A Message from the General Manager

Experience Vegas PBS

Based on the size of our television audiences, Vegas PBS is Southern Nevada's largest classroom, and our community's largest performing arts stage. For 50 years, viewer donations have allowed us to broadcast trusted, valued and essential programming to our community. Everything we do at Vegas PBS starts with the public television programming that members like you make possible through your generous support, but we don't stop at your TV or computer screen. We extend the impact of these quality programs in our community by adding complementary face-to-face experiences in cooperation with many community partners.

The educational children's programs on our PBS and PBS KIDS channels have vast audiences. This month, in cooperation with The Smith Center, fans of Wild Kratts can enjoy the dynamic Kratt brothers in person on January 27. The rest of the month, our PBS Ready To Learn educational outreach staff will present over 60 workshops for children and parents at hospitals, libraries, schools and housing complexes. Topics will include how to use PBS KIDS programs and websites to advance school success with reading, science, math and self-esteem as well as practicing good nutrition, oral health and exercise at home.

Teachers are vital partners in extending Vegas PBS educational content to Southern Nevada's children. Our internet-based PBS LearningMedia is a free service offering over 100,000 digital resources. It delivers research-based, classroom-ready digital learning experiences to engage students around standards-aligned curriculum concepts. On average, the students of educators who regularly use these resources outperform national assessment norms by 10 percentage points on selected content area National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) assessment questions. This month some of our best local educators will be honored in our studios at a reception honoring 129 CCSD teachers who have earned their National Board Certification. The next day, that same studio will host family and friends cheering on student contestants in the 50th year of the annual Varsity Quiz program.

Performing arts aficionados will attend a recording of a future Ryan Ahern television concert at the Orleans Showroom on January 26 and will look forward to member events at the Sarah Brightman Smith Center concert and Michael Bublé T-Mobile Arena concerts in March. A group of Nature and Outdoor Nevada fans will experience Valley of Fire and Zion National Park on one of our travel experiences January 26-27. Those who appreciate Rick Steves' Europe, Nightly Business Report and our financial literacy specials from Suze Orman will gather on January 23 for a Travel in Retirement Seminar presented by our Planned Giving Council.

Allowing the intellectually curious people who watch PBS programs to experience face-to-face encounters with similar viewers, teachers, program hosts, world class performer, or fascinating destinations is another way Vegas PBS strives to provide extended educational and cultural experiences related to our programming. Extending viewer experiences beyond the screen allows participants to optimize the power and potential of media to educate and empower people. We thank you for the support that is getting 2019 off to a great start!

Finding Your Roots

with Henry Louis Gates, Jr.

Season 5

Tuesdays at 8 p.m.

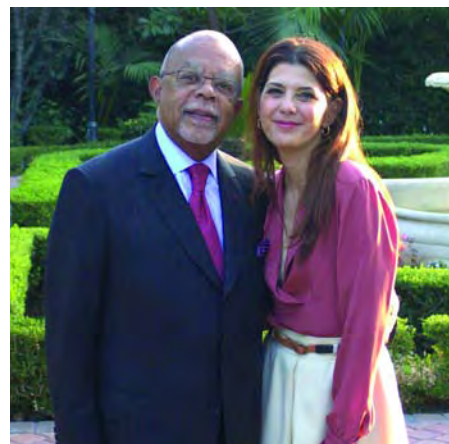

Henry Louis Gates, Jr. with guests Kal Penn (left), Sarah Silverman (below) and Marisa Tomei (top)

Today's brightest personalities discover the surprising stories buried within their own families in the fifth season of the critically acclaimed series. The new ten-episode season features an array of celebrated guests who are cultural trailblazers with fascinating family stories. The guests this season include Academy Award winner Marisa Tomei; Emmy and Golden Globe Award winners Felicity Huffman, Laura Linney and S. Epatha Merkerson; and actors Michael K. Williams, Andy Samberg, Chloe Sevigny and Kal Penn. Season 5 also includes superstar author George R.R. Martin; acclaimed journalists Christiane Amanpour, Ann Curry, Joe Madison and Lisa Ling; best-selling author and Facebook executive Sheryl Sandberg; TV hosts Seth Meyers and Michael Strahan; artists Marina Abramovic and Kehinde Wiley; politicians Marco Rubio, Tulsi Gabbard and Paul Ryan; Academy Award-winning filmmakers Alejandro Innaritu and Michael Moore; and comedians Tig Notaro and Sarah Silverman.

“The new ten-episode season features an array of celebrated guests...”

