A Message from the General Manager

Native American History

Throughout November, PBS programming celebrates human and natural history with programs on Broadway and film legends, ancient architectural wonders and dinosaurs, super cats and snow bears. Thanks to your support, Vegas PBS programming can link national programs with local history, including personal engagement opportunities and educational experiences for viewers, educators and students. November is Native American Heritage Month and our programs will also explore the rich history and culture of Native people and recognize their continuing contributions to Nevada.

Made in cooperative with Native American communities and recorded in spectacular locations, Native America airs Tuesday nights throughout the month. The four-part series draws on science, archeology and history to showcase the ancient and still thriving cultures that spread across North, Central and South America. The Independent Lens film Dawnland tells the story of the nation's first-ever government-endorsed truth and reconciliation commission, which investigated the devastating impact of Maine's child welfare practices on Native American communities.

In A Point in Time, a local Nevada filmmaker follows archaeologists working in Nevada and Utah as they discover artifacts that reveal surprising details about some of the first inhabitants in our neighborhood. Viewers can continue the exploration of Nevada's Native heritage with Outdoor Nevada: Common Ground as John Burke and the crew are joined by tribe members from four Native American Nations in the state and explore the land through their eyes.

Last month, Nevada Week, aired a special episode with a panel of educators and local Paiute tribe members who see inclusion of local Native American education as a component of our state's tourism prosperity, historic identity, and essential to preserve a culture at-risk of extinction. You can watch the full episode at VegasPBS.org or on our YouTube channel.

Our ever-curious viewers like to go beyond the airwaves and experience history up close and personal. This month we offer members a three-day trip to Wapatki pueblo villages, the Painted Desert, and Montezuma's Castle, stopping in Flagstaff and Winslow Arizona along the way. For details on this and other program-related member excursions, visit VegasPBS.org/tickets.

Vegas PBS also provides a robust collection of curriculum for Nevada educators and students that examines Native American art, history, and culture as told through historians, artists, students, and scientists. More than 17 online databases provide access to thousands of classroom-ready, standards-aligned curriculum resources including videos, interactives, audio clips, photos, lesson plans, and more. Teachers can use these free resources to jump start classroom conversations and help students delve more deeply into the history of Native American culture and innovation.

Your membership support helps fund television and internet program content that provides a window to the world – past, present, and future. We hope you take pride in the richness of this month's programming, travel excursions and classroom resources made possible by your annual support. Vegas PBS thanks you for your gifts and uses television to broaden perspectives, deepen understanding, inspire engagement, stimulate informed conversations, and provide lifelong learning about history, culture, politics performing arts, health, science, nature, and ancient cultures.

Great Performances

Give My Regards to Broadway

Every Friday at 9 p.m.

Great Performances: An American in Paris: The Musical

We are Broadway-bound with a month of fantastic Broadway-themed programming! Great Performances presents more of the Great White Way's brightest stars with a new "Broadway's Best" lineup. Returning for a second year, this fall's lineup includes several beloved musicals, as well as documentaries about the making of John Leguizamo's Tony-nominated play "Latin History for Morons" and 21-time Tony-winning director and producer Harold Prince.

An American in Paris: The Musical

Friday, November 2 at 9 p.m.

Described as an extended symphonic tone poem, George Gershwin's 1928 composition "An American in Paris" was commissioned by conductor Walter Damrosch and rapidly became one of his most famous compositions. The 1951 MGM film starring Gene Kelly was inspired by Gershwin's score and became one of the studio's most acclaimed and famous movie musicals, winning six Academy Awards.

In 2015, Paris finally came "home" to Broadway in a thrilling new stage adaptation of the film, directed and choreographed by dance wunderkind Christopher Wheeldon, which earned four Tony Awards. Happily for Broadway, dance and Gershwin fans, the Broadway production makes its television debut on Great Performances with its original stars, Tony nominees Robert Fairchild and Leanne Cope.

Rodgers & Hammerstein's The Sound of Music

Friday, November 9 at 9 p.m.

Beloved by generations of audiences worldwide, this musical tells the inspiring true story of the von Trapp Family Singers and their escape from Austria during the rise of Nazism. Rodgers and Hammerstein's 1959 hit stage musical garnered five Tony Awards, including Best Musical, and the blockbuster 1965 movie adaptation won five Oscars, including Best Picture.

Enjoy the 2015 live U.K. broadcast version starring Kara Tointon as Maria, Julian Ovenden as Captain von Trapp, Katherine Kelley as Baroness Schraeder, Alexander Armstrong as Max and Maria Friedman as the Mother Abbess. Cinematically photographed on adjoining sound stages, the production offers a more naturalistic interpretation of this great classic of the American musical theater. Among the many classic songs featured in the score are "The Sound of Music," "My Favorite Things," "Do-Re-Mi," "Climb Every Mountain," "Edelweiss" and more.

