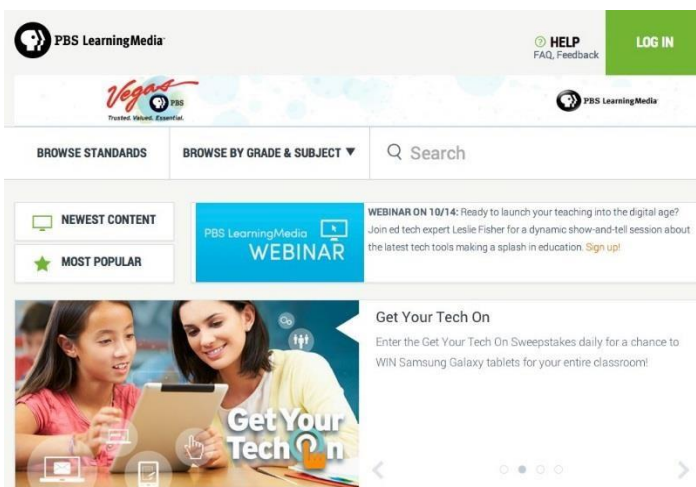

Best of all, PBS LearningMedia's basic service is FREE for PreK-12 educators, Parents, Students and the Las Vegas Community.

Register today! <http://vegas.pbslearningmedia.org/>

Free Sign Up!

Enjoy access to this free digital media service.

Click the "Log In" link at the top of the page, and click "Sign up." Fill in the required information and you are all set!

Login

Email

Password

New to LearningMedia?

Sign Up

I forgot my password

☐ Keep me logged in Educational Media Services

Trusted, Valued, and Essential Services to Extend and Amplify Learning

CCSD STAFF ONLY
access these resources and more via

OnePlace
A Service of Vegas PBS

CCSD/Vegas PBS – FREE Resources Aligned to Nevada Academic Content Standards

OnePlace.VegasPBS.org

Login with AD (Active Directory)

The screenshot shows the OnePlace login interface. It includes the Vegas PBS and OnePlace logos at the top. The main heading is "Login with your AD". Below this, there is a hint about using the login for daily computer access and a link to obtain or reset an AD password. A "Sign In" button is present. Below the sign-in button, there is a section for the "Clark County School District (CCSD) Help Desk" with contact information and hours. At the bottom, there are links for "Need an account?" and "For Video on How to Login, Click Here."

Overview

Vegas PBS video streaming is a FREE resource that gives students and teachers instant access to thousands of resources including full length videos and video segments of core curriculum, standards-based video programs, along with maps, charts, tests and many other instructional resources.

A simple keyword or concept search of the database can locate grade and subject specific content in science, social studies, language arts, math and health. All available to view right on the desktop. A search by Nevada Academic Content Standards is also possible. Each video is indexed, which gives the option of viewing the entire program or watching a shorter clip.

PBS LearningMedia™
95,000+ Resources

Classroom Cable
Educational Broadcasting

LEARN360
ENGAGE • ENRICH • EXCEL
94,500+ Resources

Vegas PBS
Educational Media Center
6,000+ Physical Resources

TeachingBooks•net™
48,500+ Resources

NATIONAL ARCHIVES
8,000 + Resources

WORLD BOOK
32,000+ Resources

KHANACADEMY
9,000+ Resources

Clark County School District educators access Video Streaming via OnePlace:
OnePlace.VegasPBS.org

Nevada parents and students access Video Streaming via Vegas PBS LearningMedia:
Vegas.PBSlearningmedia.org

For more information, contact EMSinfo@VegasPBS.org or 702.799.1010

Aggressive Behavior and Fighting

media gallery, College/Adult, , 2017

Fighting and aggression are among the most serious and challenging of all student behaviors. These include all instances in which one or more students engage in behavior whose sole purpose is to deliver physical or emotional harm to another. In milder cases, your goal is to interrupt the aggression. But in the most extreme cases, the goal is solely on enhancing the safety of all concerned to the greatest degree possible. These videos, featuring actors in the student roles, illustrate strategies to de-escalate aggressive behavior in both classroom and non-classroom environments as well as a demonstration of a "room-clear" when aggression has escalated to a point when the student presents possible danger to himself or others.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky, KY, Department of Education, positive, behavior, PBIS, special needs, restraint, PPBIS, staff, teacher, instructor, development, training, instruction, classroom, school, strategies, best practices, discipline, physical restraint, seclusion, bullying, prevention, classroom management, behavior management, de-escalation strategies, positive discipline, problem behavior, off-task behavior, fighting, aggression, aggressive behavior, noncompliance, noncompliant behavior, non-certified staff training, disruptive behavior, room clear,

Subjects: Professional Development,

ARTHUR | So Funny I Forgot to Laugh (Video)

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Intermediate, , 2016

Find out what happens when Arthur's friendly teasing goes too far in this in this video from the PBS children's series ARTHUR. Arthur teases Sue Ellen about her new sweater even after Sue Ellen and their other friends ask him to stop. Arthur finally realizes he was wrong, but can he find a way to apologize to Sue Ellen and save their friendship? This video can be used with The AIM Buddy Project | An ARTHUR Social, Emotional, and Character Development Curriculum.

Keywords: empathy, Arthur, Buster, Sue Ellen, teasing, tease, bullying, friendship, apologize, sorry, social emotional, social and emotional, social and emotional learning, sel, the AIM Buddy Project,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education,

Bad Behavior Online: Bullying, Trolling & Free Speech | Off Book

video, Senior High, , 2013

The internet is a powerful tool for communication, but it can sometimes be a double-edged sword. As most of us have seen or experienced, the internet can bring out the worst behavior in people, highlighting some of the cruelest and most hurtful aspects of humanity. Issues such as bullying online and trolling have garnered a lot of attention recently, prompting questions about who does, and should, regulate the internet, and what free speech means online.

