A Message from the General Manager

Vote for America's Favorite Novel

Vegas PBS children's programming encourages young people to master basic skills needed to read. The titles of children's series often extend well-known children's books like Cat in the Hat, Arthur, Pinkalicious and Peterrific, or Curious George. Series for grownups like Sherlock and Poldark, and specials like Little Women rely on classic literature, and Ken Burns' documentaries rely on historical books, diaries and other writing to provide perspective on the past. Whether younger or older, Vegas PBS viewers are also avid readers. That's why PBS launched The Great American Read this past spring. Returning to Vegas PBS this month, the program seeks to encourage people across the country to read, vote and share in a national campaign to choose "America's Best-Loved Novel."

PBS unveiled America's top 100 favorite novels in a two-hour special this May, kicking off a national celebration of literature and reading that could only happen on public television. The selected novels run the gamut from modern-day pop-culture hits to beloved children's classics that have stood the test of time; from science fiction adventures to historic literature written hundreds of years ago; from thrillers that keep us on the edge of our seats to complex personal journeys that raise challenging social issues.

More than 2 million votes have already been cast in America's search for its "Best-Loved Novel." The top 40 titles currently leading the vote include 1984, Atlas Shrugged, The Color Purple, The Da Vinci Code, The Handmaid's Tale, Harry Potter (series), Little Women, Lonesome Dove, The Stand, To Kill a Mockingbird, and Wuthering Heights.

If your favorite book isn't on that list, there is still time to change that. You can vote for your favorite titles at VegasPBS.org/the-great-american-read, or use hashtag voting via Facebook and Twitter, and even through text messaging. During the broadcasts, viewers will also be able to cast their vote toll-free by phone. You can vote for your favorites each day until Thursday, October 18, 2018 at midnight, when voting closes. You won't want to miss the series finale on Tuesday, October 23, when "America's Best-Loved Novel" will be revealed.

Vegas PBS is also offering PreK-12 teachers an easy way to integrate The Great American Read into their instruction with a range of curriculum-aligned videos and interactive lesson plans. Teachers can use these free resources to enhance homework assignments or kick-start classroom discussions. Additionally, PBS KIDS is hosting "PBS KIDS Read" to encourage reading and related activities through a variety of resources for kids and parents, including book lists, tips for new readers and other literacy resources.

Members who support broadcast television programs like The Great American Read can participate in the station's mission-focused community outreach and engagement events that amplify your on-air content. Next month, Vegas PBS will partner with the Las Vegas Clark County Library district and the Vegas Valley Book Festival to host community screenings and discussion forums, and to encourage reading (details will be included in the October magazine).

We hope you'll tune in for the 8-part series beginning Tuesday, September 11 at 8 p.m., vote for your favorite novels, host book club discussions with your friends, share feedback on social media, or join us at one of the community events.

The Great American Read

Tuesdays at 8 p.m. beginning September 11

The eight-part series will take you on a journey across the country to uncover the nation's 100 most-loved novels, the people who love them and their authors.

George Lopez

Nicholas Sparks

This exciting new television event explores the joy of books and the power of reading. The eight-part series will take you on a journey across the country to uncover the nation's 100 most-loved novels, the people who love them and their authors. Hosted by journalist Meredith Vieira, the campaign is designed to spark a national conversation about reading and the books that have inspired, moved and shaped us.

Authors, celebrities and notables joining the search for "America's Best-Loved Novel" include Diana Gabaldon, George Lopez, Seth Meyers, Lauren Graham, John Green, John Irving, Bill T. Jones, Devon Kennard, Gayle King, George R.R. Martin, Wynton Marsalis, Lesley Stahl, Ming-Na Wen and many more, each of whom will share their personal stories and connections to their favorite book.

Beginning with a kick-off campaign in May, PBS viewers were engaged in selecting and voting for their favorite books throughout the summer, creating a list of the top 100. The chosen books span five centuries, from Don Quixote (1603) to Ghost (2016). Authors from 15 different countries are represented, with genres ranging from beloved children's classics such as Charlotte's Web to modern best-sellers such as Twilight.