John Leguizamo's Road to Broadway

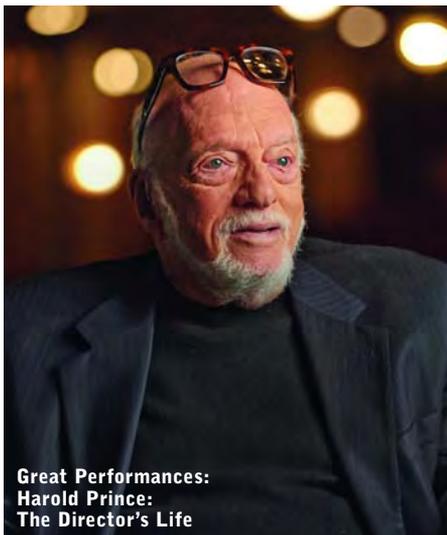

Friday, November 16 at 9 p.m.

Beginning his career as a stand-up comic in the early 1980s, John Leguizamo garnered early-career acclaim in 1993 with his memorable role in "Carlito's Way," which led to an extensive film and television career including roles in "To Wong Foo...", "Romeo + Juliet," "Moulin Rouge" and many more. But it has been in the theater that Leguizamo has been able to fully display his quicksilver comic brilliance and insightful social consciousness in a series of one-man shows: "Mambo Mouth," "Spic-O-Rama," "Freak," "Sexaholix...A Love Story" and "Ghetto Klown."

This behind-the-scenes documentary chronicles Leguizamo's latest theatrical showcase, "Latin History for Morons." This comic yet pointed look at the repression of Latino culture in America follows Leguizamo's journey through his own family history to his first-ever Comedy Club tour and to Off-Broadway workshops of the new show. Along the way, Leguizamo navigates the challenges of writing (and re-writing) history lessons intended to enlighten and entertain.

Harold Prince:
The Director's Life

Friday, November 23 at 9 p.m.

This retrospective celebrates the extraordinary career of producer and director Harold Prince, whose seven decades in the theater spans from Broadway's "Golden Age" to the contemporary blockbusters of today. Winner of 21 Tony Awards (the most of any individual), Prince's peerless résumé includes such legendary shows as "West Side Story," "Fiddler on the Roof," "Cabaret," "Company," "Follies," "Sweeney Todd," "Evita," "The Phantom of the Opera" and many more.

In addition to archival clips, this fascinating performance-documentary includes interviews with many of Prince's renowned collaborators, including Stephen Sondheim, Andrew Lloyd Webber, Mandy Patinkin, John Kander, Susan Stroman, Angela Lansbury and others, all sharing their firsthand insights into his pioneering achievements in the theater.

Irving Berlin's Holiday Inn - The Broadway Musical
Friday, November 30 at 9 p.m.

In this classic musical, Jim leaves the bright lights of Broadway—as well as his fiancé dance partner Lila—to settle down at an old farmhouse in Connecticut ... but life just isn't the same without a bit of song and dance. Jim's luck takes a turn for the better when he meets Linda, a spirited schoolteacher with talent to spare. Together they turn the farmhouse into a seasonal inn with show-stopping performances to celebrate each holiday, from Thanksgiving to the Fourth of July. But when Jim's best friend, Ted, tries to lure Linda away to be his new dance partner in Hollywood, will Jim be able to salvage his latest chance at love?

Songs include such Irving Berlin all-time classics as "Shaking the Blues Away," "Heat Wave," "Blue Skies," "Cheek to Cheek," "It's a Lovely Day Today," "Easter Parade" and, of course, "White Christmas." The musical was directed by Gordon Greenberg and choreographed by Denis Jones. With music and lyrics by Irving Berlin, the new book by Gordon Greenberg and Chad Hodge was inspired by the Academy Award-winning film "Holiday Inn" starring Fred Astaire and Bing Crosby.

The Power of Love

Monday, November 5 at 10 p.m.

