A Message from the General Manager

African-American History Month

In his declaration of February as African-American History Month, our President called on all Americans to reflect on the African-Americans who "through toil and struggle with courageous actions have broken barriers and made America a better place to live." This month our schedule includes specials that explore local and national African-American experiences that have required political toil and struggle, inspired artistic expression and made America a better place. Vegas PBS is pleased to highlight these impactful stories and hope you will find them engaging and inspiring.

Three episodes of American Masters plus several documentaries and performances review the ability of entertainers, film makers and artists to overcome racial divides. We lead with the story of a Las Vegas legend in Sammy Davis Jr.: I've Gotta Be Me. The complicated history of the American South is revealed through its music in the life of a famous country music star in Charlie Pride: I'm Just Me. We also explore the life and work of "A Raisin in the Sun" playwright in Lorraine Hansberry. Live from Lincoln Center: Pipeline features Dominique Morisseau's riveting new play that follows an inner-city teacher who is desperate to give her son opportunities her students may never experience. A popular blues artist and hip-hop supergroup entertain us on Austin City Limits: Buddy Guy/August Greene.

The documentary Hale County This Morning, This Evening offers a lyrical take on portraiture and questions the frameworks that have characterized the presentation of African-Americans in film. Independent Lens: Black Memorabilia investigates the market and collectors of racist antiques and a Black artist working to reclaim these depictions.

Locally, we explore the momentous events that defined African-American history in Southern Nevada with Vegas PBS' documentary African Americans: The Las Vegas Experience. The documentary tells the rich history of African-Americans in the city. Firsthand accounts, archival footage and detailed recreations put Las Vegas' Civil Rights era in context, letting viewers in on this fundamental piece of our local identity. Broadway in the Hood: An artScene Special explores the role of performance art to motivate and inspire a community in performance at the West Las Vegas Library.

Vegas PBS seeks to serve all viewers in our region with programming that educates and entertains. Victoria on Masterpiece, the life of Roman Emperor Nero, secrets of Egyptian pyramids, living volcanoes, arctic wolves, Vikings, a new Pinkalicious and Peterrific series for kids and some great cooking recipes add to the spice and diversity of the February programming your membership makes possible.

“...our schedule includes specials that explore local and national African-American experiences...”

The Royal Treatment

Sundays in February

This month we have a fabulous regal lineup of royal programming featuring stories of the British monarchy.

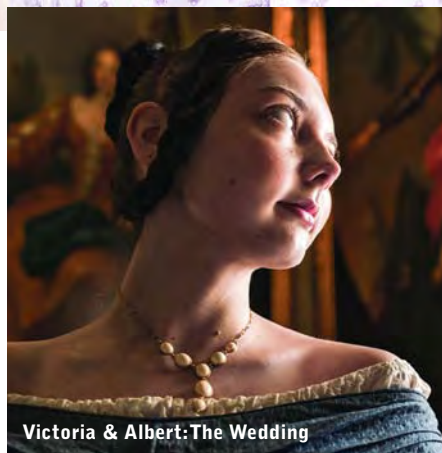

Victoria Season 3 on Masterpiece

Sponsored by:
Janice Allen

The new season of this captivating drama continues with the story of Victoria's rule over the largest empire the world has ever known. The young Queen is facing a crisis that threatens to end her reign, chiefly the Revolutions of 1848, when the downtrodden throughout Europe begin agitating for the overthrow of aristocratic rule.

In England, this discontent leads to Chartism, a set of demands for universal male suffrage, the secret ballot, equal representation for voters and other reforms that were considered radical by leading political figures during Victoria's reign. As with many crusades, passions are aroused on both sides — sometimes violently. At the time, who knew if events might turn out like the French Revolution, which resorted to widespread use of the guillotine?

“...who knew if events might turn out like the French Revolution, which resorted to widespread use of the guillotine?”

Victoria Season 3 on Masterpiece

Victoria & Albert: The Wedding

Passion is also an issue in the bedroom at Buckingham Palace, where Victoria is reluctant to risk more pregnancies. Parents now of six, Victoria and Albert find themselves at odds about their offspring, especially the troubled Bertie, the role of the monarchy and increasingly with each other.

EPISODES:

February 3 As Albert leaves for Cambridge, Victoria faces the impact of a cholera epidemic in London.

February 10 The Royals visit Ireland, where intrigue, conflict and romance all blossom during their stay.

February 17 A Georgian ball at the Palace could not come at a worse time as private pictures of the Royal family are made public.

February 24 Albert and Palmerston put their reputations on the line, and Victoria must fight against her better judgement to decide where to place her allegiance.

March 3 (season finale) The world's eyes are on the Great Exhibition and the Royal couple. Does triumph or failure beckon? Each week's new episode will encore the following Sunday at 8 p.m.