Now the series will return on September 11 with a recap of the summer's events and additional themed episodes exploring the nominated books. This will culminate in the exciting finale of the first-ever national vote to choose "America's Best-Loved Novel."

Margaret Mitchell: American Rebel: American Masters

Tuesday, September 11 at 9 p.m.

Margaret Mitchell was no ordinary writer. The one book she published in her lifetime — Gone with the Wind — sold millions of copies at the height of the Great Depression in America and won the Pulitzer Prize in 1937. With more than 30 million copies sold to date, it is one of the world's bestselling novels. The film adaptation broke all box office records when it premiered in 1939 and received 10 Academy Awards®. Born in

Margaret Mitchell

Atlanta in 1900, Mitchell was a force to be reckoned with until a tragic accident led to her untimely death in 1949. As a debutante from Atlanta's upper crust, Mitchell challenged the stifling social restrictions placed on women at the time. The special engages leading authors, historians and biographers to reveal a complex and mysterious woman who experienced profound identity shifts in her life and who struggled with the two great issues of her day: the changing role of women and the liberation of African Americans.

Harper Lee: Hey, Boo: American Masters

Tuesday, September 18 at 9 p.m.

One of the biggest bestsellers of all time, To Kill a Mockingbird (1960) is the first and only novel by a young woman named Nelle Harper Lee, who once said that she wanted to be South Alabama's Jane Austen. Lee won the Pulitzer Prize and became a mystery when she stopped speaking to press in 1964. This special chronicles how the beloved novel came to be written, provides the context and history of the Deep South where it is set, and documents the many ways the novel has changed minds and shaped history. Containing never-before-seen photos and letters, the film features insightful interviews with friends and an exclusive interview with Lee's sister, Alice Finch Lee (age 99 at filming), who share intimate recollections, anecdotes and biographical details for the first time, offering new insight into the life and mind of Harper Lee, including why she never published again.

Stories in American History

American Experience: RFK

Monday, September 3 at 10 p.m.

After an assassin's bullet took John F. Kennedy's life, RFK was bereft, not only of a brother he loved, but a role that had given meaning to his life; he had suppressed his own ambitions for the sake of the Kennedy name. JFK's death plunged him into unrelenting pain and grief, and left him struggling to find his own voice. In his suffering he began to empathize with Americans who were marginalized or disenfranchised. Just as he began to move beyond the shadow of his brother, he, too, was assassinated. This in-depth film examines the life of RFK, featuring interviews with historians, journalists and biographers, combined with first-hand recollections of those who knew him well.

9/11 Inside the Pentagon

Monday, September 10 at 10 p.m.

On September 11, 2001, Flight 77 slammed into the Pentagon, killing 184 people. What happened behind the walls of the Pentagon is a largely untold chapter in history. Fifteen years later, survivors and first responders shed light on that tragic day.

Silent Sacrifice: Stories of Japanese American Incarceration

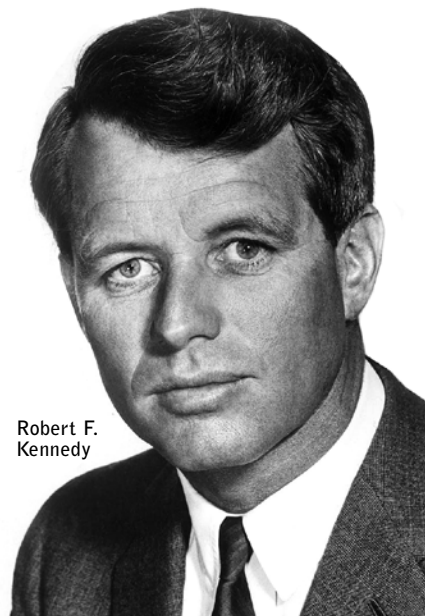

Monday, September 24 at 10 p.m.