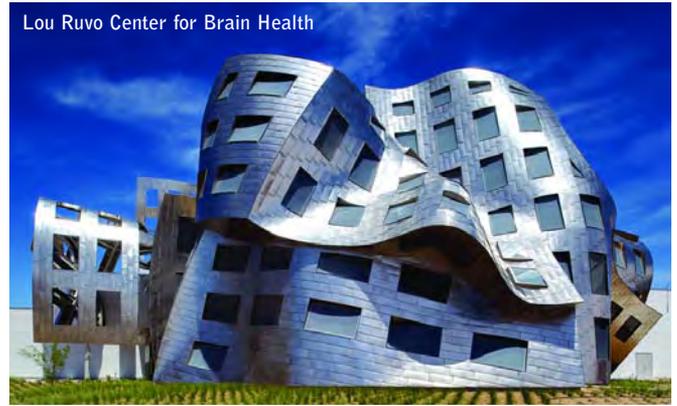

A patient is diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease about every 66 seconds in the United States. Alzheimer's, along with Parkinson's Disease, Lou Gehrig's Disease (ALS) and other dementias, impact millions of Americans every year. These diseases are incurable, even with the wonders of today's medicine. However, there are places around the country where vital research is being undertaken to improve the quality of life of those diagnosed, and eventually, find a cure.

Lou Ruvo was a well-known restaurateur from the Rat Pack era of Las Vegas who owned the Venetian Restaurant for decades. This program explores his diagnosis with Alzheimer's and subsequent treatment. Highlighting a true love story of a son for his father, the special follows the journey of Larry Ruvo's search for a cure for Alzheimer's. It details how that journey was the genesis of a partnership with the Cleveland Clinic to form the Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health, one of the most advanced brain research and treatment facilities in the country...and one that treats patients with a Las Vegas flavor.

The documentary explores the clinic's use of specialized research and advanced techniques aimed at improving the quality of life for those suffering from brain disease. Learn how the Cleveland Clinic is applying revolutionary research techniques and clinical trials toward Saturday, November 24 at 11 a.m.

The entire cast is home for the holidays, and they're sharing their tips and tricks for planning a stress-free gathering, while also recounting personal holiday memories and revealing their all-time favorite holiday recipes from the Test Kitchen archives.

Hosts Bridget Lancaster and Julia Collin Davison and the rest of the cast gather together in a casual behind-the-scenes setting and share the warmth of the holidays with viewers.

The hour-long special also spotlights five of the Test Kitchen's favorite holiday recipes, including new twists on classic holiday fare such as turkey en cocotte and beef tenderloin with smoky potatoes and persillade relish. Their porchetta recipe offers a flavor-packed alternative to traditional holiday roasts, and elegant holiday desserts such as millionaire's shortbread and gâteau breton are sure-fire favorites to consider anytime you're trying to please a crowd.

Complete with an outtake reel over the credits, this warm, inviting and fun-filled hour of cooking with the whole ATK family will help get you in the holiday spirit.

Native American Heritage Month

Throughout the Month

Celebrate the rich and diverse cultures, traditions and histories of Native people with these special programs.

Native America

Tuesdays, October 30 at 9 p.m. (Part 2) and November 13 from 9 p.m. -11 p.m. (Parts 3 and 4)

This series explores the splendor and ingenuity of the world created by America's First Peoples, 15,000 years ago. Combining modern science with Native knowledge, the series shines a spotlight on these ancient cultures and the communities that still thrive today. Explore the rise of great American nations, learn their cosmological secrets and discover how resistance, survival and revival are revealed.

Independent Lens: Dawnland

Sunday, November 11 at 11 p.m.

Follow the first government-sanctioned truth and reconciliation commission in the U.S., which investigates the devastating impact of Maine's child welfare practices on Native American communities. With exclusive access to this groundbreaking process and never-before-seen footage, the film reveals the untold narrative of Indigenous child removal in the United States.

Outdoor Nevada: Common Ground

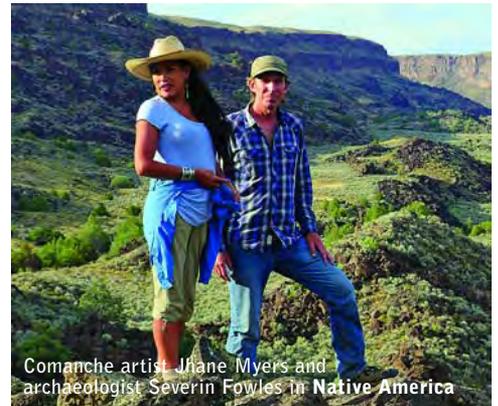

Wednesday, November 14 at 7:30 p.m.

In this special episode, we visit some ancestral territory accompanied by tribe members of the four Native American Nations in the state. John Burke gives us yet another take on the outdoors as we see the land through the eyes of Native Americans.

A Point in Time

Tuesday, November 27 at 10 p.m.

