A Message from the General Manager

Vegas PBS Brings the World to Your Home

As a member-supported public television station, Vegas PBS is able to use your investments to bring the world to your neighborhood through the powerful and exciting stories featured in PBS programs and local outreach events. We opened the fall season last month with Ken Burns' Country Music documentary. In October, you will see a broad range of program content on full display, from hit dramas to the performing arts, nature, history, locally-produced programs and so much more.

Vegas PBS continues to provide the high-quality dramas so popular with our viewers. The Durrells in Corfu Season 4 on Masterpiece and Poldark Season 5 on Masterpiece — both entering their final seasons — begin airing Sunday, September 29 at 8 p.m. and 9 p.m., respectively, and will air throughout October.

Highlights among many performing arts specials include Great Performances: Now Hear This: Scarlatti: Man Out of Time on Friday, October 4 at 9 p.m. We will discover how this gifted composer generated new sounds inspired by the guitar. Then, watch Great Performances: Grammy Salute to Music Legends, airing Friday, October 18 at 9 p.m. Don't miss Rothko: American Masters airing Friday, October 25 at 9 p.m. to explore the abstract expressionist movement, followed by Songwriting with Soldiers at 10 p.m., where professional artists work with war veterans to tell their stories through song.

For decades, Vegas PBS has been committed to providing insightful nature programming from locally produced Outdoor Nevada to national series. Wild Metropolis airs Wednesday, October 2 at 10 p.m. The program producers recorded a portion in Las Vegas focusing on local scorpions and the attraction they share with tourists for the neon lights of our city. Nature: Okavango: River of Dreams – Paradise airs Wednesday, October 23 at 8 p.m. telling the story of a lioness' journey through this lush African paradise.

Vegas PBS is providing some of the best documentaries and history programming in October. The independent documentary series POV has earned top tier awards and nominations from the Academy Awards®. This month, watch The Feeling of Being Watched on Monday, October 14 at 10 p.m. and follow journalist Assia Boundaoui as she investigates the FBI's pre-9/11 counter-terrorism probes of her Chicago suburb neighborhood. Retro Report debuts on Mondays and Tuesdays, beginning October 7 and 8, at 9 p.m. Vegas PBS is one of a handful of local PBS stations to receive a grant to produce two related specials; one explores water conservation and another looks at the history of legal and illegal sex work in Nevada. These productions will be featured on Nevada Week, combined with additional in-depth discussions with a panel of experts.

Through the support of members like you, Vegas PBS will continue to offer a broad range of content that sparks curiosity and provides diverse perspectives. Member contributions make it possible to provide these programs for all Southern Nevadans. Thank you to all who have made a contribution to support public television in our community.

Throughout October

The Durrells in Corfu Season 4 on Masterpiece

This month, we air the final seasons of two beloved series. We have come to know and love the characters of Poldark and The Durrells in Corfu, and they will truly be missed. So settle in on Sunday evenings this month and enjoy every moment!

Endeavour Season 4 on Masterpiece

(Season 5 begins October 27)

Sundays at 6:30 p.m.

Endeavour turns back the clock to 1965 to tell the story of the making of the legendary detective. Evoking the conflict between tradition and the new youth culture of the '60s, Endeavour answers a lot of questions about the young Morse. Just how did this working-class, opera-loving, crossword-addicted, Oxford University dropout land on the Oxford police, fall into a problematic relationship with women and manage to slip behind the wheel of a classic car as part of his low-paying job?

Then Season 5 begins with Morse having finally passed his Sergeant's exams just as Oxford City Police merges into Thames Valley Constabulary, creating uncertainty for everyone at Cowley CID.