In 1942, the U.S. Government imprisoned 120,000 Japanese and Japanese American citizens living along the West Coast, including children and the elderly, for supposed disloyalty. The prisoners lost their property and jobs and most of their belongings except for the few items they could hurriedly pack in a bag. Shedding light on the ramifications of Executive Order 9066, this landmark film shares the experience of Japanese Americans before, during and after WWII with a focus on the Merced, Tulare, Fresno and Pinedale Assembly Centers.

Music We Have Loved for Years!

September Showcase

Santana IV

Monday, September 17 at 10 p.m.

Please see page 14 for details on ticket opportunities for this iconic performer!

Filmed in 2016 at the Las Vegas Hard Rock Cafe, this high-octane concert was the hugely anticipated reunion of a line-up that had not performed and recorded together since the early seventies. Featuring classic hits plus new material from their No. 5 album, the energy-packed show brought back the scintillating combination of rock, Latin, blues, jazz and African rhythms which was the band's trademark and made them truly unique. The concert was a celebration of the chemistry, dynamism and pure musical joy that had earned them a place in so many fans' hearts. Filled with powerful musicianship, soulful vocals, soaring guitars and organ, this special showcases the classic music that defined an era.

Neil Diamond: Hot August Night III

Saturday, September 22 at 7:30 p.m.

In 1972, Grammy-winning singer-songwriter Neil Diamond released Hot August Night. In celebration of the 40th anniversary of the original concert, this special chronicles Diamond's triumphant return to the very same venue in Los Angeles's historic Greek Theatre to perform 31 of his greatest hits. We were saddened to learn that in January, Diamond announced his retirement from touring due to his recent diagnosis of Parkinson's disease, cancelling the third leg of his 50th Anniversary tour. So enjoy this opportunity to be part of a rousing concert of his most memorable music. Please see page 29 for details on this special.

Neil Diamond

The Milkmaid by Johannes Vermeer in Vermeer, Beyond Time

The Beauty of Art

Friday evenings in September

Everybody Knows...Elizabeth Murray: American Masters

Friday, September 7 at 9 p.m.

This special is an intimate portrait of the groundbreaking artist Elizabeth Murray that explores the relationship between Murray's family life and career and reconsiders her place in contemporary art history. Her personal journals, voiced in the film by Meryl Streep, give viewers a privileged window into Murray's internal struggles and incredible ambition. Murray's paintings defy categorization. She broke convention and made an indelible imprint on contemporary art. This film chronicles her remarkable journey from an impoverished childhood to artistic maverick and reconsiders her place in contemporary art history.

Wyeth: American Masters

Friday, September 7 at 10 p.m.

Learn the story of one of America's most popular, but least understood, artists — Andrew Wyeth. Featured are unprecedented access to Wyeth's family members and never-before-seen archival materials. Please see page 25 for details.

Vermeer, Beyond Time

Friday, September 7 at 11 p.m.

Narrated by Steve Martin, this special focuses on both Johannes Vermeer's work and his family life, covering his conversion to Catholicism, his artistic contemporaries and the short-lived Dutch Golden Age of the 17th century. The film examines his individual paintings and teases out what has come to be known as the Vermeer style — the representation of light, the interplay of color and the effects of perspective across places and objects. Vermeer's paintings depict a world inhabited by refined and cultivated women, respectful or troublesome servants, charming young people and learned men. The documentary adds much to our understanding and knowledge of the painter, while still allowing for the mystery and allure of his art.

Basquiat: Rage to Riches:

American Masters

Friday, September 14 at 9 p.m.