The Great Basin Desert is the largest desert in the United States, covering a vast area of over 200,000 square miles. Almost all of it hot, dry, and seemingly empty of human activity, but it wasn't always a desert. Follow archaeologists working in Nevada and Utah as they uncover clues about some of the first inhabitants of North America who lived here more than 12,000 years ago. Recent discoveries are dramatically shifting our knowledge of these early people and revealing surprising new details.

Comanche artist Jhane Myers and archaeologist Severin Fowles in Native America

A Message from the Corporate Partnerships Director

Bruce Spotleson
Corporate Partnerships Director

A Documentary Leads to a Partnership

Las Vegas is a major American city, as almost anyone who lives in or has ever visited our community recognizes. Sure, we could use a few more enhancements here and there, but in recent years, we've filled many of the gaps.

Still, the case is often made that we must do more to improve local medical care. And one of the organizations now doing exactly that – in a big way – is the Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health. Its research and treatment in brain-related diseases has attracted international attention.

Many locals have, of course, seen that unusual building downtown, but it's also likely that many don't know exactly what's going on there. It's significant enough that we decided to produce a documentary about it.

Power of Love, our one-hour story of how Larry Ruvo's love for his father Lou resulted in Southern Nevada's rapid emergence as a world-class center of brain research, will air Monday, November 5 at 10 p.m., with a repeat broadcast on Thursday, November 8 at 3:30 p.m. This documentary is but a beginning; our close work on this project resulted in a collaboration to help fund more programming of this type.

A screening fundraiser on November 1 at the Clinic reflects this new Vegas PBS partnership with the Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health. Funds generated at the event and with the broadcast go solely toward our production of more local health care programming, with a focus on the research and progress on brain disease.

It's the right area to focus on. If you've watched any of our past programs on Alzheimer's Disease, you're aware it is a national crisis, a growing "tsunami" that threatens to devastate our nation's health care system, ruining lives of both the afflicted and their caregivers.

We'll be giving continued attention to the important work being done right here in Las Vegas, as the Clinic expands into research on diseases like Parkinson's and Multiple Sclerosis. If you support this effort, there are a couple things you can do.

You can let me know of your desire to help fund more of this important programming. But if you can't do that, you can simply tune in to one of our broadcasts of Power of Love in November. It will change your perspective on Las Vegas, now a major American city when it comes to health care.

NOVEMBER Children’s Lineup

Let’s Go Luna! Weekdays at 9 a.m. beginning Wednesday, November 21

This brand new series follows the adventures of three friends – Leo, a wombat from Australia; Carmen, a butterfly from Mexico; and Andy, a frog from the U.S. – as they traverse the globe with their parents’ traveling performance troupe, “Circo Fabuloso.” At each of the Circo’s stops, Luna the Moon guides the trio as they experience the local language, music and daily life. The gang’s adventures take them across continents – from London to Cairo to Beijing – where they explore the food, architecture and other features that make each region unique.

With a social studies curriculum, this fun travel series will encourage kids ages 4-7 to explore and appreciate cultures from all over the world and build global citizenship and social skills.

The series kicks off with a one-hour special on November 21 and 23 at 9 a.m.

Take a walk through history. Our history.

The Neon Boneyard

Featuring restored and unrestored signs and the history behind them.

Brilliant! Experience

A 30-minute nightly show that magically brings unrestored signs back to life, accompanied by a soundtrack of some of the greatest musical performers in history to transport guests into Las Vegas’ past.

Boneyard and Brilliant combo tickets are available.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

FRONTLINE: Facebook Dilemma

Monday and Tuesday, October 29 and 30 at 10 p.m.

The promise of Facebook was to unite the world. But a series of recent scandals — from the proliferation of fake news and disinformation on Facebook, to the company's failure to protect millions of users' data — have raised the question: Is Facebook more harmful than helpful? In this two-part series, hear the early warnings about Facebook's impact on privacy and democracy in the U.S. and around the world, as well as the company's response to charges of promoting "fake news" and disrupting American politics. Included are rare footage and dozens of original interviews.

Secrets of the Dead: Teotihuacán's Lost Kings

Tuesday, October 30 at 8 p.m.

Two thousand years ago, Teotihuacán was one of the largest cities in the world, a thriving metropolis not far from what is today Mexico City. But just a few hundred years later, it was completely abandoned, its former citizens long gone, leaving little trace of their culture. Despite many decades of research, not much is known about the long-lost Teotihuacán society. Who built this magnificent city with its giant pyramids? Why did its people seemingly vanish without a trace? This special follows a team of international scientists who believe they have found the answers to these questions and more in newly discovered chambers beneath Teotihuacán, the first Mega City in the Americas.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

PBS NewsHour Election Night 2018

Tuesday, November 6 from 5 p.m. - 9 p.m.