The roots of these guests cover the globe — from Samoa, Nigeria, Taiwan and Sicily to Iran, Ireland, India and Cuba — and almost everywhere in between. Their family trees are filled with compelling characters — slaves and kings, artists and entrepreneurs, abandoned children and missing parents, revolutionaries, soldiers, and a constant flow of ordinary individuals who did remarkable things, laying the groundwork for their successful descendants. Each episode weaves together these stories, gleaned from cutting-edge DNA analysis and old school genealogical detective work. Highlights include a search for Andy Samberg's biological grandparents, the discovery of Michael Strahan's deep European ancestry and the solution to a mystery that has plagued Ann Curry's family for her entire life.

At the center of it all, guiding every discovery, is host and executive producer Henry Louis Gates, Jr., the Alphonse Fletcher University Professor at Harvard University and director of the Hutchins Center for African and African American Research. In a very personal episode, the new season also explores Gates' own DNA story and takes a look at how science and history can inspire the next generation. Repeats the following Sundays at 4:30 p.m.

EPISODES THIS MONTH INCLUDE:
Grandparents and Other Strangers
January 8

Host Henry Louis Gates, Jr., helps actor Andy Samberg and author George R. R. Martin answer some family mysteries when DNA detective work uncovers new branches of their family trees. The DNA analysis upends family history and reveals new relatives.

Mystery Man January 15

Henry Louis Gates, Jr., helps actors Felicity Huffman and Michael K. Williams discover a wealth of hidden family history. Both grew up knowing little about their biological fathers, and seeing their lost ancestry restored proves deeply empowering.

Reporting on the Reporters
January 22

Host Henry Louis Gates, Jr., shows journalists Christiane Amanpour, Ann Curry and Lisa Ling that the stories within their own family trees are every bit as compelling as the news stories they have been covering for the world.

Dreaming of a New Land
January 29

Henry Louis Gates, Jr., explores with Marisa Tomei, Sheryl Sandberg and Kal Penn the tremendous challenges faced by their immigrant forbearers. From Italy, Russia and India to America, their histories show success could take generations to achieve.

Stirring Opera and Concerts for a New Year

Throughout the Month

Live from Lincoln Center: New York Philharmonic New Year's Eve with Renee Fleming Monday, December 31 at 9 p.m.

Join with us in ringing in 2019 with this spectacular annual celebration featuring the New York Philharmonic. Led by new Music Director Jaap van Zweden and opera great Renee Fleming, enjoy an evening of elegance and sophistication celebrating the intersection of classical music and dance.

Austin City Limits Hall of Fame New Year's Eve Monday, December 31 at 10:30 p.m.

The ACL Hall of Fame inducts its latest members in an emotional, exciting evening honoring Austin blues icon Marcia Ball, East L.A. rock pioneers Los Lobos and the late American music giant Ray Charles. Hosted by Chris Isaak, an all-star roster of talent celebrates the tremendous work of these iconic artists, including Norah Jones, Robert Randolph, Gary Clark Jr. and more.

Symphony of Nature: The Britt Orchestra at Crater Lake

Tuesday, January 1 at 10:30 p.m.

When classical musicians are joined by Klamath drummers for an extraordinary concert inspired by Oregon's breathtaking Crater Lake, deep connections between people, art and nature are revealed in an environment rich with historic and spiritual significance. The original score brought members of the Britt Orchestra together with a diverse ensemble of musicians, including the Klamath tribe family drum group Steiger Butte Singers, regional choristers, brass and percussionists, led by charismatic conductor Teddy Abrams.

“More than 200 artists fill the Met stage for this performance of one of the most popular and beloved operas of all time...”

Anna Netrebko in Verdi's Aida

Great Performances at the Met: Verdi's Aida Sunday, January 20 at 9 a.m.

More than 200 artists fill the Met stage for this performance of one of the most popular and beloved operas of all time, set in a spectacular staging that captures the grandeur of Ancient Egypt. Verdi's tragedy portrays a heartbreaking love triangle against the backdrop of an empire at war. Ukrainian soprano Liudmyla Monastyrskya made a spectacular Met debut as Aida, the enslaved Ethiopian princess, opposite two major Met stars: tenor Roberto Alagna as the war hero Radamès and Olga Borodina as the pharaoh's daughter Amneris, Aida's formidable rival.

The Cleveland Orchestra with Lang Lang, piano

Great Performances Fridays at 9 p.m. From Vienna: The New Year's Celebration 2019 January 4

Ring in the New Year with the Vienna Philharmonic under the baton of conductor Christian Thielemann at the Musikverein. This beloved annual concert is hosted by Hugh Bonneville and features favorite Strauss Family waltzes accompanied by the dancing of the Vienna City Ballet. This special originally airs at 9 p.m. on January 1.