The Durrells in Corfu Season 4 on Masterpiece

Sundays at 8 p.m. beginning September 29

This heartwarming series returns for its fourth and final season, starring Keeley Hawes as an intrepid widow who leaves dreary 1930s England to Greece with her four recalcitrant children. Following the events of the last series, the future is looking bright for the Durrells, with all of the family channeling their heartbreak in different ways. Louisa has opened the doors of the family villa as a guest house, with Basil as their only paying guest. Meanwhile, Larry is struggling to get his risqué Black Book published, whilst heartbroken Leslie has thrown himself back into his job and shooting. True to form, Gerry ambitiously plans to open a zoo, and Margo starts her own beauty salon.

Poldark Season 5 on Masterpiece

Sundays at 9 p.m. beginning September 29

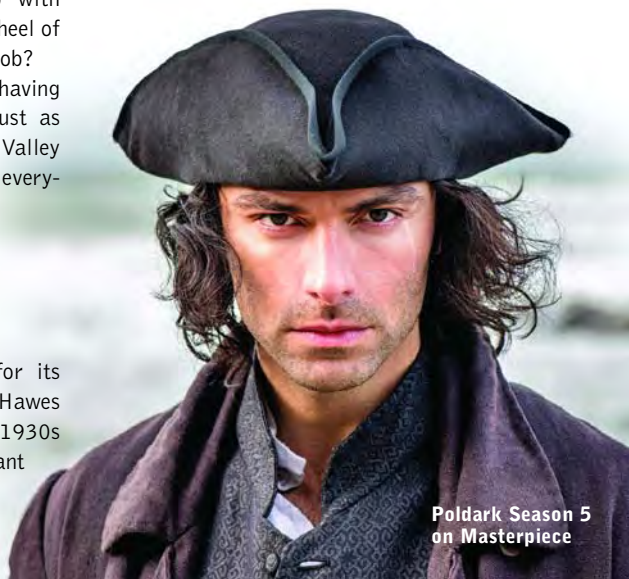

Aidan Turner returns for the final season as the heroic Ross Poldark. It is a new century and with it comes the promise of a hopeful future, but the past casts a long shadow over Cornwall. Following the death of Elizabeth, Poldark resolves to put Westminster behind him and spend more time with the people he loves. However, when an old friend emerges with a plea for help, Ross is compelled to challenge the establishment again. As the Enyses (Luke Norris and Gabriella Wilde) rally to join the cause, Demelza (Eleanor Tomlinson) must contend with dangers close to home, while George (Jack Farthing) courts corrupt powers whose influence spans the Empire.

Set in the world of newspapers in London — its past riven by hacking scandals, its present at the mercy of the digital age and the 24-hour news cycle, its future uncertain — this razor sharp and observant drama explores the current, turbulent media landscape and the ethical dilemmas that journalists and editors face each day. Charlotte Riley ("Peak Blinders") and Ben Chaplin ("Apple Tree Yard") star, alongside Priyanga Burford ("King Charles III") and David Suchet ("Poirot").

This Emmy Award®-winning series announces the start of production on its 39th season and welcomes fresh new faces as apprentices join the on-air series regulars to sharpen their skills in carpentry, masonry, HVAC systems and more. They are being welcomed as a part of the multimedia brand's Generation NEXT initiative designed to encourage and empower people to join the skilled trades.

This season, host Kevin O'Connor, general contractor Tom Silva, master carpenter Norm Abram, plumbing and heating expert Richard Trethewey and landscape contractor Roger Cook will be joined by trade students and up-and-coming professionals as America's most trusted home improvement show shines a spotlight on the value of jobs in the building industry.

The first project of the 39th season is a second-generation family home in Newton, Massachusetts. Homeowners Liz and Joe recently inherited a 1,700 square-foot Four Square house, originally built in 1879. Now the team and the apprentices are helping to renovate and expand to accommodate three generations. The second project of the show will take place in Charleston, South Carolina, a town rich in history, with many architectural gems in need of saving.

Ask This Old House

Saturdays at 10:30 a.m.

The team at This Old House takes on some pretty big projects, which means they can only work on one or two houses a year. But homeowners have a virtual truckload of questions for them on smaller projects, and they're ready to answer them. In this informative series, the team solves the steady stream of home improvement problems faced by viewers — and they make house calls!