This BAFTA-winning film explores the life and work of one of the great artistic legends of the 20th century, revealing the anonymous graffiti artist turned rock star of the early 80s art scene in New York, whose work ultimately commanded millions. It took less than a decade for the accountant's son from Brooklyn to rise to dizzying heights. Jean-Michel Basquiat's unique form of expressionism defied the straight jacket of 1970s minimalism. It tapped into the energy of NYC streets in the 1980s and found inspiration from cutting edge music, poetry, as well as the grand traditions of 20th century art. The film features exclusive interviews with his sisters, alongside his most intimate friends, lovers and fellow artists.

Powering Our Future

Nevada is already a national leader in renewable energy, and NV Energy has enough to power more than a million homes at once.

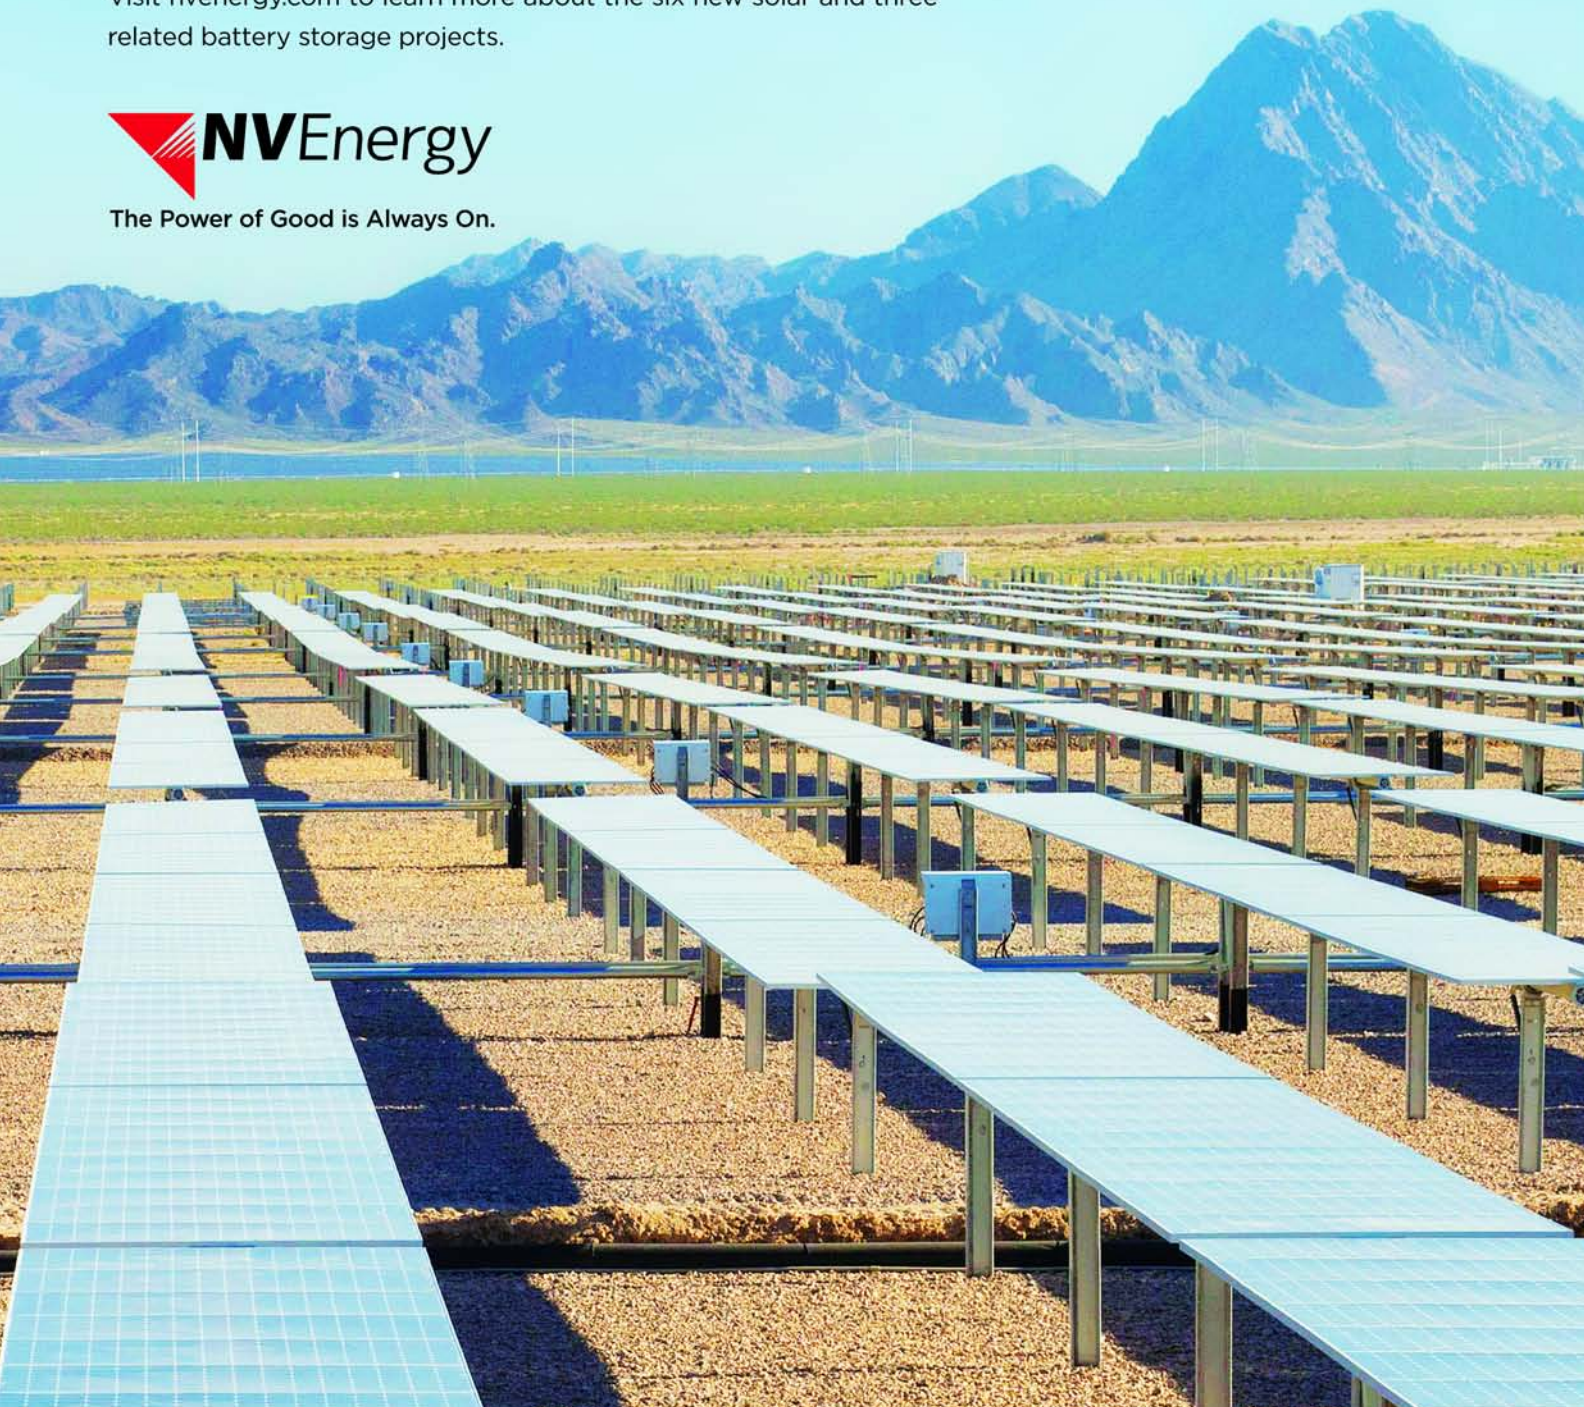

But we won't stop there.

