A Message from the General Manager

Seasonal Showcase

As 2017 ends, we hope you'll celebrate the holiday and New Year with festive specials on Vegas PBS. Throughout the month, tune in to explore diverse traditions across Europe with Rick Steves; gain kitchen inspiration with The Great British Baking Show and A Chef's Life; sing along with musical specials from The Carpenters, The Mormon Tabernacle Choir and Celtic Thunder; or relish the inevitable drama of the season with Last Tango in Halifax and Call the Midwife.

December also marks the last on-air fundraising campaign of the calendar year. We are delighted to offer health and wellness specials on mindfulness, nutrition, fitness and finance; comedy favorites like Young Hyacinth and Victor Borge; historical documentaries on the Vietnam War and Bob Hope; and musical performances with local ticket offers from Moody Blues, Human Nature, Celtic Woman and more.

We are also thrilled to offer Postmodern Jukebox – The New Classics, which was recorded live in Las Vegas at Myron's Cabaret Jazz. We are happy to continue our partnership with The Smith Center for the Performing Arts. The program will make its Vegas PBS debut on Sunday, December 3 at 8:30 p.m. and will have an encore broadcast on Sunday, December 10 at 6:30 p.m. This is the third program that we helped bring to a national audience on public television. We will also present specials from David Foster performing at Mandalay Bay and Human Nature from the Venetian (see page 10 for details). These national programs from our city showcase the quality of our venues and the excellence of our entertainment options. Public television provides everyone with access to quality arts programming, regardless of ability to travel or afford a ticket.

During these seasonal specials, we hope you'll find a favorite program and choose to renew your membership or make an additional gift of support. With a membership donation of as little as $5 per month or $60 annually, you'll receive Vegas PBS Passport – our newest member benefit.

Vegas PBS Passport provides sustaining members with extended access to an on-demand library of quality local and national public television programs anytime, anywhere. Highlights include every past episode of award-winning Masterpiece series like Victoria, Grantchester, Home Fires and Poldark. You can also watch hundreds of hours of Nature, NOVA, Antiques Roadshow, American Experience, The Great British Baking Show, and much more.

Earlier this year, the total number of Vegas PBS members grew to more than 15,000 families who have chosen to invest in the quality entertaining, informative and inspiring programs they rely on Vegas PBS to provide. In a year when local events required us to focus on the people who really matter most, we thank you for your continuing support of Vegas PBS' television programs, internet content and educational services. Have a happy, healthy and hopeful holiday season.

Think Wednesday

Wednesdays from 8 p.m. - 11 p.m.

Explore the fascinating worlds of science and nature every Wednesday evening.

Nature: Soul of the Elephant

Nature

Wednesdays at 8 p.m.

Encore broadcasts air the following Sundays at 9 a.m.

The Sagebrush Sea December 6

This special tracks the Greater Sage-Grouse and other wildlife through the seasons as they struggle to survive in a massive sea of sagebrush that stretches across eleven U.S. states.

Soul of the Elephant December 13

Award-winning filmmakers Dereck and Beverly Joubert start with the remains of two bull elephants and, through a series of key flashbacks, look at the lives they would have led, the dramas they may have seen and their encounters with lions and hyenas.

The Story of Cats:

Asia to Africa December 20

Discover how the first cats arose in the forests of Asia, how they spread across the continent and later came to conquer Africa. We reveal how cats evolved with an in-depth look at lions, servals, caracals, cheetahs, tigers, fishing and sand cats.

The Story of Cats: Into the Americas December 27

Track the story of cats into the Americas, from battles with the rival Canids, to the rise of domestic cats. Meet the mighty jaguar, the urban mountain lion, the curious ocelot, the Canada lynx, the nimble margay, the Siamese cat and the Sphynx.

“Long mocked as empty-headed, birds hide surprisingly acute intelligence. But just how smart are they?”

NOVA: Secret Tunnel Warfare

NOVA

Wednesdays at 9 p.m.

Encore broadcasts air the following Sundays at 10 a.m.

Rise of the Robots December 6

Machines with human-like capabilities have long been the stuff of science fiction. Until now. Meet the world's most advanced humanoid robots as they leave the lab, battle real-world challenges and endeavor to become part of our everyday lives.

Secret Tunnel Warfare December 13

During WWI, the Allies devised a devastating plan, planting 600 tons of explosives in secret tunnels driven under German trenches. The program uncovers traces of the operation and learns why it failed to break the lethal deadlock of trench warfare.