Tuesday, October 1 at 8 p.m.

The only one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World still standing, the Great Pyramid of Giza, has fascinated people for centuries. In November 2017, a research team announced they had made a historic discovery — using cutting-edge, non-invasive technology, they discovered several new cavities within the Great Pyramid. This special shows how these modern-day explorers — particle physicists, experts in 3D technologies and engineers in thermal imaging — made this massive discovery, exploring large portions of the pyramid for two years. Witness their adventures and successes in this extraordinary journey through time and space.

Monday, October 7 at 10 p.m.

This film by Ken Burns tells the story about a little-known but important mission by an American minister and his wife to rescue refugees and dissidents in Europe before and after the start of World War II. They left their children behind in the care of their parish and boldly committed to multiple life-threatening missions in Europe. Over two dangerous years they helped to save hundreds of imperiled political dissidents and Jewish refugees fleeing the Nazi occupation across Europe. During this time, the Sharps would face harrowing encounters with Nazi police, narrowly escape arrest and watch as the Third Reich invaded Eastern Europe.

A Message from Vegas PBS' Interim Director of Development and Strategic Relations

Clark Dumont
Interim Director of Development and Strategic Relations

Your Support Keeps Quality Programming Alive

I'm a recovering journalist.

My career start in broadcast journalism gives me an extra appreciation for how communities work and how organizations bring people and their ideas together for the betterment of community and helping to forge the bonds of social and civic capital.

Such is the mission of public television and Vegas PBS, which I am proud to be associated with as a member of the Southern Nevada Public Television Board of Directors. My appreciation has been enhanced in my interim role leading Vegas PBS' Development function, while also helping to steward the station's long-term strategic plan.

Vegas PBS delivers quality, trusted television and streams content 24/7. The reality is, quality comes at a cost and Vegas PBS, like the 170 PBS affiliated licensees nationally, must generate the revenue locally to make the content a reality. Research shows that PBS' brand generates unwavering loyalty among an array of audiences that is literally cradle to grave. Parents rely on Vegas PBS to provide trusted and quality children's programs that educate, entertain and inform. Amidst a shrinking supply of over-the-air children's programming, viewership data indicates Vegas PBS is the supplier of choice for children's content during the morning and early afternoon hours on Channel 10 and VEGAS PBS KIDS.

Similarly, the award-winning news and information shows including Nevada Week, BBC World

News, Nightly Business Report and the PBS NewsHour are trusted by public and business decision makers and influencers. The same goes for the other wide and diverse array of content ranging from Antiques Roadshow to Masterpiece, to Ken Burns' iconic documentaries, to the foodie favorite America's Test Kitchen and so much more for which PBS has become known. Not the least is our spotlight on the achievements of southern Nevada students through locally produced shows like Varsity and Junior Varsity Quiz, Nevada Regional Science Bowl and Clark County School District Spelling Bee.

We are honored to be the choice of many Southern Nevada businesses, foundations and individuals as the place where they demonstrate their commitment to education and community, by sponsoring programming (visit page 38 for a list of sponsors). They know that through their support they are inherently connected with the quality of the Vegas PBS brand, and helping to advance its essential mission of educating, informing and entertaining. We'd like to add you to the list! Vegas PBS has a variety of sponsorship opportunities to help businesses and organizations engage with the growing and loyal community of Vegas PBS supporters. To connect with our team please send us a note at CorporateSponsorship@VegasPBS.org.

Thank you for supporting Vegas PBS!

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Press on Masterpiece

Sunday, October 6 at 10 p.m.