The Cleveland Orchestra Centennial Celebration January 11

Celebrate the orchestra's centennial with a gala concert conducted by Franz Welser-Most, featuring pianist Lang Lang and works by Mozart, Strass and Ravel, with vignettes of past music directors.

Orpheus et Eurydice from Lyric Opera of Chicago January 18

Reimagine Christoph Willibald Gluck's enduringly popular opera based on the famous Greek myth. From Lyric Opera of Chicago, in collaboration with the Joffrey Ballet, the performance stars Dmitry Korchak, Andriana Chuchman and Lauren Snouffer.

Doubt from Minnesota Opera January 25

Watch an adaptation of John Patrick Shanley's hit 2005 Broadway play and the 2008 film about suspicion leading to a battle of wills at a Bronx Catholic school. The special stars Christine Brewer, Adriana Zabala, Matthew Worth and Denyce Graves.

Victoria Season 3

Sundays at 9 p.m. beginning January 13

Support Provided By
JANICE ALLEN

This month, we are thrilled to present the highly-anticipated new season of this phenomenal drama. It is 1848, and revolution is breaking out across Europe. In Britain, one woman stands between order and chaos: Queen Victoria. Jenna Coleman stars as the young but fearless monarch, facing a crisis that threatens to end her reign.

As Season 3 gets underway, Victoria is pregnant with her sixth child. But she has much else on her mind, chiefly the Revolutions of 1848, when the downtrodden throughout Europe begin agitating for the overthrow of aristocratic rule. In England, this discontent leads to Chartism, a set of demands for universal male suffrage, the secret ballot, equal representation for voters and other reforms. As with many crusades, passions are aroused on both sides — sometimes violently. At the time, who knew if events might turn out like the French Revolution, which resorted to widespread use of the guillotine? Each new episode will encore the following Sunday at 8 p.m.

Victoria Season 2 Marathon

Parts 3 and 4 on December 30 at 9 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Parts 5, 6 and 7 on January 6
at 8 p.m., 9 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Part 7 on January 13 at 7:30 p.m.

Our marathon of Season 2 concludes this month, leading into the premiere of the all-new Season 3. Season 2 finds Victoria adapting to motherhood after the birth of her first child. Meanwhile, the disaster of the Anglo-Afghan War unfolds abroad, and the catastrophic Irish potato famine begins to wreak havoc. In other foreign affairs, a royal state visit to France is in the offing. Most intriguing to Prince Albert is the budding Industrial Revolution, which is now sweeping England. Then there is William Fothergill Cooke's miraculous electrical telegraph, not to mention Marc Isambard Brunel's daring — and dangerous — Thames Tunnel.

Father Brown Season 1 Marathon

Sunday, December 30 at 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Set in the 1950s in the heart of the beautiful English countryside, Mark Williams stars as Father Brown, the Catholic priest who also happens to have a particular talent for solving crimes. Many years spent hearing his parishioners' confessions have given him an uncanny insight into the origins of evil and the workings of the criminal mind. Full of humor and compassion, but with a big dramatic twist each time, this series remains true to the period charm of the original character and setting while bringing a contemporary edge to the storytelling.

Call the Midwife Season 5

Sundays at 7 p.m.

(Note: January 13 start time is 6:30 p.m.)

This month, we are airing Season 5 of this hugely successful series, as we eagerly look forward to the premiere of the new Season 8 in March. Relive once again the touching and compelling stories from the nurses and nuns of Nonnatus House. Taking place in 1961, this season finds Sister Monica Joan missing at Christmas time, leaving the nuns and nurses distraught. Elsewhere Trixie, having battled through her issues with alcohol, finds a new purpose in her keep fit classes. And could friendship blossom into something more for vicar Tom Hereward and Barbara?

“...the Catholic priest who also happens to have a particular talent for solving crimes.”

Luther

Saturdays at 10 p.m.

This gripping, smart and entertaining thriller returns this month with Idris Elba starring as maverick detective John Luther. A detective working for London's Serious Crime Unit, Luther is dazzling, obsessive and sometimes dangerous in the violence of his fixations. Please see page 23 for more details.

Doc Martin Season 8

Thursdays at 9 p.m. beginning
January 17

The grumpy Dr. Martin Ellingham is back in Portwenn, but the usual town antics quickly take their toll on him. As the season opens, Louisa and Martin are living together again, after successfully rekindling their relationship, but Louisa finds herself juggling too many responsibilities at once. Please see page 29 for more details.