The 2018 midterm elections will culminate with the November 6 general election to decide whether Democrats can gain control of Congress or if Republicans will keep their hold on the legislative branch. All 435 seats in the House of Representatives will be voted on, along with 35 of the Senate's 100 seats. 36 state governors are also up for election. Join us for live coverage of the evening's events with the PBS NewsHour political team, reporting election results as they come in, along with in-depth analysis and commentary. For fair and trusted election coverage, you will want to make Vegas PBS part of your election night.

American Masters: Bing Crosby: Rediscovered

Tuesday, November 6 at 9 p.m.

This special explores the life and legend of this iconic performer, revealing a man far more complex than his public persona. Featured are Crosby's personal and professional archives, including never-before-seen home movies, Dictabelt recordings, photos and more, along with new interviews with all surviving members of Crosby's immediate family. Then at 10:30, Bob Hope explores the entertainer's life with unprecedented access to his personal archives including writings voiced by Billy Crystal, clips from his body of work and interviews with Woody Allen, Margaret Cho, Conan O'Brien, Tom Selleck and Brooke Shields. Both titles repeat on Wednesday, November 7 from 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., in reverse order.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Hamilton's America

Friday, November 16 at 10 p.m.

This exciting documentary film brings history to vivid life through the lens of Lin-Manuel Miranda's pop culture Broadway phenomenon Hamilton — winner of 11 Tony Awards® and the Pulitzer Prize. The special delves even deeper into the creation of the show, revealing Miranda's process of absorbing and then adapting Hamilton's epic story into groundbreaking musical theater. The film shows just how timeless the hot-button issues of today's America are: immigration, states' rights, debt, income inequality and race relations. These were the same fights that defined Hamilton's time, and they are the driving force of Miranda's historic work.

Phillipa Soo and Lin-Manuel Miranda

We'll Meet Again Season 2 Premiere

Tuesday, November 13 at 8 p.m.

This compelling series returns for a second season of human stories of hope, courage and resilience. Host Ann Curry tells the stories of ordinary people caught up in the tides of history who are seeking to be reunited with those who helped them — either physically or emotionally — survive these transformational events. This season, travel across the country and around the world, searching for clues in marriage records and war and immigration documents, and combing archives to reunite those separated by time and distance. Featured are stories of a Cuban-American who escaped during the 1980 Mariel Boatlift and never forgot the brave skipper who piloted him to a new life in the U.S., along with two Vietnam veterans, one longing to reconnect with the helicopter pilot who rescued him from enemy fire, the other wanting to thank the doctor who saved his leg.

Julia Louis-Dreyfus: The Mark Twain Prize Monday, November 19 at 9 p.m.