This sharp, fast-paced series rips aside the front pages of rival newspapers to reveal the lives, loves and lies of a dynamic group of journalists. Set in the world of newspapers in London — its past riven by hacking scandals, its present at the mercy of the digital age and the 24-hour news cycle, its future uncertain — this razor sharp and observant drama explores the current, turbulent media landscape and the ethical dilemmas that journalists and editors face each day. Charlotte Riley (“Peaky Blinders”) and Ben Chaplin (“Apple Tree Yard”) star, alongside Priyanga Burford (“King Charles III”) and David Suchet (“Poirot”).

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Arab-American neighborhood outside Chicago

POV: The Feeling of Being Watched

Monday, October 14 at 10 p.m.

In the Muslim American neighborhood outside of Chicago where journalist and filmmaker Assia Boundaoui grew up, most of her neighbors think they have been under surveillance for over a decade. While investigating their experiences, Assia uncovers tens of thousands of pages of FBI documents that prove her hometown was the subject of one of the largest counterterrorism investigations ever conducted in the U.S. before 9/11. This new special weaves together the personal and the political as it follows the filmmaker's examination of why her community — including her own family — fell under blanket government surveillance. Assia struggles to disrupt the government secrecy shrouding what happened and takes the FBI to federal court to compel them to make the records public. In the process, she confronts long-hidden truths about the FBI's relationship to her community.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Songwriting with Soldiers

Friday, October 25 at 10 p.m.

Facing reentry into civilian life, many service members struggle with the aftermath of war: ambush, rocket fire and friends lost. Songwriting with Soldiers uses strong songwriting as a catalyst for positive change in weekend retreats across the country, pairing service members with professional songwriters to craft songs about their experiences, often about combat and the return home. The creative songwriting process is life-changing for participants as it offers a unique outlet to tell their stories, rebuild trust, release pain and forge new bonds. In this new special, award-winning singer/songwriters, veterans and active service members come together for a powerful night of music in a moving concert performed and taped at Nashville's War Memorial Auditorium.

Nature: Okavango: River of Dreams: Paradise

Wednesday, October 23 at 8 p.m.

The Okavango in Southern Africa is a special river born in the highlands of Angola. Running through Botswana for more than 1,000 miles, the waters of the Okavango create a huge river delta before finally disappearing into the Kalahari Desert. The Okavango Delta is a true natural wonder — an unlikely oasis and lush paradise in the middle of a hostile desert that supports and feeds an incredible abundance of wildlife. The three-part series presents a unique ecosystem at its finest and most beautiful. This first episode explores the landscape and wildlife of the Upper Okavango River. A lioness severely injured by a buffalo is left for dead by her pride. Now handicapped, she has to survive in the swamp alone, hunting to feed her little cubs.

POV: Blowin' Up

Sunday, October 27 at 11 p.m.

Working within a broken criminal justice system, a team of rebel heroines work to change the way women arrested for prostitution are prosecuted. Official Selection, 2018 Tribeca Film Festival.

Kids in Crisis: You're Not Alone

Monday, October 28 at 11:30 p.m.

In 2017, 16% of Wisconsin high school students surveyed said they seriously considered suicide. Eight percent said they had attempted it. Follow four young people from Wisconsin navigating mental health challenges. They've endured assault, bullying, incarceration and discrimination. Some thought about suicide, but through the pain they found support from family, friends and strangers. They found strength within themselves. Used as a tool in many high schools, the film focuses on individuals who thought about suicide but found coping mechanisms and did not die by suicide. Researchers emphasize the importance of hopeful peer-to-peer messages. The film, which does not have a narration track, features only the voices of the four youth. Many young people feel hopeless, and this documentary can be a motivational force for positive change.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Emperor Akihito

Sunday, October 27 from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Emperor Akihito and Empress Michiko

The three-part documentary series airing back-to-back tells the story of the Japanese emperor's life and his reign from 1989 to 2019. In a democratizing world, the changing role of the Imperial House of Japan led Emperor Akihito to break with many traditions. In part one, Crown Prince Akihito's childhood is spent in the shadow of a war fought in the name of his father. He learns to balance an imperial identity with a sense of social equality. In part two, he meets his future wife, who becomes the first commoner to join the Imperial Household. In another break with tradition, they raise their own children. Then in part three, Emperor Akihito explores his role as the symbol of the state and of the unity of the Japanese people. In April 2019, foreseeing a time when he can no longer perform his duties as he wishes, the Emperor decides to abdicate.