Keywords: PBS Digital Studios, Off Book, Bullying, bad behavior, online bullying, trolling, internet regulation, freedom of speech, teen suicide, online aggression, cyberbullying, online disinhibition effect, first amendment,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education,

Behavior Momentum Strategy

video, College/Adult, , 2017

"Behavior momentum" is a strategy that increases the likelihood of appropriate behavior by asking a student to do two or three things they typically want to do and then following up with a request for a behavior the student typically does not want to do. This strategy builds momentum toward appropriate behavior. This video, featuring actors in the student roles, illustrates the "behavior momentum" strategy.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky, KY, Department of Education, positive, behavior, PBIS, special needs, restraint, PPBIS, staff, teacher, instructor, development, training, instruction, classroom, school, strategies, best practices, discipline, physical restraint, seclusion, bullying, prevention, classroom management, behavior management, de-escalation strategies, positive discipline, problem behavior, off-task behavior, fighting, aggression, aggressive behavior, noncompliance, noncompliant behavior, non-certified staff training, disruptive behavior, room clear,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Block the Bullying

video, College/Adult, , 2011

Glen Ridge, New Jersey's Ridgewood Avenue School emphasizes the importance of anti-bullying education by having all the students simultaneously participate in the school-wide Block the Bullying program. The theme-based curriculum is collaboratively developed by the school's Character Education Committee, which consists of volunteers from the school's faculty. The Character Education Committee meets regularly to plan the curriculum and to discuss bullying.

Keywords: NJEA, Classroom Close-up, anti-bullying, character education, school culture,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Bullying

interactive resource, Intermediate - Senior High, , 2015

In this self-paced literacy lesson, students watch documentary videos about bullying and read informational text about how bullying may affect the function of a democratic society. Students develop their literacy skills as they explore a social studies focus on the role of personal freedom, particularly freedom of speech, and how bullying limits such personal freedom. During this process, they read informational text, learn and practice vocabulary words, and explore content through videos and interactive activities. When they are finished, students select and complete a writing assignment offline. This resource is part of the Inspiring Middle School Literacy Collection. Students need to be signed in to complete this lesson. Go to "About This Activity" in "Support Materials" below to find out more.

Keywords: midlit11-soc-splbully, self-paced, literacy, lesson, bullying, democratic society, democracy, personal freedom, freedom of speech, cyberbullying,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy, Health and Physical Education,

Bullying

interactive resource, Primary, ,

This is a lesson on bullying. It will help your students learn to say nice things to each other.

Keywords: wgbh, ARTHUR, relationships, bully, arct14-soc-artsofunny, forgiveness, social and emotional learning, the AIM Buddy Project, empathy, feelings, emotion, teasing, friends, social, emotional, Social and emotional, sel, bullying,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy,

Bullying and the Arts | The Graduates Youth Action Guide | Lesson 4

document, Senior High - College/Adult, , 2013

Students will look at how bullying can be an obstacle to Latino youth, especially with regards to immigrant, undocumented, racial, socioeconomic, and LGBTQ groups. They will explore how the arts can be a powerful way to bring different voices into dialogue, and how they can be tools for increasing self-esteem and combating stereotypes and negative images.

Keywords: bullying, arts, dance, self-esteem, empowerment, LGBTQ, stereotypes, students, immigrants, youth, education, Latino, Latina, high school, educators, Community Classroom, Independent Lens, The Graduates, ITVS,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy, Professional Development, Social Studies, The Arts,

Bullying:The Heart Exercise for Groups Lesson Plan

document, Junior High - College/Adult, , 2013

Help students recognize the power of words and stereotypes with this powerful lesson plan for groups. It helps students develop empathy for each other while sharing their own experiences.

Keywords: bullying, stereotypes, empathy,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy, Health and Physical Education, Professional Development,

Bullying:The Heart Exercise for Individuals Lesson Plan

document, Junior High - College/Adult, PBS NewsHour Contributor, 2013

Help students recognize the power of words and stereotypes with this powerful lesson plan for groups. It helps students develop empathy for each other while sharing their own experiences.

Keywords: bullying, stereotypes, empathy,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy, Health and Physical Education, Professional Development,

Clip 3 - Bullying Forum

video, Junior High - Senior High, Alabama Public Television, 2016

Student reporters take us to American Village, an educational institution committed to engaging and inspiring youth to be good citizens and leaders, where they participate in a deliberative forum on the issue of bullying.

Keywords: American Village, deliberative forum, bullying, Project C, American Civil Rights Movement, Civil Rights, Black History, citizenship, democracy, historical events, Social Studies, Martin Luther King, Rosa Parks, Civil Rights Act, Bloody Sunday, Selma to Montgomery March, Children's March, Freedom March, Montgomery Bus Boycott, Boycott, social justice, Student Reporters, American Graduate, Birmingham, Alabama, APT, Alabama Public Television, IQ, IQ Learning Network, sit-ins, protests, inequality, Electronic Field Trip, virtual field trip, field trip, Learning Adventure, video field trip,

Subjects: Social Studies,

Conflict Resolution: Thinking It Through | In the Mix

video, Junior High - College/Adult, Castle Works Inc, 2009

In this video clip from In the Mix, an experienced facilitator leads a conflict resolution workshop in which students describe a recent conflict with a friend or family member, discuss how they handle conflicts, and explore basic communication skills, including how to be a good listener.