Bird Brain December 20

Long mocked as empty-headed, birds hide surprisingly acute intelligence. But just how smart are they? In this new special, scientists test avian aptitude with brainteasers and discover how the genius of birds is leading us to rethink our basic notions of intelligence.

Day the Dinosaurs Died December 27

Investigate how an asteroid vanquished the dinosaurs 66 million years ago. Join scientists as they drill into the impact crater and, for the first time, reconstruct the hell on earth that unfolded in the minutes, hours and months after the impact.

Science and Nature Wednesdays at 10 p.m.

Hawking

December 6

This is the intimate and revealing story of Stephen Hawking's life, told for the first time in Hawking's own words and with unique access to his home and public life.

Supernature—Wild Flyers

This three-part series explores the wonder and science of one of nature's greatest innovations — the power of flight. Cutting-edge camera technology and computer-generated graphics help explain airborne animals' remarkable powers and how they work.

Defying Gravity (Episode 1) December 13

Explore the basic principles of flight to see how animals become airborne in the first place.

Masters of the Sky (Episode 2) December 20

The extremes of true flight power, acceleration, speed, maneuverability and endurance are explored.

Crowded Skies (Episode 3) December 27

In order to survive in the crowded sky, mammals, birds and insects must out-fly the competition.

Martha Bakes

Saturdays at 2:30 p.m. beginning December 9

Martha Stewart

Learn to create the finest desserts and goodies in your own home in an all-new Season 8. Martha Stewart shares the best baking tips and techniques, giving you the confidence to create delectable baked goods – from scratch – in your own kitchen. Martha's updated versions of the classics set the standard, while her uses of flavors and ingredients add new angles to some familiar favorites.

This month's episodes:

Updated Classics December 9

Martha teaches how to replace the usual ingredients with more wholesome substitutes in three updated classics: luscious rhubarb and raspberry rye crisps, as trendy as they are delicious, flaky buttermilk barley biscuits and a lofty spelt layer cake lightened with whipped cream and berries. They are sure to become family favorites!

Coffee Shop Favorites December 16

Learn how to make three coffee shop favorites even better at home using more healthful ingredients: scrumptious apple cider doughnut cake made wholesome with whole-wheat flour and applesauce, tender maple-glazed pumpkin spelt scones and dunk-worthy seeded graham biscotti. All guaranteed to garner rave reviews!

For the Cookie Jar December 23

Martha updates three favorites with more wholesome pantry ingredients: sinfully good pecan, oat, and dark chocolate chunk cookies, chewy molasses crinkles made extra flavorful with quinoa flour, and slice-and-bake buck-wheat-espresso cookies for a grown-up treat. Your cookie jar will never stay full for long!

Alternative Crusts December 30

Join Martha as she shares nutritious and healthier crust alternatives using a new repertoire of grains, flours and sweeteners in remarkable recipes: a show-stopping free-form plum galette with a crunchy cornmeal crust, a decadent and dairy-free chocolate-coconut pie and an incredibly delicious savory whole-wheat, olive oil crusted mushroom tart made with tahini. Something delicious for everyone!

INCREASE YOUR IMPACT WITH VEGAS PBS

The Protecting Americans from Tax Hikes (PATH) Act has made the qualified charitable deduction giving incentive permanent. The legislation will allow individuals 70 1/2 years and older to give up to $100,000 annually from their IRAs directly to charitable non-profits, like Vegas PBS, without being taxed on their distribution. This gift satisfies your required minimum distribution.

For more information on giving from your IRA to Vegas PBS, call Jeff Grandy, Major Gifts Officer, at 702.799.1010 x5415, or e-mail him at jgrandy@VegasPBS.org.

Qualified Charitable Distribution

If you've been considering donating part of your IRA to charity to satisfy your required minimum distribution, now is the time to act. Congress passed the Protecting Americans from Tax Hikes (PATH) Act, permanently allowing IRA owners who are at least 70 1/2 years old to give up to $100,000 directly from an IRA to a charity without having to include the distribution in taxable income for the tax year.

Donating IRA funds directly to qualified charities allows the IRA holder or beneficiary to avoid taking possession of the funds and the tax bill that comes with them. It also allows the extra income to be excluded from tax formulas for Medicare premiums or for the Pease limitation on itemized deductions.