In what is the largest clean energy investment in our state's history, NV Energy has contracted for more than 1,000 megawatts of new solar energy and, for the first time, 100 megawatts of battery energy storage. That's enough for another 600,000 typical Nevada homes.

Visit nvenergy.com to learn more about the six new solar and three related battery storage projects.

A Message from the Director of Engineering, IT and Emergency Response

Serving the Entire Community

With three decades of experience in commercial television news — as a photographer, assignment manager, managing editor, bureau chief, director of news operations, assistant chief engineer and director of engineering, as well as a reserve police officer — I am excited to join the Vegas PBS family as Director of Engineering, IT and Emergency Response Systems.

I've covered a wide range of stories in my career both as a journalist as well as in technological capacities. I took the ride of my life when I flew with the Blue Angels. I was embedded with a Marine platoon during the first Gulf War. I was one of the first few crews to arrive in Haiti after the devastating earthquake. I spent weeks on the sidewalks of New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina as technical producer. I've covered the birth of a nation and the death of presidents. I've had a full and exciting career, and I look forward to continuing that here at Vegas PBS.

My career has been in commercial television.

I have much to learn about the different world of public, noncommercial broadcasting. A fundamental difference is that the primary commodity of a commercial television system is not the programming but the production and sale of audiences. Therefore, the sale of products — the pursuit of profits — is the main focus of commercial stations. Writers, producers and executives have a common goal: make money. By tailoring a show to the most profitable audience, stations can reach that goal but disenfranchise populations that are overlooked by advertisers.

In noncommercial TV, such narrow focus is not needed. Instead, there is a focus on service to the entire community. Vegas PBS is free to make a concerted effort to represent the disenfranchised without the thought of profit.

Noncommercial media, while unable to create shows with the extraordinary budget of commercial stations, operates with less strings. Freedom from such worries leads to unique and quality programming such as those routinely aired on Vegas PBS. Educational programs that inform, entertain, as well as challenge an audience would die quickly in the world of commercial television. It is for this reason that I'm so looking forward to my future here at Vegas PBS.

I'm excited to work with such an amazing team of creative, committed and talented individuals who believe in the mission of PBS to unbiasedly educate, inspire, entertain and inform. I look forward to years of service with Vegas PBS and spearheading technological change and advancement that allows for an enriching and engaging experience for the Vegas PBS viewer.

Ancient Invisible Cities: Athens Wednesday, August 29 at 9 p.m.

In this fascinating series, Professor Darius Arya heads to Cairo, Istanbul and Athens across three episodes, to uncover the forgotten, hard to reach and invisible aspects of these extraordinary cities and in doing so, offers new perspectives on their dramatic and important histories. In this week's episode, uncover the hidden secrets of ancient Athens, the city that gave the world democracy. Arya uses the latest 3D scanning to reveal Athens' treasures, from the buildings on the Acropolis to the silver mines and quarries beyond the city.

Wyeth: American Masters Friday, September 7 at 10 p.m.

Learn the story of one of America's most popular, but least understood, artists — Andrew Wyeth. Son of the famous illustrator N.C. Wyeth, Andrew had his first exhibition at age 20, and his painting "Christina's World" was acquired by the Museum of Modern Art in 1948. While Wyeth's exhibitions routinely broke attendance records, art world critics continually assaulted his work. Detailing the stunning drawings and powerful portraits he created, the special explores his inspirations, including neighbor Christina Olsen and his hidden muse, the German model Helga Testorf, who he painted secretly for 15 years. Through unprecedented access to Wyeth's family members and never-before-seen archival materials from the family's personal collection, the film presents the most complete portrait of the artist yet — bearing witness to a legacy just at the moment it is evolving.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Hillary

Sundays at 6:30 p.m. beginning September 2

This new six-part New Zealand drama series vividly brings back to life the mountaineer and philanthropist Sir Edmund Hillary, best known as the first man to conquer Mount Everest. Based on thousands of hours of exclusive interviews, the program tells the story from his beekeeping days in South Auckland, to his ascent of the world's highest mountain with climbing partner Tenzing Norgay, to the plane crash that killed his wife and daughter. When he summited Everest in May 1953 and, as he told it, "knocked the bastard off," Hillary put his small home country on the map. He was so beloved in New Zealand that his likeness is featured on the five-dollar note, and he was given a state funeral after his 2008 death at the age of 88 in Auckland, New Zealand.