Keywords: conflict, resolution, understanding, perspectives, disagreements, communication, collegial, discussions, decision-making, decisions, facilitate, peers, skills, problem solving, relationships, teenagers, teens, pre-teens, adolescents, professional development, instruction, effective, bullying, health, physical education, In the Mix, reality, tv, television, shows, clips,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy, Health and Physical Education,

Crumpled Paper: Bullying Lesson Plan

document, Primary - College/Adult, PBS NewsHour Contributor, 2013

This short and powerful activity helps students to understand the effects of bullying.

Keywords: bullying,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education, Professional Development,

Cyber-Bullies are No Fun

video, Intermediate, UEN, 2010

Cyber-bullying is where one or more children targets another through technology such as the Internet, cell phones, or other devices to threaten, harass, or embarrass the victim. Cyber-bullying goes beyond just bullying, because it can follow you home (e.g., through text or e-mail messages, blogs, social networking web site, etc.). If someone is being a bully on the Internet, be sure to report it to someone you trust.

Keywords: bullies, bullying, cyber-bullies, intimidation, online safety, safety, Internet, email, texting, text messaging, cybersafety,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education, Social Studies,

Cyber-bullying

video, Junior High - Senior High, UEN,

Cyber-bullying is where one or more children targets another through technology such as the Internet, cell phones, or other devices to threaten, harass, or embarrass another child. Cyber-bullying goes beyond just bullying, because it can follow you home (e.g., through text or e-mail messages, blogs, social networking web site, etc.). You can stop cyber-bullying by not responding to any of it, saving the evidence, and reporting it.

Keywords: bullying, bullies, Internet, social networking, safety, cyberbullies, email, texting, threatening, intimidation, cyber-bullies, cybersafety,

Subjects: Engineering & Technology, Health and Physical Education, Social Studies,

Cyber Bullying

video, College/Adult, , 2017

In this video, Mary Beth Uberti of Operation Parent describes what cyber bullying is and what parents and caregivers need to look for.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Cyberbullying Public Service Announcement

video, Junior High - Senior High, UEN, 2008

Have you or has someone you know been the target of a cyber bully? Bullying hurts -- whether the attacker uses fists or tries to hurt or embarrass you through cruel or threatening text messages, cell phone photos, or emails. Tell an adult you know and trust.

Keywords: online safety, cybersafety, cyberbullies, Internet, bullying, bullies, cyberbullying, cyber bully,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Cyberchase: Model Behavior | Introduction

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Intermediate, , 2002

In this segment of "Cyberchase: Model Behavior" three little pigs are bullied by a big, bad wolf as the Cyberchase kids are zapped through the portal to Cyberspace. The pigs are building a sky bubble to keep Hacker out of Happily Ever After. But Hacker has an evil plan to crash the glass of the bubble when Wicked sings her grand finale. He builds a model that looks just like the real sky bubble. How will the kids use their math skills to solve this problem?

Keywords: PBS Kids, Cyberchase, math, numbers, arithmetic,

Subjects: Mathematics,

Cybersafe Your Teens

video, Intermediate - College/Adult, UEN, 2007

A special program for parents that looks at ways to keep teens and children safe on the Internet. Produced by KUED in February 2007, the program features a panel of experts and a studio audience. Gain insight into the potential threats to young people on the Internet and find guidance to help manage this technology. Explore practical ways parents can keep their children safe on the Internet.

Keywords: online safety, cybersafety, law enforcement, online predators, child pornography, sexting, social networking, parenting, communication, Internet, cyber-bullying, parents, strangers, sexual solicitations, grooming techniques, grooming tactics, warning signs, pedophiles, victimization, manipulation, chat rooms, sharing networks, trojan programs, personal information, internet predators, risks, dangers, myspace, facebook, monitoring, filters, cybersafe, safe,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Disruptive Behavior

media gallery, College/Adult, , 2017

Disruptive behaviors can be small, such as repeatedly calling out, but they might also include larger disruptive behavior triggered by emotion or agitation. These videos, featuring actors in the student roles, illustrate strategies to de-escalate more serious disruptive behavior in both classroom and non-classroom environments.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky, KY, Department of Education, positive, behavior, PBIS, special needs, restraint, PPBIS, staff, teacher, instructor, development, training, instruction, classroom, school, strategies, best practices, discipline, physical restraint, seclusion, bullying, prevention, classroom management, behavior management, de-escalation strategies, positive discipline, problem behavior, off-task behavior, fighting, aggression, aggressive behavior, noncompliance, noncompliant behavior, non-certified staff training, disruptive behavior, room clear,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Don't Read the Comments | BrainCraft

video, Senior High, , 2015

In this episode, we look at BrainCraft trolls: what they are saying in the comments and why.

Keywords: BrainCraft, Vanessa Hill, psychology, neuroscience, white bear problem, suppression, psychology, online disinhibition effect, trolls, online trolls, commenters, nasty effect, gender stereotypes, shared reality, sexism, gender equality, PBS Digital Studios, online bullying,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education, Science,

Empathy | An ARTHUR Interactive Comic

interactive resource, Preschool/Kindergarten - Intermediate, Arthur, 2014

Explore the topic of empathy in this interactive comic, So Funny I Forgot to Laugh, based on the characters and storyline from the PBS children's series ARTHUR. When Arthur takes his teasing too far, it upsets Sue Ellen. Can Arthur find a way to apologize for bullying Sue Ellen and save their friendship? This resource is part of the AIM Buddy Project | An ARTHUR Social, Emotional, and Character Development Curriculum.

Keywords: bully, feelings, friends, relationships, empathy, emotion, arct14-soc-artsofunny, wgbh, ARTHUR, Social and emotional, sel, social, emotional, social and emotional learning, teasing, bullying, forgiveness, empathy, the AIM Buddy Project,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education, Preschool,

Fighting Prejudice and Bullying | FILMS BYKIDS

video, Junior High - Senior High, , 2016

Learn how a young girl who immigrated to New York City from Yemen dealt with Islamophobia in this video from FILMS BYKIDS: Poet against Prejudice. The video introduces students to 17-year-old filmmaker Faiza Almontaser, an anti-bullying activist. Faiza worked with a BYkids film mentor to tell the story of her experience as young Muslim in post-9/11 America. Visit the FILMS BYKIDS website to learn more about the series. To see the full film and learn more about Faiza click here. To learn more about Islam, visit the collection Promoting Understanding: Islam.