Vera

Thursdays at 10 p.m. beginning
January 17

This gritty crime drama joins our Thursday line-up, starring Academy Award nominee Brenda Blethyn ("Atonement") as Chief Inspector Vera Stanhope. Vera is an experienced and brilliant murder investigator in the North East England county of Northumberland. Kind-hearted but an inherent loner, Vera freely admits she can become obsessed with her job; driven by her own demons, the detective faces the world with caustic wit, guile and courage. In the series premiere, a handsome young man and a coquettish student teacher have nothing in common between them — except that both were murdered and left with their bodies meticulously posed. As the killer begins to zero in on a third victim, DCI Stanhope finds suspects and motives mounting.

Taste of Malaysia with Martin Yan

Saturdays at 2:30 p.m. beginning January 12

Take a journey of cultural discovery through this stunning gem in Southeast Asia in an engaging new cooking series. Acclaimed culinary icon Chef Martin Yan presents a wide variety of dishes from this tri-cultural landscape, as well as highlights of the diverse cultural and historical elements.

While the Malaysian menu is always front and center, the local history, culture and customs are also on full display throughout every episode, with local guests generously sharing their expertise and personal stories. Chef Yan and his team visited many historical locations, from British tea plantations up on the Cameron Highlands to the breathtaking mosques on the east coast of the Malay Peninsula.

“...the local history, culture and customs are also on full display...”

EPISODES THIS MONTH:

Cultural Confluence of Peranakan January 12

The Peranakan community in Malaysia unites Chinese and Malay (Baba Nyonya) cultures. Martin explores their customs as well as their food preparation, learning how Peranakan cooks expertly balances their spices.

Gateway to the South January 19

The state of Johor is full of small culinary gems. Martin explores the area around Tangkak, sampling many local favorites such as the famous flying roti and freshly made wonton

The classic Malaysian dish “Laksa” noodles. He also stops by the Gunung Ledang Resort and shares a cooking lesson with the local chef.

Cultural Music

January 26

Kuala Lumpur is a dynamic modern Asian capital with a rich food history. In this episode Martin explores the capital tracing its food history back to its humble kampung (village) origin. He also explores Chinese and Indian influences in Malaysian cuisine, showcasing classical dishes such as Nasi lemak, Bak kut the and Mie goreng.

New Saturday Lineup

Saturdays from 7:30 a.m. – 10 a.m.

Saturday mornings have a new look for the New Year! For our viewers who love to work with their hands, we have a full hour of inspiration for those projects you have wanted to begin. Then join us for ninety minutes of adventure around the world with three exciting travel programs. What a fun way to start off your weekend!

Woodsmith Shop 7:30 a.m.

Learn to create valuable woodworking projects while learning tips and techniques you can use forever. You will find something new in every episode and will come away with a new understanding and appreciation for the time-honored tradition of woodworking.

“Saturday mornings have a new look for the new year.”

American Woodshop 8 a.m.

Master woodworker Scott Phillips and co-host Suzy Phillips share woodworking tips for every skill level. In each episode, they meet a master craftsman who provides tips and techniques on creating everything from unique heirloom-quality furniture and accent pieces to handy jigs, tools and benches.

Born to Explore with Richard Wiese 8:30 a.m.

A modern-day Indiana Jones, host Richard Wiese takes viewers around the world in search of adventure, wildlife and cultures untouched by modern civilization. Whether investigating the Loch Ness monster in Scotland or experiencing the tastes and aromas of Istanbul's fabled Spice Market, Richard uncovers unique stories, people and wildlife.

Weekends with Yankee

Rick Steves Europe 9 a.m.

Journey with best-selling guidebook author Rick Steves to Europe's most interesting places, from great cities to off-the-beaten-path discoveries. Whether you're an armchair traveler eager to learn, or an active traveler dreaming up new plans, this series is the next best thing to a plane ticket.

Weekends with Yankee 9:30 a.m.

This new series explores the best of New England: its spectacular natural landscapes, signature attractions and hidden gems known only to locals. Discover the local flavors, traditional tastes and recipes, and contemporary cuisine that make up New England's bustling food scene.

A Message from a Member of the Vegas PBS Content Director

Cyndy Robbins
Vegas PBS
Content Director

A Look at the Year Ahead

Your member dollars are being well spent on quality programming for the year ahead. We've purchased several new titles that will enhance our local schedule, above and beyond what our national dues to PBS provide. We use your member funds to purchase programs from independent producers, as well as national and international distributors.

Here's a look at just some of what you can look forward to seeing in the coming year. While we don't have specific air dates for some of these titles yet, we'll be sure to feature them right here in Vegas PBS Source magazine, so keep an eye out for them in 2019.