Dream of Italy: Tuscan Sun Special

Wednesday, October 2 at 9:30 a.m.

Join Kathy McCabe as she travels to the hill-top town of Cortona to meet Frances Mayes, New York Times best-selling author of the 1996 memoir "Under the Tuscan Sun." Frances invites Kathy into Bramasole, the villa she and her husband transformed from a little fixer upper into a worldwide phenomenon, including a hit movie. Kathy takes you inside to visit the gardens and the beautiful rooms for a conversation with Frances about just what it is about Italy that keeps us coming back again and again. Later, as Kathy and Frances explore Cortona, one-star Michelin chef Silvia gives a cooking lesson with local ingredients, and a jeweler explains Tuscany's goldsmithing tradition. Repeats same day at 3:30 p.m. and on Wednesday, October 9 at 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

JACKPOT! SPOTLIGHT

Hemingway in Cuba

Thursday, October 10 at 11 p.m.

Cuba captured Ernest Hemingway's fertile imagination and inspired him to create now-legendary fictional characters: Harry Morgan of "To Have and Have Not," Thomas Hudson of "Islands in the Stream" and Santiago of "The Old Man and the Sea." This special travels to Cuba to capture Hemingway's old haunts — many of which remain unchanged — and explores Hemingway's real-life adventures in Cuba, from his passion for marlin fishing and safari hunting, as well as the influence of his wives and lovers on his life and work. Featured are archival footage and included interviews with Cuban scholars and Hemingway biographers who discuss how Cuba's culture, religion and even its volatile politics influenced this legendary American author.

The Library Thief

Sunday, October 6 from 6 p.m. – 9 p.m.

The names and some of the incidents have been changed, but the story at the heart of this three-part drama airing back-to-back is true. John Johansson (Gustaf Skarsgård, "Vikings") was a laid-off, downtrodden teacher, married with two kids and swamped with debt. John takes a part-time job as an assistant in Stockholm's Royal Library — a position for which he is eminently over-qualified. He then began stealing library rarities and selling them at auction houses throughout Europe under the guise of "John Manneus." The gambit works, and soon John is regularly commuting back and forth to auction houses throughout Europe, dramatically upgrading his lifestyle and climbing the ladder at work. He is eventually brought down by three of his co-workers. In Swedish with English subtitles. Repeats same day from 9 p.m. – Midnight.

Independent Lens: Made in Boise

Wednesday, October 30 at 10 p.m.

A surprising — and booming — industry has emerged in Boise, Idaho. In this idyllic, all-American city, nurses, nail technicians and stay-at-home mothers are choosing to become paid reproductive surrogates for people from around the world. This special goes inside the lives of four women as they build relationships with intended parents, prepare for the rigors of pregnancy, and navigate the mixed feelings of their own families, who struggle to understand the surrogates' choice to risk the physical and emotional complications of carrying babies for another family.

Why We Support Vegas PBS...

School Trick Art

HeadzUP is entertainment for everyone with endless adventures in one location. We have a trick art museum, escape rooms, archery tag arena, axe throwing cages and the NV Boxing Hall of Fame Exhibit. All of these activities were created with the hopes of connecting people and letting them enjoy one another's company.

Our goal is to influence our youth and community by providing them with safe and fun learning experiences. Thinking skills will be put to the test in our escape rooms, by building connections and solving puzzles in order to complete a room, we encourage team building and good sportsmanship in our archery tag arena and axe throwing cages, imaginations are working full force when interacting with the art, and to utilize the sport of boxing to further the general welfare of the youth.

This is why we are proud to support Vegas PBS and its role in the community. When we work together to accomplish a common goal, we are unstoppable.