Keywords: stereotype, Islam, Islamophobia, Muslim, poetry, prejudice, bullying, hate, tolerance, terrorism, racism, New York, immigrant, Yemen, Faiza Almontaser, intolerance, empowerment, extremism, debunking, ideology, poet, activist, definition, islam17,

Subjects: Social Studies,

A Frill a Minute

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Primary, The Jim Henson Company, 2009

In this Dinosaur Train episode, the Pteranodon kids and Tank Triceratops play games at Big Pond, where they discuss the purpose of Tank's frill, and outsmart a bully. They learn that Tank's frill is a defense mechanism which makes the Triceratops look threatening to potential predators.

Keywords: Triceratops, dinosaurs, defense, adaptation, evolution,

Subjects: Preschool, Science,

The Graduates: The Boys

media gallery, Intermediate - Senior High, , 2013

Explore the lives of Latino teenagers, and the obstacles some may face in graduating high school. In episode 2, three boys talk about the difficulties in their lives, and their hopes for the future. They have all faced obstacles that threatened to derail their education: From bullying, to gang violence, to immigration concerns. Learn more about the possibilities for the future of America's Latino youth.

Keywords: The Graduates, Los Graduados, Latino, Latina, Hispanic students, gang violence, LGBT bullying, undocumented immigrant, immigration, high school graduation rate, college application, education rates, race divide, class divide, high school dropout rate, high school diploma,

Subjects: Social Studies,

The Graduates | Film Discussion Guide

document, Senior High - College/Adult, , 2013

This discussion guide is designed as a tool to facilitate dialogue, and deepen understanding of the complex issues in The Graduates, a film about the struggles and triumphs of Latino and Latina students from across the U.S. and the challenges faced in the American public education system. The guide provides important context, and raises thought provoking questions to encourage viewers to think more deeply. We provide suggestions for areas to take action and to explore in discussions, in the classroom, in communities, and online. We also provide valuable resources, and connections to organizations that are fighting to make a difference.

Keywords: street life, intervention, mentoring, empowerment, self-esteem, gangs, immigrants, bullying, teen pregnancy, students, youth, education, Latino, Latina, high school, family, educators, democracy, human rights, Community Classroom, Independent Lens, The Graduates, ITVS,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy, Professional Development, Social Studies,

The Graduates | Youth Action Guide

document, Senior High - College/Adult, , 2013

The guide is designed to inspire youth leaders to educate, collaborate, and co-create with their peers, their parents, and their communities. Together, they can help remove challenges faced by Latino students and explore organizing strategies that can make a difference. The guide lays out six overarching themes in the stories of the six Latino students in the film. It provides youth-focused activities and discussions to deepen context and understanding of the issues in each of these stories, to be facilitated by youth leaders as a way to mentor and inspire others to learn more about the issues facing Latino youth and take action.

Keywords: street life, intervention, mentoring, gangs, bullying, homeless, teen parenting, teen pregnancy, LGBTQ, empowerment, self-esteem, immigrants, students, youth, education, drop out, Latino, Latina, high school, family, educators, democracy, human rights, Community Classroom, Independent Lens, The Graduates, ITVS,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy, Health and Physical Education, Professional Development, Social Studies,

Group Discussion - Media Literacy-Online safety

interactive resource, Intermediate - Senior High, ,

Discussion starter about media literacy

Keywords: internet regulation, Off Book, bad behavior, teen suicide, Bullying, personal information, online bullying, online safety, online aggression, online predators, PBS Digital Studios, cyberbullying, strangers, freedom of speech, dangers, cybersafety, exploitation, safe, online disinhibition effect, Internet, trolling, first admendment,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy,

Helping Drew

video, College/Adult, , 2013

In this episode of NJEA's Classroom Close-up, pre-K and kindergarten students at Teaneck's Bryant Elementary School get an early anti-bullying lesson from a teacher-produced puppet show called "Helping Drew". Elementary school educator, Alex Ishkanian, combines his passion for the performing arts and his education background to create engaging, dramatic programs for elementary-school-aged students.

Keywords: NJEA, Classroom Close-up, anti-bullying, early childhood, pre-K, performing arts, kindergarten, professional development,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Jean Decety Says Bullies' Brains Might Work Differently

audio, Intermediate - College/Adult, UEN, 2010

Jean Decety is a neuroscientist at the University of Chicago who studies human empathy. Listen as he talks about his study on how children with aggressive conduct disorder - associated with bullying - process empathy.

Keywords: empathy, psychology, bullying, bullies, aggressive conduct disorder, neuroscience, brain, podcast, neurology, aggression, emotion,

Subjects: Science,

Jean Decety Says Bullies' Brains Might Work Differently - Full | Earth and Sky Podcast

audio, Intermediate - Senior High, UEN, 2010

Jean Decety is a neuroscientist at the University of Chicago who studies human empathy. He talked to EarthSky about his study on how children with aggressive conduct disorder - associated with bullying - process empathy.

Keywords: empathy, psychology, bullying, bullies, aggressive conduct disorder, neuroscience, brain, podcast, neurology, aggression, emotion,

Subjects: Science,

Juan's Story: Bullying | The Graduates Film Module

video, Senior High - College/Adult, , 2013

This film module spotlights Juan's story and the value of arts programs in building self-esteem and community. Students will look at how bullying can be an obstacle to Latino youth, especially with regards to immigrant, undocumented, racial, socioeconomic, and LGBTQ groups. They will explore how the arts can be a powerful way to bring different voices into dialogue, and how they can be tools for increasing self-esteem and combating stereotypes and negative images.