In brief, a qualified charitable distribution (QCD) from an IRA can be made only by an IRA owner or beneficiary age 70-1/2 or older, and can total up to $100,000. A spouse age 70-1/2 with an IRA could give up to $100,000 as well. A QCD can be used to meet your required minimum distribution. The funds, which cannot come from active SEP or SIMPLE IRAs, must be sent directly to the qualified (IRS-approved) charitable organization.

To make use of this provision, please contact your IRA custodian or Jeff Grandy, Vegas PBS Major Gifts Officers, at 702.799.1010 x5415 or jgrandy@VegasPBS.org.

Grantchester Season 3 on Masterpiece: Christmas Special Sunday, November 26 at 7:30 p.m.

James Norton and Robson Green are an improbable crime-fighting team—Reverend Sidney Chambers and Inspector Geordie Keating, respectively—bringing justice and spiritual nourishment to early 1950s England. It's the week before Christmas, 1954. Vicar Sidney Chambers is engrossed with holiday duties, but distracted by an impossible situation — how can a vicar and a woman carrying her estranged husband's baby ever make it work? If that isn't enough to keep him busy, a would-be groom is found dead with the wedding rings lodged in his mouth. These are the hallmarks of a years-old unsolved murder. Then following at 9:30 p.m., don't miss Victoria Returns This half-hour special takes a look back at the first season of the PBS hit series Victoria and offers a glimpse of Season 2 returning in January 2018.

This is Bob Hope: American Masters Thursday, November 30 at 7:30 p.m.

Bob Hope

This new special is a candid look at a remarkable life. By any measure, Hope was one of the most popular entertainers of the 20th century. During his eight-decade career, Bob Hope was the only performer to achieve top-rated success in every form of mass entertainment: Broadway, vaudeville, movies, radio, television, popular song and personal appearances. To examine his career is to look at the evolution of comedy in America. The entertainer's life is explored with unprecedented access to his personal archives, including writings voiced by Billy Crystal, clips from his body of work and interviews with Woody Allen, Margaret Cho, Conan O'Brien, Tom Selleck and Brooke Shields. Repeats Friday, December 29 at 8:30 p.m.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Filthy Cities

Mondays, December 4-18 at 10 p.m.

Do you have to dodge the contents of bedpans or step over rotting corpses on your way to work? Well, you may have had to if you'd lived in London, New York or Paris when they were filthy cities. Historian Dan Snow presents this immersive series, which brings these cities' stinking histories vividly to life. Snow gets down and dirty to discover the hard way how London was forged in the filth of the 14th century. State of the art CGI reveals London's streets as they were 700 years ago, with wooden platforms designed to help rise above the disgusting mess underfoot. He spends the night as a medieval muckraker shifting a staggering six tons of poo and visits a medieval butchery to find out what the medieval authorities were up against.

Wild Caribbean: Reefs and Wrecks

Thursdays, December 7-21 at 8 p.m.

The Caribbean is the embodiment of paradise: crystal blue waters, magical coral reefs and lush tropical forests. Yet behind its beauty lie many dark and mysterious secrets. This series shows both the magic and the drama of the Caribbean. This week's episode explores the beautiful and dangerous coral reefs. Reefs are built by billions of coral polyps – soft bodied, invertebrate animals. The reefs help protect the coastline of the islands from the pounding seas, and they also support a huge variety of marine life, with many fish and corals found nowhere else in the world. But tragically, over the centuries, thousands of ships have been wrecked on the Caribbean's reefs and thousands of people have lost their lives – one notorious reef alone has wrecked over 300 ships.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Finding Your Roots: Southern Roots

Tuesday, December 12 at 8 p.m.

Today's leading artists, politicians, activists, performers and journalists discover surprising ancestral stories while learning their family history in the fourth season of the critically acclaimed series. In this week's episode, three guests of disparate Southern backgrounds — DJ and producer Questlove, talk show host Dr. Phil and journalist Charlayne Hunter-Gault — find astonishing tales of bondage in their family histories. Another episode in this series follows at 9 p.m. Author Ta-Nehisi Coates, filmmaker Ava DuVernay, and author and activist Janet Mock see their basic assumptions about their families challenged, placing their ancestors — of all colors — into the greater context of black history.

Lidia Celebrates America: Homegrown Heroes

Friday, December 15 at 10 p.m.