It has been a very long wait for Doc Martin fans, but your patience will soon be rewarded! We've purchased all eight of the brand-new episodes of Doc Martin Season 8, and they will debut on Thursdays at 9 p.m. beginning January 17. We've also purchased two new seasons of a Saturday night favorite, Midsomer Murders. We are pleased to announce that Idris Elba will return to the Saturday night lineup as Luther at 10 p.m. beginning January 5, and we are keeping an eye out for a new season of Death in Paradise.

We are also investing in new drama mystery series including Vera, inspired by best-selling novelist Ann Cleeves, and Shakespeare & Hathaway — Private Investigators, featuring a hard-boiled private inspector and his rookie sidekick who form the unlikely of partnerships as they investigate the inhabitants of rural Warwickshire and their secrets.

Royal history will come to life in new documentaries. Queen Victoria and Her 9 Children is billed as a "right royal saga," and The Queen Mother is a moving profile that reveals the dramatic inside story of the Queen Mother's tumultuous life, from royal power struggles to the darkness of World War II. We are also investing in Secrets of the Masons, which tells the story of the rapid global growth of the Scottish Freemasonry and its centrality to the Enlightenment of the 18th and 19th centuries.

In addition, there are a few big series coming to us from PBS, including Victoria Season 3 on Masterpiece, which kicks off at 8 p.m. on Sunday, January 13, featuring 8 new episodes. And a new 2-part series hosted by Dr. Henry Louis Gates, Jr.; Reconstruction: America After the Civil War is slated to debut on Tuesdays, April 9 and 16. Also slated for an April release is a new 6-part adaptation of Les Misérables on Masterpiece. And in Summer 2019, NOVA and American Experience are slated to have content around the 50th anniversary of the landing on the moon.

We hope you'll enjoy all the new titles that we're bringing to you in 2019. Thank you for your generous donations that make it possible for us to purchase these programs for you, and for everyone in our community, to enjoy.

JANUARY

Children's Lineup

Odd Squad: Odds and Ends Monday, January 21 at 8 a.m.

Geared for children ages 5-8, this live-action series follows two young agents, Olive and Otto, who are part of an agency that seeks to save the day using math when odd things happen. Throughout the series, Olive and Otto learn not only how to solve problems but also about working together, communication and perseverance. In this fun one-hour special, the agents face an unlikely villain and must work together to save the world. The special repeats on Tuesday, January 22 at 7 a.m. and at 1:30 p.m.; Wednesday, January 23 at 1:30 p.m.; and Thursday, January 24 at 7 a.m.

CCSD Spelling Bee 2019

Friday, January 25 at 1:30 p.m., Sunday, January 27 at 9 a.m. and Monday, January 28 at 7 a.m.

The spellers that participated in the Clark County School District (CCSD) Spelling Bee have proven themselves at several levels of competition, with outstanding spellers earning a spot as one of the top seven students from within the 6th, 7th and 8th grades. The Final Spelling Bee was held in December at Vegas PBS where two spellers within each grade level spelled their way to the top. These spellers have earned their place in the Nevada State Spelling Bee that will take place in March of 2018. Cheer on these young scholars in this exciting competition.

NOVA: Beyond Pluto

Wednesday, January 2 at 9 p.m.

The New Horizons spacecraft attempts to fly by a mysterious object known as Ultima Thule, believed to be a primordial building block of the solar system. Three years after taking the first spectacular photos of Pluto, New Horizons is four billion miles from Earth, trying to achieve the most distant flyby in NASA's history. If successful, it will shed light on one of the least understood regions of our solar system: the Kuiper Belt. NOVA is embedded with the New Horizons mission team, following the action in real time as they uncover the secrets of what lies beyond Pluto.

Luther

"People" magazine's Sexiest Man Alive returns to Vegas PBS this month. Idris Elba stars as maverick detective John Luther in this gripping, smart and entertaining thriller. A detective working for London's Serious Crime Unit, Luther is a dedicated policeman, an inspired maker of connections and a whirlwind genius. He is dazzling, obsessive and sometimes dangerous in the violence of his fixations. Throughout the series, Luther faces a succession of psychological duels between hunter and hunted, predator and prey. But as the stakes get ever higher and more personal, Luther's lonely path pulls him towards the very edge of temptation.

Antiques Roadshow: Meadow Brook Hall

The new season/format begins on Monday, January 7 at 8 p.m.

The 500th episode of this reality television pioneer comes with an all-new look! Now, the inspiring finds and family heirlooms are appraised in settings that are treasures in their own right — with all the unforgettable reactions America loves. The new Season 23 will introduce viewers to historic destinations, from a picturesque horse racing track steeped in tradition to a Gilded Age mansion celebrating the success of “The Greatest Show on Earth.” Experience this new look in this week's episode from the grounds of the historic Meadow Brook Hall in Rochester, Michigan. Learn the story behind beloved family heirlooms, thrift store finds and more — including a $77,500 appraisal!