Keywords: Juan, film module, bullying, school, self-esteem, arts programs, community, immigrants, youth, education, Latino, Latina, students, high school, family, educators, Community Classroom, Independent Lens, The Graduates, ITVS,

Subjects: Professional Development, Social Studies, The Arts,

The Latino Student Dropout Rate | The Graduates: The Boys: Chapter 1

video, Intermediate - Senior High, , 2013

Learn about statistics that show Latino youth are more likely to drop out of school than other students. Meet three Latino boys who have faced challenges in their education: Eduardo experienced gang violence in his community, Gustavo talks about the complications of being undocumented, and Jaun was bullied for being gay.

Keywords: The Graduates, Los Graduados, Latino, Latina, Hispanic students, gang violence, LGBT bullying, undocumented immigrant, immigration, high school graduation rate, college application, education rates, race divide, class divide, high school dropout rate, high school diploma,

Subjects: Social Studies,

LGBT Bullying in School | The Graduates: The Boys: Chapter 4

video, Intermediate - Senior High, , 2013

Explore the difficulties that LGBT students can face when they are bullied in school. Juan explains how being bullied for his sexuality made him feel, and why it made school a difficult place to be. Coming from the Dominican Republic, he also had to contend with a language barrier when he first immigrated to America.

Keywords: The Graduates, Los Graduados, Latino, Latina, Hispanic students, LGBT bullying, Dominican teens, high school graduation rate, college application, education rates, race divide, class divide, high school dropout rate, high school diploma,

Subjects: Social Studies,

Liberty's Kids: United We Stand | Tarred and Feathered

video, Intermediate - Senior High, , 2002

In this segment of "Liberty's Kids: United We Stand" Sarah tries to understand how the Colonies are separate, yet united. Meanwhile, a young man is tarred and feathered for not supporting the patriots. James gets swept up in the bullying of the young man. On the Liberty News Network, play a round of Mystery Guest to reveal the second First Lady of the United States. She rallied Bostonians to join the Revolution and was the mother of a President. On Now and Then, compare life in the 18th and 21st centuries. James learns what a pseudonym is and decides to adopt one. In the New England countryside Sarah travels to meet Abigail Adams. At Carpenter's Hall in Philadelphia Sam and John Adams meet with the Continental Congress.

Keywords: Revolutionary War, America, history, Benjamin Franklin, Sam Adams, John Adams, Abigail Adams, Continental Congress,

Subjects: Social Studies,

Martha Speaks: Martha Walks the Dog | Good Dog, Good Parrot

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Primary, , 2008

In this segment of Martha Speaks: Martha Walks the Dog Bob the neighborhood bully dog chases Martha around the block and into the park. Molly the parrot keeps saying "good dog," and the bully dog calms down. The more praise the dog gets, the nicer he becomes. Bob's owner learns that he just needs more praise. The more the owner called him a bad dog, the more he acted like a bad dog. Martha reviews things that are pleasant and things that are unpleasant.

Keywords: Martha Speaks, PBS kids, animation, vocabulary, language arts, communication,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy,

Martha Speaks: Martha Walks the Dog | Introduction

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Primary, , 2008

This segment of "Martha Speaks: Martha Walks the Dog" features words about praise, flattery, and compliments. Martha performs for a potato chip at a backyard cookout and shocks a woman. Martha worries that Nelson the bully cat will learn to speak. Ronald presents his talking parrot who keeps saying "good dog." Martha learns what an "insult" means and that "beware of" means something is dangerous. Helen and Martha try to welcome a very mean dog to the neighborhood.

Keywords: Martha Speaks, PBS kids, animation, vocabulary, language arts, communication,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy,

Martha Speaks: There Goes the Neighborhood | Saying Good-bye

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Primary, , 2008

In this segment of "Martha Speaks: There Goes the Neighborhood" Martha rescues the new kitten from big, bully Bob the dog. It becomes more and more difficult for Martha to hide her affection for the new kitten from Skits. Skits does not approve of liking cats. Finally, Martha has to confess to being friends with the kitten. Martha accuses Skits of prejudging and being prejudiced against all cats. There are good cats and bad cats, just like there are good dogs and not-so-good dogs. Martha sulks when she doesn't get to say goodbye to the new kitten after she gets adopted.

Keywords: Martha Speaks, PBS kids, animation, vocabulary, language arts, communication,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy,

Martha Speaks: "What's Bothering Bob" & "Martha Spins a Tale"

media gallery, Preschool/Kindergarten - Primary, , 2008

This episode of Martha Speaks features the segments "What's Bothering Bob" and "Martha Spins a Tale." Martha is a dog who learned to talk by eating alphabet soup. Today's segments feature words about things that are quiet and things that are irritating. First, in "What's Bothering Bob" the neighborhood bully dog chases all the kids up a tree. They try to figure out what's making Bob so angry. Then, in "Martha Spins a Tale" baby Jake gets an extended fairy tale narrated by Martha. Then, Martha reviews words about things that are quiet and things that are irritating.

Keywords: Martha Speaks, PBS kids, animation, vocabulary, language arts, communication, PBSd Gallery, definitions, calm, irritating,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy,

Martha Speaks: What's Bothering Bob | Introduction

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Primary, , 2008

This segment of "Martha Speaks: What's Bothering Bob" focuses on words about things that are quiet and things that are irritating. At the school spelling bee Truman has to spell the word "anxious," so he asks for a definition of the word. Truman wins a big trophy for the spelling bee and a talking pocket dictionary. Truman can't figure out how to turn off the dictionary. Bob, the bully dog, chases Truman down the street and into the library. Truman hides from Bob in a trash can, but the dog finds him.