Victoria & Albert: The Wedding

Sunday, February 3 from 10 p.m. - Midnight

This entertaining two-part series provides an insider's look into the elaborate planning that went into one of the most famous weddings of all time: the romantic 1840 union of Queen Victoria and her consort Prince Albert. With the help of a team of experts, popular Royal historian Lucy Worsley oversees the meticulous recreation of the most important elements of the wedding celebration, scouring history books, archives, newspapers and even Victoria's own diaries for details.

Lucy is joined by food historian Annie Gray, clothing expert Harriet Waterhouse, military historian Jasdeep Singh and more. From the bouquet and the beautifully tiered cake to the music for the ceremony and the wedding gown — Victoria's game-changing white dress started a tradition that still lives on — each element has been carefully researched, remade by hand, and finally put to use in a joyous recreation of the big day itself.

Throughout, Lucy and her team unpack and explore the hidden iconography and symbolism of this hugely significant wedding. They uncover new insights into Victoria and Albert's relationship, both public and private, and shed fascinating new light on the broader implications of the wedding.

Margaret: The Rebel Princess Sundays, February 10 and 17 at 10 p.m.

This special is an insightful new two-part biography of Princess Margaret, Queen Elizabeth's beautiful and rebellious younger sister. Featuring rare footage and interviews with those who knew her best, the series offers unparalleled insight into Margaret's turbulent life and times. Her unique position as the Queen's younger sister in a changing Britain left her free to experiment and push boundaries, yet she was forever judged by a public and press beginning to question the very idea of a monarchy. While Margaret often followed the rigid rules under which she was raised, she also stepped outside those rules and into scandal. A complicated and contradictory princess, her story parallels her era, when the rules of social norms were being rewritten and a freer, more egalitarian society was emerging.

Margaret forged her own way by becoming a rule-breaking trendsetter and an eager participant in the excitement of a swinging 1960s London. Her loves were passionate if not always wise, from Peter Townsend, a married aide to her father, to her dashing yet philandering husband Lord Snowden, to the much-younger Roddy Llewellyn. But it was her relationship with her sister that was perhaps the most important, the woman against whom she defined herself all her life.

New interviews with several of her closest friends reveal Margaret as the first truly modern princess — a superstar who introduced a flash of Hollywood glamour into Buckingham Palace and paved the way for Diana, Kate and Meghan. A woman yearning for escape in a post-war world eager to shrug its own oppressive constraints, Margaret became a powerful and unpredictable force, reflecting and driving fundamental changes in our attitudes about the monarchy, celebrity, marriage and sex.

Call the Midwife Sundays, Sunday at 7 p.m.

Sponsored by:
Lee & Benson Riseman

Enjoy once again the joy and heartbreak with the nuns and midwives of Nonnatus House as they serve the underprivileged residents of London's East end in this phenomenally popular drama. We continue with our encore broadcast of previous seasons, leading up to the highly-anticipated return of an all-new Season 8 this spring. The last two episodes of Season 5 will air on January 27 and February 3, with Season 6 beginning on February 10.

It's now 1962 and it is evident how times are changing, from increased liberation for women to the shadow of infamous gangsters to the introduction of new government policies. The midwives strive to help mothers and families cope with the demands of childbearing, disability, disease and social prejudice.

Enjoy more tremendous drama throughout the week...

Africa's Great Civilization

Mondays, February 4, 11 and 25 at 10 p.m.

Africa is the ancestral home to the human community and to many of the pivotal breakthroughs in the history of civilization, yet the continent continues to be stereotyped as an isolated and underdeveloped region in the mind of outsiders, devoid of any profound historical achievements.

This series dispels these myths and other inaccuracies about Africa through a detailed and riveting examination of significant historical events, such as the rise of its powerful kingdoms, the growth of extensive trade networks with the Middle East, Europe and China, seminal technological and artistic discoveries, and its peoples' resilience in the face of harrowing past traumas.

The special presents a new vision not only of Africa's pivotal place in world history, but also the world's relation to Africa.

Finding Your Roots Season 5

Tuesdays at 8 p.m.

Today's brightest personalities discover the surprising stories buried within their own families, including Academy Award winner Marisa Tomei; Emmy and Golden Globe Award winners Felicity Huffman, Laura Linney and S. Epatha Merkerson; and actors Michael K. Williams, Andy Samberg, Chloe Sevigny and Kal Penn. The roots of these guests cover the globe — from Samoa, Nigeria, Taiwan and Sicily to Iran, Ireland, India and Cuba — and almost everywhere in between.

Their family trees are filled with compelling characters — slaves and kings, artists and entrepreneurs, abandoned children and missing parents, revolutionaries, soldiers, and a constant flow of ordinary individuals who did remarkable things, laying the groundwork for their successful descendants. Repeats Sundays at 4:30 p.m.

Sealab: American Experience

Tuesday, February 5 at 9 p.m.