Join internationally-acclaimed chef and food ambassador Lidia Bastianich as she travels across the United States in a celebration of culture through food. In this episode, she again pays homage to the men and women of our military and all they've sacrificed for this country. Lidia looks at veterans who return home and find farming to be a path back to civilian life. Seven poignant veterans' stories take Lidia from the heart of Appalachia in Loom, West Virginia, to Richmond, Kentucky, and Anaheim, California, and prove that farming, beekeeping and raising livestock can help people reconnect in a meaningful way to the community.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Eric Idle's The Entire Universe

Friday, December 22 at 10 p.m.

A cosmic explosion of comedy, music, dance and science, this hilarious special tackles nothing less than the origins of the cosmos in a zany one-hour variety extravaganza. Idle is ably assisted by renowned British physicist Brian Cox, whose valiant attempts to explain the 138-billion-year history of the universe – including the Big Bang, the space-time continuum, fundamental particles, gravitational fields and more – are constantly interrupted by a motley crew of special guests. Host of the UK's The Great British Bake-Off Noel Fielding appears as both Albert Einstein and a Higgs Boson particle; Warwick Davis jokes about his height with a song lamenting Pluto's diminished status in the solar system and Game of Thrones' Hannah Waddingham sings about time and the speed of light.

Victoria on Masterpiece

Sunday, December 17 at 9 p.m.

One of the highest-rated dramas on PBS in 20 years, this dramatic series returns for Season 2 on January 14! If you have missed any episodes of this tremendous series, now is your chance to catch up on all of the intrigue. Beginning Dec. 17, we will air the entire first season on Sunday evenings, leading up to the highly-anticipated premiere of Season 2. The series follows the life of a diminutive, neglected teenager who is crowned Queen Victoria in 1837, as she navigates the scandal, corruption and political intrigues of the Court, rising to become the most powerful woman in the world. Jenna Coleman (Doctor Who) stars as the candid, spirited monarch who was perhaps the first woman to seem to have it all.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Frank Sinatra

Frank Sinatra: The Voice of Our Time Friday, December 29 at 10:30 p.m.

Hosted by singer Mel Torme, this special chronicles the career of the legendary singer, focusing on his rise to fame in the music world, his acting career, and his involvement in politics and fundraising. The program integrates archival television and film clips, with interviews from lyricist Sammy Cahn, singer/television personality Dinah Shore, film critic Leonard Maltin and music critic John Rockwell. Performance clips include "It Was A Very Good Year," "Fly Me To The Moon," "Ol' Man River," "Stardust," "Saturday Night Is The Loneliest Night Of The Week," "You Make Me Feel So Young," "I've Got The World On A String," "Come Rain Or Come Shine," "Come Fly With Me," "One For My Baby" and many more.

Secrets of Spanish Florida: A Secrets of the Dead Special Tuesday, December 26 at 9 p.m.

The first permanent European settlement in the United States was founded in 1565 – two generations before the settlements in Jamestown and Plymouth – not by English Protestants, but by the Spanish and a melting pot of people they brought with them from Africa, Italy, Germany, Ireland and even converted Jews, who integrated almost immediately with the indigenous tribes. This new special uncovers one story of America's past that never made it into textbooks. Follow some of America's leading archaeologists, maritime scientists, and historians as they share the story of Florida's earliest settlers. It's a story that has taken more than 450 years to reveal. Actor Jimmy Smits narrates.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Antiques Roadshow

Saturdays at 4 p.m.

This popular series puts the reality in reality television! Part adventure, part history lesson and part treasure hunt, this program is a 13-time Emmy® Award-nominee and PBS' most-watched ongoing series. Veteran television personality Mark L. Walberg serves as series host. In each hour-long episode, specialists from the country's leading auction houses and independent dealers offer free appraisals of antiques and collectibles. Cameras capture tales of family heirlooms, flea market finds and items saved from attics and basements, while experts reveal the fascinating truths about these items. The original

JACKPOT! SPOTLIGHT

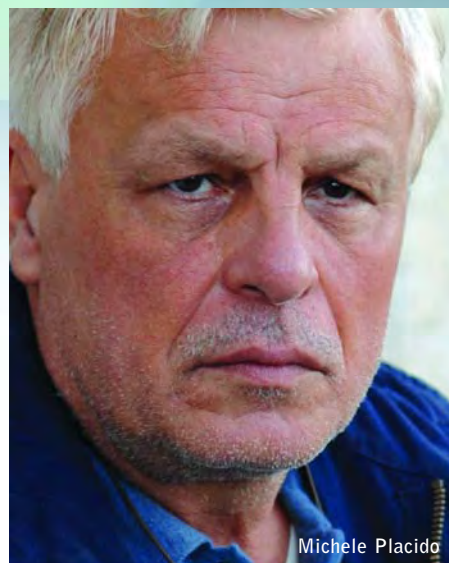

Tolkien & Lewis: Myth, Imagination & The Quest for Meaning

Sunday, December 17 at 9 p.m.