Keywords: Martha Speaks, PBS kids, animation, vocabulary, language arts, communication, emotions, anxious, definitions, dogs,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy,

Martha Speaks: What's Bothering Bob | Let Sleeping Dogs Lie

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Primary, , 2008

In this segment of "Martha Speaks: What's Bothering Bob," Helen calls the animal rescue to report an angry dog on the loose. Now everyone's stuck up the tree including animal control. They call Martha to translate what's bothering Bob the bully dog. When Martha arrives she finds Bob scaring all the kids and adults in the tree. A horrible ringing sound scares Martha away. She figures out that the loud sound can only be heard by dogs and it's making Bob angry. It turns out to be the computer dictionary. Truman takes the battery out and Bob immediately calms down and goes to sleep. Martha reviews words about quiet, serene, and peaceful.

Keywords: Martha Speaks, PBS kids, animation, vocabulary, language arts, communication, angry, dogs, dog whistle, serene, definitions,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy,

Martha Speaks: What's Bothering Bob | Up a Tree

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Primary, , 2008

In this segment of Martha Speaks: What's Bothering Bob, Helen gets a call that Truman's mother is looking for him, but no one has seen him. The kids look for Truman, but he's nowhere to be found. Finally, Helen finds Truman atop a tree cornered by Bob the bully dog. The computer dictionary still won't stop talking. Now, both Helen and Truman are stuck up the tree. T.D. teases Bob and then all the kids are stuck up in the tree with Bob below. They can't figure out what provoked Bob. At last, Bob's owner comes to get him, but then he chases his owner up the tree.

Keywords: Martha Speaks, PBS kids, animation, vocabulary, language arts, communication, dogs, provoke, definitions,
Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy,

Martha Walks the Dog

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Primary, , 2008

You can use this video for Session 6 of the MARTHA SPEAKS Reading Buddies program. Students watch the video, in which Martha tries to find out why the new dog in town is so loud and mean. After watching, buddy pairs talk about the episode, play a Choose and Chat game, read a children's book together, and write in their journal. Prior to using this resource for Reading Buddies, be sure you have read the complete introductory materials in the MARTHA SPEAKS Reading Buddies Program Guide. Key vocabulary: pleasant, unpleasant, compliment, bully

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy,

Meet Amanie, A Muslim Woman In America

video, Intermediate - Senior High, Nine Network of Public Media, 2011

America is a very diverse country, but with all the different cultures here, there are bound to be misunderstandings. After the attacks of 9/11, many Muslims in America felt as if they and their faith were misunderstood. This clip features a young Islamic woman explaining how she helped others to better understand her faith and bridge divides between cultures.

Keywords: immigration, immigrants, prejudice, discrimination, cultural barriers, Muslim-Americans, Islamic-Americans, Islam, cultural differences, hijab, faith, September 11, 9/11, women, bullying,

Subjects: Social Studies,

Muslim American Students Face High Rates of Bullying | PBS NewsHour

video, Intermediate - Senior High, , 2016

Learn how a school addressed anti-Muslim bullying with this video and educational resources from PBS NewsHour from May 17, 2016.

Keywords: PBS NewsHour, Muslim American, Muslim, Islam, prejudice, St. Cloud, Minnesota, bullying, high school, immigration, diversity, hate, safety, harassment, civil rights, tensions, online bullying, walkout, inclusion,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy, Social Studies,

NFL Bullying Case Sparks Debate Over Race, Sport and Culture

document, Junior High - Senior High, PBS NewsHour Contributor, 2013

This Daily News Story from PBS NewsHour Extra was created on November 12th, 2013. Bullying and sports made headlines recently when Jonathan Martin, a 24-year-old offensive lineman for the Miami Dolphins left his team after being tormented by veteran teammate Richie Incognito.

Keywords: NFL, bullying, PBS NewsHour Extra, race, racial, workplace harassment, National Football League, Miami Dolphins, Jonathan, Martin, Richie Incognito, blacks, African Americans, whites, athletes,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy, Professional Development, Social Studies,

Noncompliant and Defiant Behavior

media gallery, College/Adult, , 2017

All school personnel are familiar with students who don't follow directions well and require constant attention and reminders. Noncompliance and defiance are characterized by behaviors that are clearly off task or in defiance of stated rules and expectations. Further, noncompliant students often find ways to ignore directions or provide excuses for why they are unable to follow directions. When noncompliant behavior is addressed in the wrong way, the results will, at best, be ineffective, and at worst, may cause an escalation in off-task behavior. These videos, featuring actors in the student roles, illustrate strategies to de-escalate noncompliant and defiant behavior in classroom and non-classroom settings.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky, KY, Department of Education, positive, behavior, PBIS, special needs, restraint, PPBIS, staff, teacher, instructor, development, training, instruction, classroom, school, strategies, best practices, discipline, physical restraint, seclusion, bullying, prevention, classroom management, behavior management, de-escalation strategies, positive discipline, problem behavior, off-task behavior, fighting, aggression, aggressive behavior, noncompliance, noncompliant behavior, non-certified staff training, disruptive behavior, room clear,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Not in Our Town

media gallery, Intermediate - College/Adult, Einhorn Family Charitable Trust, 2011

Not In Our Town highlights communities working together to stop hate. The videos and connected lesson guides and activities highlight and celebrate people who have developed creative anti-bias programs and responses.