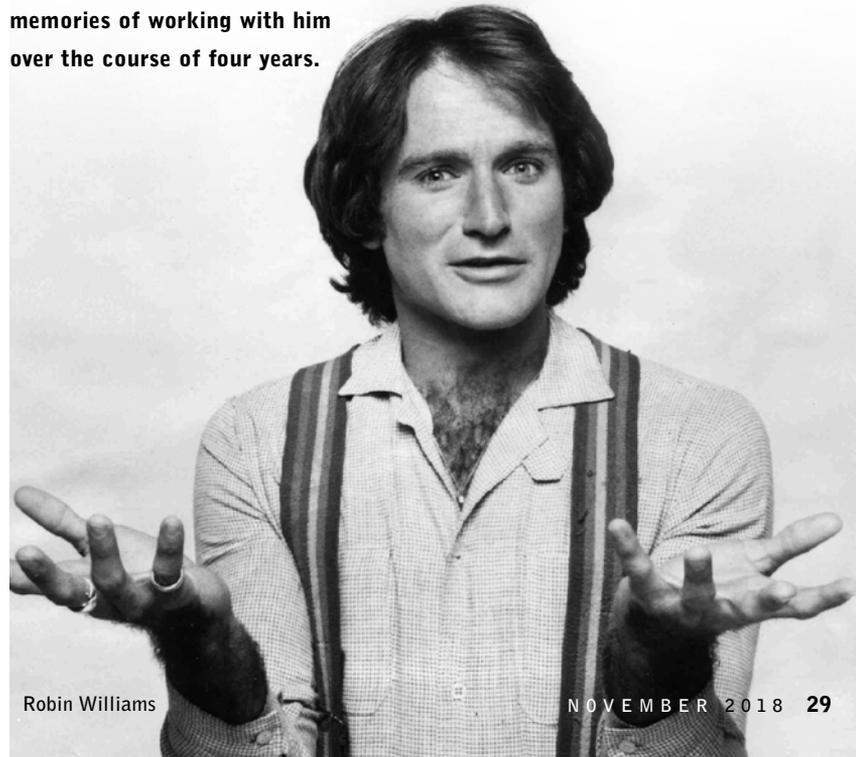

Julia Louis-Dreyfus

An outstanding lineup of entertainers will gather in the Kennedy Center Concert Hall to salute Julia Louis-Dreyfus, recipient of the 21st annual Mark Twain Prize for American Humor. The cast will feature many of Louis-Dreyfus's admirers, friends and collaborators, including Stephen Colbert, Bryan Cranston, Tina Fey, Ilana Glazer, Tony Hale, Abbi Jacobson, Keegan-Michael Key, Kumail Nanjiani and Jerry Seinfeld. The award-winning actress earned worldwide acclaim for her portrayal of Elaine in "Seinfeld" and as Christine Campbell in "The New Adventures of Old Christine." She currently stars and executive produces the HBO series "Veep." She has broken the record for the most Emmy's won by a single performer, as well as the most consecutive wins for a single role ("Veep"). Repeats Friday, November 23 at 10:30 p.m.

Robin Williams Remembered: A Pioneers of Television Special Monday, November 19 at 11:30 p.m.

This touching special celebrates the life of award-winning comedian, TV star, and film and stage actor Robin Williams. Williams' last full-length television interview is featured, including footage of his comments on life and work, tributes by those who knew and worked with him closely in all phases of his career and clips from iconic moments throughout his career. Williams shares stories about his first stand-up act, his desire to be a serious dramatic actor and his tireless efforts to entertain U.S. troops overseas. The program also includes an exclusive interview with Williams' former "Mork & Mindy" co-star Pam Dawber, who shares her memories of working with him over the course of four years.

Dig site of a new giant titanosaur find

Nature: Raising the Dinosaur Giant

Tuesday, November 27 at 9 p.m.

Have scientists discovered the biggest animal to have ever walked the planet? Deep in a South American desert, a giant is being awakened after 101 million years of sleep. Paleontologists have discovered a giant femur – the largest dinosaur bone that has ever been unearthed. Another 200 bones from the same species have also been discovered. Sir David Attenborough will guide us through the remarkable journey of waking the giant as it happens – connecting the dots, translating the paleo jargon and explaining the revelations using living examples, other dinosaur discoveries and CGI visuals. As a finale, he will unveil the completed giant.

Princes of the Palace

Monday, November 26 at 10 p.m.

From 95-year-old family patriarch Prince Philip to his great-grandson Prince George, this special chronicles the lives of three generations of British royal princes, revealing the numerous ways the princes have served Queen Elizabeth II over the course of her historic 64 year reign. Featuring archival film and newsreels as well as exclusive interviews with royal biographers, commentators and a variety of other experts, this insightful film also shares how each generation is groomed for royal duty and how the eventual reign of young Prince George will define the future of the British monarchy. Contributors include royal press secretary Dickie Arbiter; photographer Ian Pelham Turner; biographers Tim Heald, Robert Johnson and Hugo Vickers; writer/broadcasters Gyles Brandreth and Penny Junior; and royal correspondents Nicholas Owen, Camilla Tominey, Ingrid Seward and Romilly Weeks.

Downton Abbey Marathon

Sundays, October 28 - November 25 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Our marathon of the entire series of this beloved drama continues this month as we air Seasons 3, 4, 5 and 6. Relive all the joys and disappointments of the aristocratic Crawley family and their downstairs servants set in an English manor on the cusp of a vanishing way of life. Then join Alastair Bruce, historical advisor to Downton Abbey, as he explains the world of English manners in two fascinating specials. In Manners of Downton Abbey on November 18 at 4:30 p.m. and More Manners of Downton Abbey on November 25 at 4:30 p.m., Bruce reveals the secrets of how the aristocratic set dined and dressed, how they married and made money, how they interacted with the servants and above all, why they behaved as they did in 1900s Britain.

Maggie Smith, Elizabeth McGovern, Penelope Wilton, Michelle Dockery, Jessica Brown Findlay and Laura Carmichael

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

In the Americas with David Yetman

Saturdays at 8 a.m.