Neil Diamond: Hot August Night III

Saturday, September 22 at 7:30 p.m.

In 1972, Neil Diamond released Hot August Night, the live double album that cemented his status as a musical superstar and a live performer with few equals. In celebration of the 40th anniversary of the original concert, this special chronicles Diamond's triumphant return to the very same venue in Los Angeles's historic Greek Theatre to perform 31 of his greatest hits. From the fine acoustic twang of "Forever in Blue Jeans" to the pure Americana swing of "Kentucky Woman" to the eternal sing-along sunshine of "Sweet Caroline" to the raw emotionality of "I Am...I Said" to the welcoming arms of "America," this concert cements Diamond's mastery of the live stage and his unique connection with audiences the world over.

2017 World Dancesport Grandslam Series

Fridays at 11 p.m. beginning September 21

This competition attracts the world's best dancers to compete for the most prestigious titles and the most prize money in the world of dance. These six episodes will cover both the Latin and Standard competitions, plus the GrandSlam Finals. The first four episodes will focus on the decisive semi-finals and finals in both Latin and Standard with an up-close-and-personal look at the contestants. The GrandSlam competition uses a revolutionary judging system where the judges no longer compare one couple with the others on the dance floor. Rather, they focus on each couple individually and award points on an absolute scale for the quality of dancing. Combining athleticism and artistry, the 12 best dance couples perform Latin and Standard styles of dance, all in the hopes of being crowned GrandSlam Champion.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

The Mayo Clinic: Faith - Hope - Science

Tuesday, September 25 at 9 p.m.
and Wednesday, September 26 at 10 p.m.

This new two-hour documentary produced by Ken Burns explores the clinic's 150-year history. It begins with the story of Dr. W.W. Mayo who settled with his family in rural Minnesota. Together with the Sisters of Saint Francis, he laid the foundation for a medical center that now treats over a million patients every year from 50 states and 150 countries and employs 64,000 people. The film also follows the stories of patients who have come to the Clinic looking for answers — and hope. Blending historical narrative with contemporary patient stories, the special is a timely look at how one institution has met the changing demands of healthcare for 150 years — and what that can teach us about facing the challenges of patient care today.

Wonders of Mexico

Sunday, September 16 from 9 a.m. to Noon

Popocatepetl is Mexico's most active volcano

Mexico is a place where worlds collide. From lush tropical jungles to orange sunburnt deserts, vast green pine forests to white snow-capped volcanoes and deep blue lakes, Mexico is a land full of surprises. And all these amazing landscapes are inhabited by an equally surprising range of wildlife and human cultures from flamingoes to bison, howler monkeys to prairie dogs, jaguars to wolves, the annual traditional tequila harvest and the ancient Mayan rituals that still exist. This is the beating heart of Latin America and this series showcases Mexico's natural fiesta of color and life born out of these unique combinations of geology, geography and weather. Told through the lives of wildlife and people, this is the definitive story of Mexico.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

The Durrells in Corfu on Masterpiece Marathon

Sundays, September 23 from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and September 30 from 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

If you have not yet been able to enjoy this delightful series, then now is your chance! We are airing a special marathon of both seasons, leading up to the premiere of the all-new Season 3 on September 30. Inspired by the beloved memoirs of Gerald Durrell, Keeley Hawes stars as Louisa Durrell, the harried widowed mother of a brood of recalcitrant children, ages 11-21. Louisa moves the floundering family from England to Corfu in the mid-1930s to recharge their lives — hers included. Her brood includes Gerry, the wildlife-obsessed youngest, who later penned his reminiscences of the family's unusual exploits; the man-mad teen, Margo; the hunter-turned-distiller-turned-fashion-photographer, Leslie; and literary Larry, who in real life went on to make a name for himself as the bohemian novelist Lawrence Durrell.