Keywords: hate crimes, violence, discrimination, activism, intolerance, injustice, bullying, empowerment, anti-immigrant, murder, suicides, school-community involvement, schools, segregation, KKK, Ku Klux Klan, Mississippi,

Subjects: English Language Arts and Literacy, Health and Physical Education, Social Studies,

Off-Task Behavior

video, College/Adult, , 2017

This video, featuring actors in the student roles, illustrates the role of teacher proximity and student placement in helping a student remain on-task.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky, KY, Department of Education, positive, behavior, PBIS, special needs, restraint, PPBIS, staff, teacher, instructor, development, training, instruction, classroom, school, strategies, best practices, discipline, physical restraint, seclusion, bullying, prevention, classroom management, behavior management, de-escalation strategies, positive discipline, problem behavior, off-task behavior, fighting, aggression, aggressive behavior, noncompliance, noncompliant behavior, non-certified staff training, disruptive behavior, room clear,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Positive Behavior in Schools III: Bullying Prevention

web page, College/Adult, KDE Every Child Succeeds, 2014

This two-hour self-paced course meets the training Kentucky requirement for teachers and other school personnel pursuant to 704 KAR 7:160, "Use of Physical Restraint and Seclusion in Public Schools". There are two self-paced modules in this course. Each module features authentic classroom video highlighting best practices and methods. At the end of this course, learners earn a certificate of completion for two hours of PD and EILA Credit.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky, KY, Department of Education, Administrative, regulations, positive, behavior, PBIS, PBIS II, PBIS III, special needs, restraint, PPBIS, certificate, staff, teacher, instructor, development, training, instruction, classroom, school, strategies, achievement, best practices, discipline, physical restraint, seclusion, bullying, prevention, Scott Ross,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Project Team

video, College/Adult, , 2012

Students from elementary through high school in Stafford, NJ participate in anti-bullying programs designed to increase self-esteem and promote compassion. At Southern Regional High School, students in the Student Team-Building Youth Leadership Experience (S.T.Y.L.E.) program teach students at Ocean Acres Elementary School about helping others, positive behavior, problem solving, resiliency, and leadership. One second grade teacher said that in the two years the initiatives have been in place, he has seen his students become less ego-centric and more compassionate.

Keywords: NJEA, Classroom Close-up, anti-bullying, peer mentoring,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Provocative Behavior

media gallery, College/Adult, , 2017

Sometimes a student may do or say something inappropriate as a simple slip-up while at other times this type of behavior is a purposeful attempt to get attention. In either case, school personnel must respond in a manner that is effective as well as minimizes the probability of the behavior escalating. These videos, featuring actors in the student roles, illustrate strategies to de-escalate provocative behavior in classroom and non-classroom settings.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky, KY, Department of Education, positive, behavior, PBIS, special needs, restraint, PPBIS, staff, teacher, instructor, development, training, instruction, classroom, school, strategies, best practices, discipline, physical restraint, seclusion, bullying, prevention, classroom management, behavior management, de-escalation strategies, positive discipline, problem behavior, off-task behavior, fighting, aggression, aggressive behavior, noncompliance, noncompliant behavior, non-certified staff training, disruptive behavior, room clear,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Race and Bullying in the NFL (Code Switch Article)

document, Junior High - Senior High, PBS NewsHour Contributor, 2013

Martin, a 24-year-old, second-year NFL pro from the Miami Dolphins, abruptly walked away from the team last week after an incident with Incognito, 30, his frequent tormentor and the offensive line's unofficial leader.

Keywords: race, racial, bullying, workplace harassment, National Football League, NFL, Miami Dolphins, Jonathan, Martin, Richie Incognito, blacks, African Americans, whites, athletes,

Subjects: Professional Development, Social Studies,

The R Word

video, College/Adult, , 2012

The New Jersey Council on Developmental Disabilities visits Sandman Consolidated Elementary School to promote the elimination of the "R Word." Students learn why the "R Word" is hurtful to people with intellectual disabilities, discuss "bullying language," and pledge to eliminate the word from their everyday speech. After the presentation, student ambassadors speak to other students about the R-word campaign and ask them to sign the pledge.

Keywords: NJEA, Classroom Close-up, disabilities, r-word, New Jersey Council on Developmental Disabilities, bullying, bullying language,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Say Something: Educator Guide | Sandy Hook Promise

document, Intermediate - Senior High, Sandy Hook Promise | grayscale & color | 2018, 2018

This easy-to-use guide is designed to assist adult educators in delivering and sustaining the Say Something program. It includes tips for getting started, key messages and action steps to emphasize, and ideas, activities and resources for supporting young people in carrying out Say Something throughout the year.

Keywords: Sandy Hook Promise, Say Something, anti-bullying, bullying, gun control, gun violence, friendship, warning signs, signals, safe schools, professional development, pd, threats, mental health, youth violence, youth violence prevention, violence prevention, peer assistance, peer programs, advocacy programs, school shootings, school violence, student safety,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education, Professional Development,

Say Something: Student Leader Guide | Sandy Hook Promise

document, Intermediate - Senior High, Sandy Hook Promise | grayscale & color | 2018, 2018

This easy-to-use guide is designed to assist peer leaders and SAVE Promise Club members in sustaining Say Something throughout the year. It includes tips for getting started, key action steps and messages to emphasize, and ideas, activities and resources that young people can do throughout the year to carry Say Something forward and create a culture of "upstanders."

Keywords: Sandy Hook Promise, Say Something, anti-bullying, bullying, gun control, gun violence, warning signs, safe schools, pd, threats, mental health, student leadership, peer leadership, peer advisors, SAVE Promise club, youth violence, youth violence prevention, violence prevention, peer assistance, peer programs, advocacy programs, school shootings, school violence, student safety,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education,

Self-Expression and Bullying | The Graduates: The Boys: Chapter 6

video, Intermediate - Senior High, , 2013

Self-Expression through performance can help some students tackle bullying. learn more, in this clip from The Graduates: The Boys. When Juan was being bullied for being gay, he found dance to be a great outlet for his emotions. Explore some of the ways that expressing themselves can help teens with school.