This travel series showcases the landscapes, peoples and history of North and South America from the coldest towns in Canada to the tropical islands of the Caribbean. In Season 6 this month, David travels to Mexico City, Ecuador, Costa Rica, Cuba, the Dominican Republic and the Bahamas. Mexico City, once known as the Aztec capital city of Tenochtitlán, is home to more than 20 million people. There, David visits the museums, monuments, galleries and public celebrations. David also journeys to Havana, Cuba, where a Cuban cultural expert shows him a village created by artists, hidden among several of its historic buildings. He then travels to Santiago de Cuba, Cuba's second largest city, which is well-known for its African roots and cultural life.

Home Improvement Saturdays

Every Saturday Morning

Looking for some inspiration and help in home repair? Then join us every Saturday with two popular programs that will teach and inspire. At 10 a.m., This Old House takes the mystery and fright factors out of remodeling and carpentry chores. The Emmy-winning home-improvement series is TV's original home-improvement show. With pros Norm Abram, Tom Silva, Richard Trethewey, Roger Cook and host Kevin O'Connor, the series follows one whole-house renovation over several episodes. But homeowners have a virtual truckload of questions on smaller projects, so an off-shoot series was created to just answer these questions. At 10:30 a.m., Ask This Old House solves the steady stream of home improvement problems faced by our viewers — and we make house calls!

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Outdoor Nevada

Sundays at 8:30 a.m.

Grab your travel gear and join host John Burke on exciting road trips throughout the state. Nevada's ideal climate and varied environments provide endless inspiration for our outdoor adventures. Whether we're horseback riding in Red Rock Canyon, riding on a seaplane at Lake Tahoe or land sailing outside of Las Vegas, we're having a blast! The series also delves into the Silver State's natural history and present-day happenings as experts discuss awe-inspiring discoveries in one of the planet's most unique and often extreme environments. Come along as we visit the places and meet the people that make Nevada unique and fascinating.

CREATE SPOTLIGHT

Sara Moulton

Create Marathon Thank-full

Saturday, November 17 from 6 a.m. - Noon

It's that time of year again ... turkey time! The family is coming over for a feast and you and your guests will be thank-full with the help of Kevin Belton, Vivian Howard and Sara Moulton. Style expert Christy Rost will also offer tips on how to bring a festive look to your dinner table. With all the bells and whistles, this Thanksgiving dinner will be talked about for years to come! Repeats same day from 6 p.m. - Midnight and on Sunday, November 18 from Noon - 6 p.m.

Team developing a new product

Make48

Sundays and Wednesdays at 11:30 a.m. beginning November 4

Everybody has an idea! This unique series is a new type of invention competition. 17 teams are given 48 hours to come up with an idea, create a prototype, marketing materials and a pitch. Teams use a variety of tools, materials, work spaces and expert guidance provided by a resource-rich fabrication workshop. The workshop and staff provide the resources to prototype ideas of ranging complexity for competitors of varying building expertise. When time expires, teams pitch their idea to a panel of product development, scouting and sales experts. The top three teams will be awarded prizes, including a crowdfunding campaign and licensing consideration. The goal of the series is to foster imagination, creativity, problem solving and the inventive spirit.

WORLDVIEW SPOTLIGHT

The Fourth Man

Tuesdays at 6 p.m. beginning November 27

This three-part mini-series begins with the worst terror attack in modern Swedish history. In 1975, terrorists stormed the West German Embassy and took 13 officials hostage. One of the terrorists accidentally set off explosives, killing himself and severely injuring the survivors. Cut to the present, and Lars Martin Johansson (Rolf Lassgård) has just been promoted as the new head of the Swedish Security Service. Following an intelligence tip, he reopens the investigation. Three of four Swedish collaborators in the siege have been identified. But why is the identity of the fourth man still such a closely-held secret, and what makes this information so vital to the highest levels of national security? In Swedish with English subtitles. Repeats same days at 9 p.m.

Rolf Lassgård

JACKPOT! SPOTLIGHT

The Pilgrims: American Experience

Saturday, November 17 at 9 p.m.

This fascinating two-hour documentary endeavors to tell the true story of the Pilgrims, a small group of religious radicals whose determination to establish a separatist religious community planted the seeds for America's founding. Arguably one of the most fateful and resonant events of the last half millennium, the Pilgrims journey west across the Atlantic in the early 17th century is a seminal, if often misunderstood, episode of American and world history. The film explores the forces, circumstances, personalities and events that converged to exile the English group in Holland and eventually propel their crossing to the New World. This is a story universally familiar in broad outline but almost entirely unfamiliar to a general audience in its rich and compelling historical actuality.

Pearl Harbor

REWIND SPOTLIGHT

Pearl Harbor - Into the Arizona

Wednesday, November 14 at 10 p.m.