Dictator's Playbook

Wednesdays at 10 p.m. beginning January 9

From Mussolini to Saddam Hussein, dictators have had a profound effect on the 20th century. How did they seize and wield power? What forces rose up against them or resisted them in secret? How did they finally come to the bitter end? This series answers those questions in six immersive hours, each a revealing portrait of brutality and power. Episodes this month include Kim Il Sung, Saddam Hussein, Benito Mussolini and Manuel Noriega.

Victoria and Albert: The Wedding

Sundays, January 13 and 20 at 10 p.m.

Enjoy a recreation of the wedding that changed British matrimonial ceremonies forever. This new two-part series, hosted by Lucy Worsley, celebrates an enduring love that was to melt the nation's heart and set the standard for generations of brides to come. Part 1 joins the experts preparing to reconstruct the wedding that changed history. They investigate the stories behind the dress, food and music. Then in Part 2, witness the most accurate reconstruction of Victoria and Albert's wedding ever staged. It is followed by a sumptuous wedding breakfast, a prelude to the first night that began a marriage so iconic it heralded constitutional monarchy as we know it today.

Seminole Indians in the Everglades

Swamp: American Experience

Tuesday, January 15 at 9 p.m.

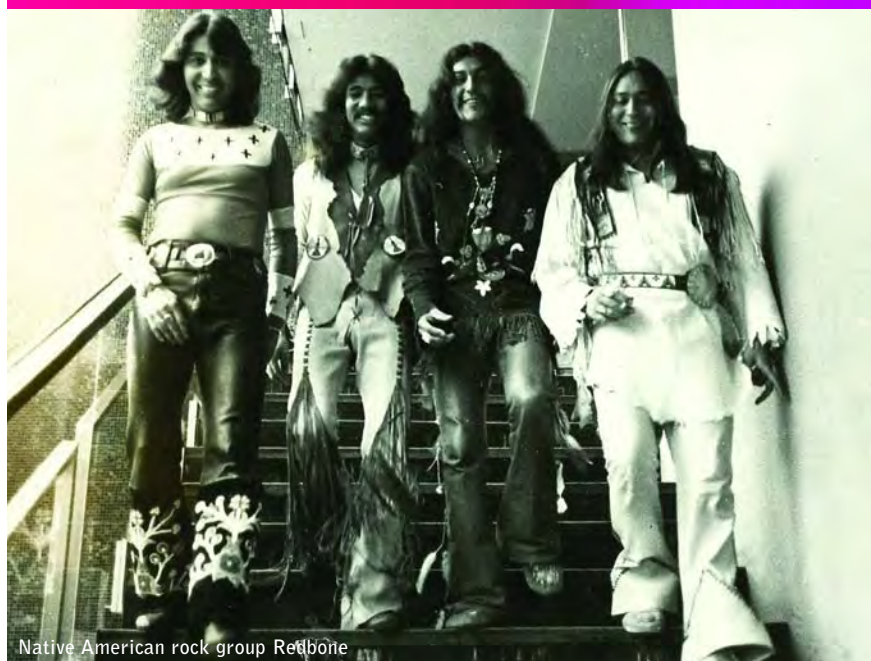

Learn the dramatic story of humanity's attempts to conquer the Florida Everglades, one of nature's most mysterious and unique ecosystems. Home to a profusion of plants and animals found nowhere else on the continent, Florida's Everglades was an immense watershed covering the southern half of the Florida peninsula. Told through the lives of a handful of colorful and resolute characters, from hucksters to politicians to unlikely activists, this special explores the repeated efforts to transform what was seen as a vast and useless wasteland into an agricultural and urban paradise, ultimately leading to a passionate campaign to preserve America's greatest wetland.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Native American rock group Redbone

Independent Lens: Rumble – The Indians Who Rocked the World

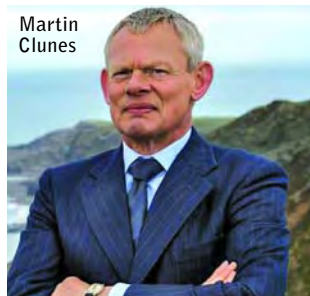

Monday, January 21 at 10 p.m.