On a dreary September evening in 1931, C.S. Lewis, J.R.R. Tolkien and their friend and fellow scholar, Hugo Dyson, met for dinner and debate in Oxford, England. Lewis' transformation from atheist to theist to Christian was based on the insights of Tolkien and Dyson as they engaged in deep conversation about mythology, reality, ritual, imagination and faith. The discussion in that room is at the heart of this special. It explores the fundamental characteristics of myth in a global context, with an emphasis on how it impacts our lives. The film engages scholars from various spiritual and academic viewpoints while challenging viewers to draw their own conclusions about the meaning of life and the role that mythology and imagination play in determining belief.

Michele Placido

WORLDVIEW SPOTLIGHT

The Last Godfather

Tuesday, December 5 and 12 at 6 p.m.

Truth can be stranger than fiction. The desperate campaign by Italian police to catch aging Mafia head Bernardo Provenzano is depicted in the two-part drama. Michele Placido (The Octopus, Aldo Moro: 55 Days to Death) stars in this gripping docudrama about Mafia boss Bernardo Provenzano, who lived as a fugitive for 43 years. Nino Frassica (Don Matteo) and Guido Caprino (Inspector Manara) co-star. In Part 1, Provenzano gathers Mafia rivals together to try and implement his vision for a more invisible, lucrative organization. Then in Part 2, the police take a new approach in their pursuit as Provenzano continues to evade capture. Repeats same days at 9 p.m. In Italian with English subtitles.

Great Escape: The Reckoning

Saturday, December 23 at 10 p.m.

Many of us are familiar with the story of The Great Escape, when 76 air-men broke out of a German prisoner of war camp during World War II in a dramatic bid for freedom. But its chilling sequel, in which 50 Allied air-men were captured and then murdered by the Gestapo on the orders of a vengeful Adolf Hitler, is largely unknown. Now, for the first time, this compelling drama-documentary – which uses actual reports and court transcripts from the time – depicts the story of a little-known investigation: that of the dedicated RAF Special Investigation Brand team which set about tracking down the Gestapo suspects who killed their men. This is the untold story of one of history's most remarkable criminal investigations.

Why We Support Vegas PBS...

We support Vegas PBS because we value education.

Challenger is a private school offering preschool through eighth grade.

We teach children to find joy and self-worth through achievement. We also teach them to become self-reliant and independent in their thinking and actions. These are parts of our mission and part of the end we have in mind when teaching our students.

Challenger School values its own independence, too. We protect it by not accepting any government money and the intrusion that comes with it. We use our own curriculum and methods.

We are pleased to sponsor children's programming because PBS viewers value education.

RANGE ROVER SPORT

TAX ADVANTAGES FROM A MORE REWARDING PERSPECTIVE

ABOVE & BEYOND

The extraordinary capabilities and exceptional luxury of a new Range Rover Sport, Range Rover or Land Rover Discovery are inherently rewarding. But for business owners, there's even more. Compared to similarly priced luxury cars, these supremely rewarding Land Rover vehicles qualify for an accelerated tax depreciation schedule.*

*Individual tax situations may vary. The information presented was accurate at time of publishing. Federal rules and tax guidelines are subject to change. Consult your tax advisor for complete details on rules applicable to your business.

Comparisons based on Section 179 and 168(k) of the Internal Revenue Code, which allows for additional first year depreciation for eligible vehicles and reflects figures for owners who purchase vehicles for 50 percent or greater business use and place vehicles in service by December 31, 2017.

1. Range Rover Sport depreciation can continue at $2,362 in Year Five, and $1,181 in Year Six, at which point it is fully depreciated.

2. Luxury car depreciation can continue at $1,875 per year for each succeeding year until the vehicle is fully depreciated or sold. © 2017 Jaguar Land Rover North America, LLC