This film documents a landmark expedition to the USS Arizona, where more than 1,000 sailors lost their lives. Using the latest in underwater technology, the film gains access to the ship's lower decks and brings to life what happened aboard the Arizona on that fateful day. Don Stanton was one of the few remaining survivors. Follow Stanton's emotional journey back to the Arizona, where he watches a live video feed from inside his ship, a sight he never thought he would see again. 8mm movies taken by Ensign Carl Weeden provide the human backstory to the ghostly reminders uncovered by the modern-day exploration. The wreckage holds a veritable time capsule of the Arizona's last moments and a record of a day that will live in infamy.

Why We Support Vegas PBS...

Las Vegas Philharmonic with Music Director and Conductor Donato Cabrera

The mission of the Las Vegas Philharmonic is to perform music that enriches and educates, helping to build a vibrant, culturally rich community. Central to our mission is our annual Youth Concert Series (YCS). Through the 18 years of YCS, more than 200,000 schoolchildren in Clark County (the majority of whom are from Title 1 / At-Risk schools) have benefited from these free concerts and the corresponding music education curriculum.

We support Vegas PBS because they recognize the importance of providing children with educational programming that encourages learning through unique and creative ways, including music and the arts.

Our goal is to inspire students in our community to become supporters of classical music in order to sustain this art form for generations to come.

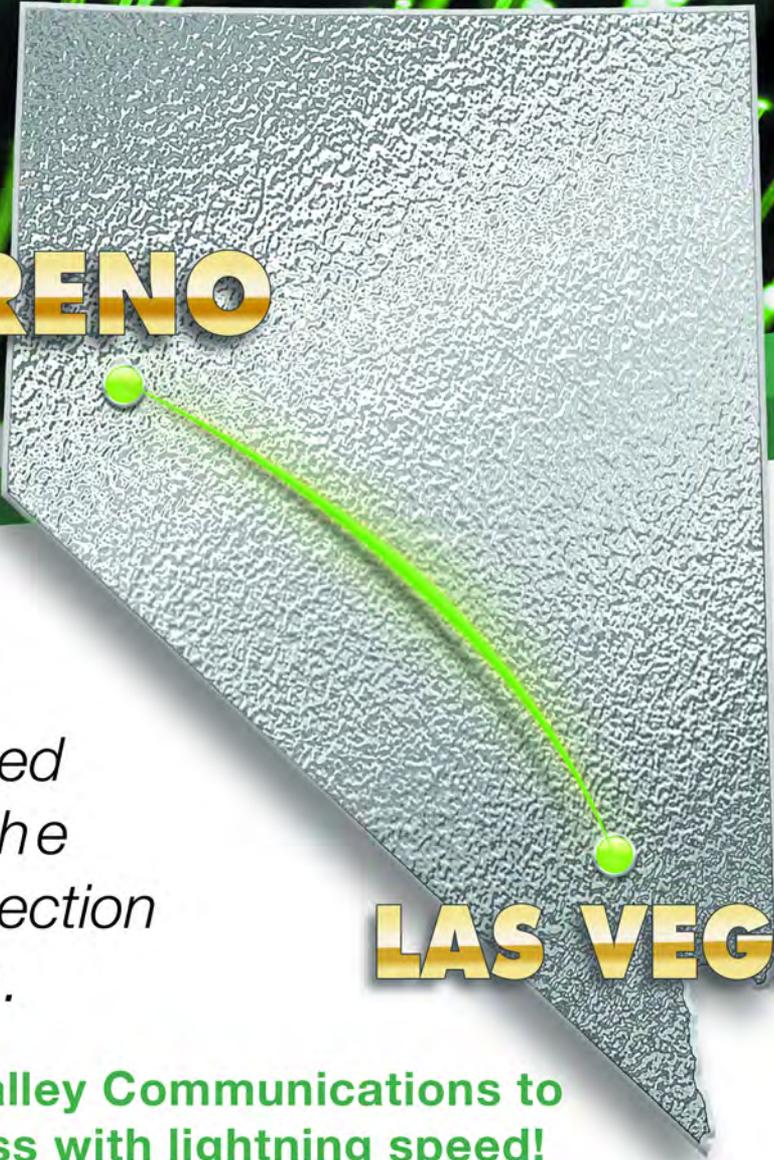

How Do You Become a Sponsor ?

When you support quality Vegas PBS programming, you're helping build a stronger and healthier community. Simply select from favorite evening programs or underwrite a daytime show that children enjoy. We'll do the rest. While our programming value is high, its price is low. For information on how to sponsor Vegas PBS programming, contact Bruce Spotleson at bspotleson@VegasPBS.org.