This special is an electrifying look at the Native American influence in popular music, despite attempts to ban, censor and erase Indian culture. Early pioneers of the blues such as Charlie Patton had Native as well as African-American roots, and one of the first and most influential jazz singers, Mildred Bailey, had a voice trained on Native American songs. As the folk-rock era took hold in the '60s and '70s, Native Americans such as Peter La Farge and Buffy Sainte-Marie helped to define its evolution, and Native guitarists and drummers like Link Wray, Jimi Hendrix, Jesse Ed Davis and Randy Castillo forever changed the trajectory of rock and roll. Innovative re-creations, archival concert footage and interviews bring the music and musicians to life.

Doc Martin Season 8

Thursday, January 24 at 9 p.m.

This popular British drama returns for an all-new eighth season, beginning on January 17. Dr. Martin Ellingham is back in Portwenn with his wife, Louisa, and their son, James Henry. However, the usual Portwenn antics and happenings quickly take their toll on the grumpy Doc Martin. As he tries to reconcile with Louisa's sudden career change and raise James Henry through his teething stage, his blood phobia causes a disaster with a patient, resulting in Doc Martin's suspension from practicing medicine. Can he deal with these changes, or will he risk the fragile accord he's built with his family? In this week's episode, Martin and Louisa need to find day care for James, Ruth considers selling her farm and Al's stress level takes a toll on his body.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Mike Coykendall and M. Ward

Independent Lens: The King Monday, January 28 at 9 p.m.

Forty years after the death of Elvis Presley, filmmaker Eugene Jarecki takes The King's 1963 Rolls-Royce on a musical road trip across America. From Memphis to New York, Las Vegas, and beyond, the journey traces the rise and fall of Elvis as a metaphor for the country he left behind. A diverse cast of Americans join the journey including Alec Baldwin, Rosanne Cash, Chuck D, Emmylou Harris, Ethan Hawke, Van Jones, Mike Myers and Dan Rather, among many others. This special is followed by Elvis Lives: The 25th Anniversary Concert at 11 p.m. Through the magic of modern technology, Elvis Presley is reunited with his original TCB band and back-up singers 25 years after his death. This unique program features Elvis from some of his most memorable concerts.

Nature: Naledi: One Little Elephant Wednesday, January 30 at 8 p.m

Born inside a sanctuary in the wilderness of Botswana, Naledi the baby elephant loses her mother and faces the world alone. Dedicated caretakers rally to adopt the baby elephant, save her life and reintroduce her to the herd that had forgotten her. Although elephant families are close, the program shows how precarious it is for a newborn to survive once it has lost its mother. The team must separate Naledi from the herd, work to establish a bond and finally entice her to take milk from a bottle. Later, the film documents the cautious reintroduction of Naledi to her sisters and the rest of the family, hoping that she will be accepted by the herd.

The Great Yellowstone Thaw Marathon

Sunday, January 13 from 9 a.m. to Noon

Witness one of the greatest seasonal changes on planet Earth in this stunning three-part series airing back-to-back. Filmed over the course of several intense months, from deep winter to early summer, the special intercuts the stories of several different animal families — including wolves, bison, grizzlies, beavers and great gray owls. From winter to summer, Yellowstone’s temperature typically swings 140 degrees. The series follows the animals in the Yellowstone ecosystem as they emerge from winter’s cold and adapt to an early spring thaw, before encountering the soaring summer temperatures. Explore how these animals fend off floods, starvation and fires, as well as the area’s extreme evolution from cold to heat during the spring season, showcasing the extraordinary survival instincts these natural species possess.

Earth's Natural Wonders

Sunday, January 20 from 12:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. (Season 2)
and Sunday, January 27 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. (Season 1)

Earth's natural wonders are parts of the natural world that nature has carved on such a scale, that they beggar belief. These include vast mountain ranges, impenetrable rain-forests and dazzling tropical islands — places where nature is visible at its most primal, most powerful and most extraordinary-ly beautiful. But many of these natural wonders are among the world's most inhospitable environments and so present unique challenges for their inhabitants. See how the people who live in some of our planet's most spectacular places overcome those challenges and how human resilience, ingenuity and bravery overcome the most extraordinary odds in the great struggle for life.

Holocaust Remembrance Day

Sunday, January 27 from 1 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Treblinka's Last Witness at 1 p.m. tells the story of Samuel Willenberg, who was the last living survivor of the Treblinka death camp. Still haunted 70 years later by the horrors he witnessed, Samuel has immortalized the Treblinka story in a series of bronze sculptures of the tragic victims who dwell indelibly in his memory like ghosts. At 2:30 p.m., We'll Meet Again: Surviving the Holocaust follows Ann Curry as she joins two Holocaust survivors searching for those who gave them hope in the darkest days. Then at 3:30 p.m., we present Remembering the Holocaust: Las Vegas Survivors Tell Their Stories. Nearly 350 Holocaust survivors live in the Las Vegas area. Though they survived the Holocaust, most have not escaped the pain. These are the recollections of Las Vegans who wanted to share their stories.