This new special tells the mostly forgotten story of the U.S. Navy's daring program that tested the limits of human endurance, revolutionized the way humans explored the ocean and laid the groundwork for undersea military missions to come. In the spring of 1964, Scott Carpenter — already famous for being the second American to orbit the earth — was preparing for a new mission, not into space as an astronaut but into the sea as one of the Navy's newly-minted “aquanauts.”

These divers who attempted to chart the ocean's depths faced barriers that had thwarted humans for centuries: near total blackness, bone-jarring cold and intense pressure that could disorient the mind and crush the body. Aboard Sealab, Carpenter and his fellow explorers would attempt to break through those barriers — going deeper and staying underwater longer than anyone had done before. Their daring exploits were beginning to capture the nation's attention, but a deadly tragedy would prematurely end their pioneering work.

Dictator's Playbook

Wednesdays at 10 p.m.

Dictators have had a profound effect on the 20th century. How did they seize and wield power? What forces rose up against them or resisted them in secret? How did they finally come to the bitter end? Through historical context and analysis, this series explores how these dictators functioned, how they influenced each other and why they succeeded or failed.

On February 6, learn how Francisco Franco used the tactics of colonial war to win control of Spain. ries true? Was Nero a far better ruler than he’s ever been given credit for? Recent research, modern interpretations of historical sources and new discoveries cast a different light on the accusations levelled at the Roman emperor.

Roads to Memphis: American Experience

Tuesday, February 26 at 9 p.m.

Witness the fatefully entwined stories of assassin James Earl Ray and his target, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., against the backdrop of the seething and turbulent forces in American society that led these two men to their violent and tragic collision in Memphis, Tennessee, on April 4, 1968. Based on the book by Hampton Sides (“Ghost Soldiers”), the program relies on eyewitness testimony from King’s inner circle and the officials involved in Ray’s capture and prosecution following an intense two-month international manhunt.

Nazi Mega Weapons

Wednesdays at 11 p.m.

Hitler’s Megaships February 6

Hitler sees the battleship as the ultimate status symbol and orders two vessels to be constructed that are bigger, more powerful and more heavily armored than anything else at sea. But the British will stop at nothing until Hitler’s weapons are at the bottom of the sea.

The Siegfried Line February 13

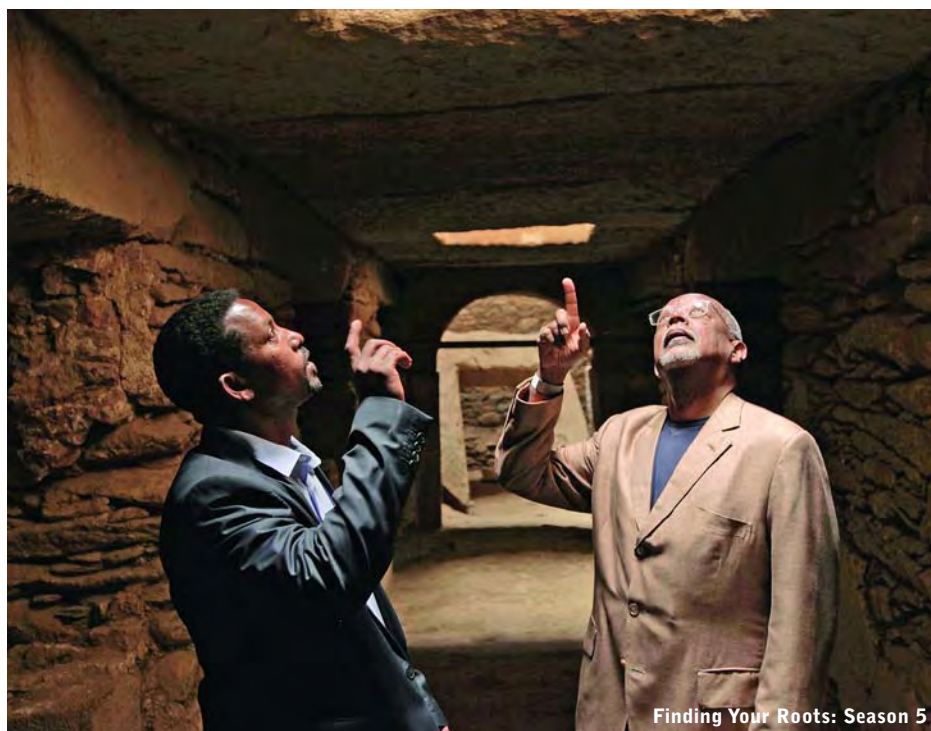

In 1938, shrouded in secrecy, the German Army starts work on fortifications to secure Germany’s western border with France — an immense, deadly concrete belt of bunkers, anti-tank traps, minefields, gun emplacements and road blocks.