Visionkeepers

Fridays at 11:30 a.m.
beginning September 7

This new series profiles individuals and organizations across the United States making an impact through innovative methods and programs focused on sustainability, the environment, education and community. Hosted by Dan Bärham, this American entrepreneur in land management and investment has dedicated his life to promoting conservation and sustainability after living in Germany, where he learned to appreciate the frugal nature of his host country's residents. These principles are built into their way of life. Each half-hour episode introduces a diverse range of people whose work has impacted their communities, people who are discovering ways to leave the world in a better place than they found it. The six-part human interest series aims to inspire and empower everyone to take action. Repeats same day at 5:30 p.m.

JACKPOT! SPOTLIGHT

Jewish Film Showcase: Raise the Roof

Sunday, September 9 at 9 p.m.

Rivalling the greatest wooden architecture in history, the synagogues of 18th-century Poland — the last of which were destroyed by the Nazis — inspired artists Rick and Laura Brown to embark on a 10-year pursuit to reconstruct the elaborate roof and painted ceiling of the Gwozdziec synagogue. Aided by a team of 300 artisans and students, the show-stopping building was realized and installed as the centerpiece of the new Museum of the History of Polish Jews in Warsaw. This beautifully photographed film chronicles this ambitious project against the backdrop of the 1000-year history of Jews in Poland. By the end of the project, the artists had done more than reconstruct a lost synagogue; they recovered a lost world.

WORLDVIEW SPOTLIGHT

The Godless

Fridays and Saturdays at 6 p.m. beginning September 14

What drives a person to harm someone else? And how does a person fall victim to a horrifying crime? This new drama is a gritty anthology series based on true crime stories. In each episode, the audience is confronted with crimes that are inspired by actual cases. The opening scene teases what's to come, namely the backstory and key events that lead to the crime, followed by closing case notes. The stories are told from the perspective of both offender and victim. The series doesn't confirm preconceptions, but invites the viewers to judge for themselves, testing prejudices and often disproving assumptions. In Dutch with English subtitles. Repeats same days at 9 p.m.

Nori Sharif

REWIND SPOTLIGHT

POV: Nowhere to Hide

Thursday, September 6 at 10 p.m.

Fifteen years after the US-led invasion of Iraq, the country continues with stories of sectarian violence, bombings, poverty and human displacement. The film's 36-year-old protagonist is Nori Sharif, a nurse-turned-videographer. Nori began by filming survivors, documenting their hope for a better future as American and coalition troops retreat from Iraq in 2011. When conflict continues, however, thanks to the rise of Iraqi militias and ISIS, he turns the camera on himself. Much of the population and his fellow hospital staff make the decision to flee. Nori makes the unusual decision to stay. What results from this courageous choice is in-depth documentation of his life over several years in Diyala, one of Iraq's most dangerous provinces.

While VEA started as a small, rural electric cooperative in 1965, the organization now provides energy and broadband service to more than 45,000 people within its vast 6,800-square-mile footprint located primarily along the California-Nevada border. VEA also serves two high-profile federal government facilities — the Nevada National Security Site and Creech Air Force Base.

Throughout the Cooperative's rich history, VEA has been led by its democratically elected Board of Directors, providing member-owners with a voice in all policy decisions made by the Cooperative. Like Vegas PBS, Valley Electric is focused on community and dedicated to giving our member-consumers choices in shaping their future.

VEA's commitment to providing growing energy and broadband demand and accommodating member growth are among the challenges VEA faces as it looks to the future. That is why VEA is proud to partner with Vegas PBS to help share our unique story of serving rural Nevada.