Create Marathon: Winter In, Cruise Out

Saturday, January 19 from 6 a.m. - Noon

Wave goodbye to winter! Hop onto the boat and into warm sunshine!

Join Travel expert Joseph Rosendo as he cruises the Mediterranean.

Not only does Rick Steves cruise through Germany, he also provides informative tips for when planning to take a cruise. Don't let the winter blues get you down, let them all float away. Repeats same day from 6 p.m. - Midnight and on Sunday, January 20 from Noon -6 p.m.

To Dine For with Kate Sullivan

Tuesdays and Thursdays at 8:30 a.m. beginning January 10

If you ask someone to name their favorite restaurant, you're likely to get a revealing answer. This brand-new series uses this very question as a foundation for a conversation with an array of bright and innovative minds. Four-time Emmy Award-winning journalist Kate Sullivan accompanies ten different guests to their favorite restaurants. They experience the atmosphere, the location, the ambience and eat what they love. Some of Kate's guests this season include Starbucks CEO Howard Schultz, Nike designer Jason Mayden, bestselling author Emily Griffin and actress Jessica Alba.

Nature: Equus: The Story of the Horse

Fridays, January 18 and 25 at 8 p.m.

We built the world around us with horsepower. But what is it that makes humans and horses so perfect for each other? And how have we transformed the wild horse we tamed 6,000 years ago into over 400 specialized breeds today? To answer these questions, anthropologist-turned-filmmaker Niobe Thompson takes viewers on an epic journey across eleven countries and back in time to the mysterious beginnings. In this new two-part special of cutting-edge science and gripping adventure, Thompson explores the evolution of horsepower and learns fascinating new insights into the body and mind of this unique animal. He embarks on a global adventure of discovery, living and riding with horse nomads in Arabia, Siberia and Mongolia, travelling into the field with archeologists and horse psychologists, and above all, getting friendly with horses everywhere he goes.

Eye on the Sixties:

The Iconic Photography of Rowland Scherman

Sunday, January 27 at 10:30 p.m.

Famed "LIFE" magazine photojournalist Rowland Scherman captured some of the most transformational political, cultural and musical events of the 1960s — from the March on Washington to the first American Beatles concert to Robert F. Kennedy's ill-fated presidential campaign to Woodstock. At the sites of some of his most famous photos, Scherman reveals candid and insightful anecdotes from his storied career, reflects on his life and his legacy, and muses about his medium's relevance in the digital age, and the passage of time. Scherman also shares seldom-seen images of politicians and celebrities of the 1960s, including President Lyndon Johnson, folk sensations Joni Mitchell and Judy Collins, tennis great Arthur Ashe, TV journalism pioneer Barbara Walters, a young Bob Dylan, and JFK with the very first Peace Corps volunteers of 1961.

Veerle Baetens, Lars Mikkelsen and Jasmin Gerat

WORLDVIEW SPOTLIGHT

The Team

Tuesdays at 6 p.m.

beginning January 8

In this Danish crime drama, Lars Mikkelsen stars as the Danish detective Harald Bjorn working with Belgian homicide detective Alicia Verbeek (Veerle Baetens) and police superintendent Jackie Muller (Jasmin Gerat) from Berlin on a cross-border crime case. Experts in forensics, legal and IT, as well as profilers and psychologists, they travel across the continent fighting international crime, including human trafficking, illegal migration, prostitution, slavery, money laundering, tax fraud, bribery and corruption. Bjorn is called upon to lead this team as they investigate the brutal killings of multiple women and determine their connections to each other and the killer. Full of exciting plot twists and turns, the series reveals how organized crime cuts through and affects all layers and members of society, especially the victims of crime and their relatives. In Danish with English subtitles. Repeats same days at 9 p.m.

Why We Support Vegas PBS...

Myron Martin

The Smith Center brings the world's most esteemed artists to Southern Nevada to inspire and entertain. Education is also in our DNA. Beyond presenting the best of music, theater and dance, we engage younger generations in the arts through our education and outreach programs.

That is why we support Vegas PBS. Both of our organizations believe in the power of the arts to foster creativity, to motivate kids and to enrich people's lives.

The experience of live performances in our own community at The Smith Center and the broadcast of shows from far-away places on PBS makes for an exciting and powerful collaboration.

I volunteer my time to Vegas PBS because I believe in the power of public television. I couldn't imagine a better partner for The Smith Center. Together, we have produced local and national television specials that have not only brought joy to a vast audience, but also shined a white-hot spotlight on our amazing community.

Vegas PBS deserves our support.