Keywords: The Graduates, Los Graduados, Latino, Latina, Hispanic students, high school graduation rate, LGBT bullying, self-expression, dance, performance art, Latino theater, college application, education rates, race divide, class divide, high school dropout rate, high school diploma,

Subjects: Social Studies,

Sing for Change

video, College/Adult, , 2013

In this episode of NJEA's Classroom Close-up, students at Blackwood Loring Flemming Elementary School use their voices to educate people about bullying, respect, and self-acceptance. With knowledge of bullying's enormous negative impact among even very young children, music teacher and choir director, Erica Guillama, decided to integrate themes of character education and bullying awareness into her music class. Her fourth grade students perform a concert for the community, singing songs with positive social messages and wearing shirts with positive descriptive words about themselves. Students also engage in bullying awareness exercises, such as crumbling up and stomping on paper to model the permanent negative effects of bullying.

Keywords: NJEA, Classroom Close-up, bullying, character education, music, bullying awareness, tolerance, respect, self-acceptance, professional development,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Social Media: Age Appropriate

video, College/Adult, , 2017

This video provides information for parents and caregivers about the recommended age limits for popular social media apps and websites.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Social Media: Apps

video, College/Adult, , 2017

This video provides information for parents and caregivers about social media apps for phones and tablets.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Social Media: Basics

video, College/Adult, , 2017

In this video, Mary Beth Uberti of Operation Parent talks about the basics of what parents and caregivers need to know about social media and their children.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Social Media: Digital Footprint

video, College/Adult, , 2017

In this video, Mary Beth Uberti of Operation Parent discusses the need for parents and caregivers to help their children understand that what they post on social media can last forever.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Social Media: Family Contracts

video, College/Adult, , 2017

This video featuring Mary Beth Uberti of Operation Parent, introduces the concept of social media contracts, which enable parents and caregivers to set social media rules up front with their children and avoid potential problems.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Social Media: Friends

video, College/Adult, , 2017

This video features information for parents and caregivers on the appropriate number of "friends and followers" their children should have on social media.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Social Media: Private vs. Public

video, College/Adult, , 2017

This video provides information about how to ensure that personal information on social media remains private.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Social Media: Red Flags

video, College/Adult, , 2017

In this video, Mary Beth Uberti of Operation Parent describes some red flags that indicate potentially serious problems that can arise in children's use of social media.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Social Media: Safe Person

video, College/Adult, , 2017

The importance of children being able to go to their parent, caregiver, or another responsible adult in their lives when they encounter issues using social media is discussed in this video.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Social Media: Safety

video, College/Adult, , 2017

This video featuring Mary Beth Uberti of Operation Parent is an introduction to safety issues parents and caregivers should be aware of regarding their children and social media.

Keywords: KET, Kentucky Department of Education, KDE, Project AWARE, Operation Parent, social media, digital footprint, sexting, cyber bullying, apps, parenting, teen, teenager, adolescent, igeneration, generation z,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Stand Up to Bullying

video, Primary - Intermediate, , 2014

This video depicts a mock bullying scene with children playing a game and excluding one child. During the mock segment, Mackenzie, the host, identifies what bullying is, the different forms of bullying, and what to do if you or a friend is being bullied. Finally, the scene is replayed with a different outcome with all three children engaging with each other.

Keywords: education, Move It!, working on wellness, bullying prevention, bullying, stand up to bullying, Klee Foundation,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education,

Stop Bullying...Take a Stand | In the Mix

video, Junior High - College/Adult, Castle Works Inc, 2005

This solution-oriented video clip from In the Mix presents a comprehensive and multifaceted approach to preventing bullying. It also provides help and advice to victims, parents and bystanders.

Keywords: bullying, abuse, bullies, conflict resolution, violence, teenagers, culture, relationships, school, engagement, students, goals, In the Mix, reality, tv, television, shows, clips, professional development,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education,

Teaching the Tough Subjects

video, College/Adult, , 2011

Watch how educators present difficult topics involving human suffering in this episode of NJEA's Classroom Close-up. Teachers and community groups have created curricula on topics such as the terrorist attacks of 9/11 and school shootings. Middle school students made a website to raise awareness about modern day slavery. High school students wrote and presented a play exploring the complicated issue of bullying. While some topics may be difficult to discuss, they can be meaningful experiences for students if they are approached carefully.

Keywords: NJEA, Classroom Close-up, terrorism, bullying, slavery, forced labor, human suffering, drama, web design, professional development,

Subjects: Professional Development,

Tell an Adult

video, Preschool/Kindergarten - Primary, UEN, 2010

Sometimes we see something on the Internet that makes us feel uncomfortable. This can happen when we are playing a game on the Internet or perhaps even talking to someone on the phone. When this happens we need to tell an adult we trust. An adult we can trust may be a grandparent, teacher, mom, dad or police officer.

Keywords: online safety, safety, gaming, online games, chat, cyber-bully, online predators, feelings, communication, cybersafety,

Subjects: Health and Physical Education, Preschool,

What Is Not In Our School?

video, College/Adult, , 2011

Watch students participating in the Not In Our School movement and see students and educators engaging in peer-to-peer activities, classroom projects, and school-wide events such as role playing and bullying mapping. Observe students' engagement and creative energy as they engage in proactively addressing intolerance issues in their schools. Explore the core ideas of the Not In Our School movement and learn how to empower students in your school and community to actively address intolerance and bullying.

Keywords: bullying, intolerance, stereotypes, prejudice, activism, citizen engagement, student participation, role playing, empower, empowerment, hate, schools,

Subjects: Professional Development,