Blitzkrieg February 20

In the first years of World War II, Hitler’s Germany crushes its enemies in a series of lightning offensives. A new word is coined to describe this incredible string of successes: “Blitzkrieg” or “Lightning War.”

Hitler’s Killer Subs February 27

By early 1943 Nazi Germany is losing the battle in the Atlantic and it could cost them the war. But since 1940, Hitler has been planning a submarine capable of fast underwater speeds and phenomenal firepower that will outperform anything that has gone before. Designated the Type 21, it is the world’s most advanced submarine.

British army to build a powerful dictatorship in Uganda. Through a combination of populist charm and brutal violence, he ruled for eight years — until his strategic blunders brought him down.

Greely Expedition: American Experience

Tuesday, February 12 at 9 p.m.

In 1881, 25 men led by Lieutenant Adolphus Greely sailed from the harbor of St. John’s, Newfoundland. Their destination was Lady Franklin Bay in the high Arctic, where they planned to collect a wealth of scientific data. Three years later, only six survivors returned, with a daunting story of shipwreck, starvation, mutiny and cannibalism. Drawing on a documentary record that includes scientific accounts, diaries, photographs and letters, the film reveals the nearly unbearable pressures experienced by the members of the expedition, and shows how poor planning, personality clashes, questionable decisions and pure bad luck conspired to turn a noble scientific mission into a human tragedy.

Secrets of the Dead: The Nero Files

Wednesday, February 20 at 10 p.m.

The Roman emperor Nero is considered one of history’s greatest criminals — a cruel, insane and brutal ruler. His name has become synonymous with evil, and he stands accused of killing his step-brother, his wife and his mother, as well as burning Rome to the ground for his own artistic inspiration. But are these sto-

Wednesdays at 9 p.m.

Decoding the Great Pyramid February 6

How did the ancient Egyptians build the pyramids of Giza and who were the thousands of laborers who raised the stones? With a 4,500-year-old logbook of a labor team leader who was in charge of delivering limestone blocks to build the Great Pyramid, this special travels to Giza. They dig into the remains of the barracks housing the laborers who toiled there — an investigation likely to yield clues to their identity, diet and status.

Rise of the Rockets February 13

Many private companies are developing new technologies and lowering costs to bring space closer than ever. And at the same time, NASA is returning to manned spaceflight with gusto — once again building a rocket to take us far beyond Earth. As costs come down and new rockets with new capabilities come online, a new generation is reaching for the cosmos; once more daring to dream big, yearning to go further and in greater numbers than ever before.

The Next Pompeii February 20

Experts search for clues to determine if a volcanic eruption could devastate a major Italian city. The program also follows historians and geologists as they discover the latest evidence of Pompeii's fiery destruction, unpacking the chain of events that led to the ancient world's most notorious disaster. What lessons does the tragedy of Pompeii hold for Naples' citizens, who face a mounting threat from the unseen forces beneath their feet?

Great Human Odyssey February 27

Walk in the footsteps of our ancient ancestors as scientists trace the paths that led us out of Africa and around the world. From snowy Siberia to remote Pacific islands, discover how humans survived and thrived in every corner of the planet.

“They dig into the remains of the barracks housing the laborers who toiled there...”

Nature: Living Volcanoes

Wednesday, February 20 at 8 p.m.

All life on Earth owes itself to their existence. Volcanoes create the land we live on, emit gas that forms the air we breathe, spew minerals from the center of the Earth and make homes for spectacular natural history.

Volcanoes are the portal to the earth's fiery magma heart; one might imagine that life above ground would avoid living nearby. But a surprising number of animals survive and thrive alongside them. Right now, in any 24-hour period, some 30 volcanoes are erupting on our planet. This film will uncover the varied activity – both human and natural – that occurs on the slopes of active volcanoes.

“Right now, in any 24-hour period, some 30 volcanoes are erupting on our planet.”

Live from Lincoln Center: Pipeline

Friday, February 8 at 9 p.m.

A mother's hopes for her son clash with an educational system rigged against him in this riveting new play by Dominique Morisseau ("Skeleton Crew"). Nya, an inner-city public high school teacher, is committed to her students but desperate to give her only son Omari opportunities they'll never have. When a controversial incident at his upstate private school threatens to get him expelled, Nya must confront his rage and her own choices as a parent. But will she be able to reach him before a world beyond her control pulls him away? With profound compassion and lyricism, the production brings an urgent conversation powerfully to the fore. Don't miss this deeply mov-

Broadway in the Hood: An artScene Special

Friday, February 8 at 10:30 p.m.

This special "artScene" episode tells the riveting and emotional story of Broadway in the Hood, a not-for-profit theater company, as it attempts to produce the Broadway show "Dreamgirls" at the West Las Vegas Library

Theater. Using only the money in their pocket, facing ever decreasing funds and working on a timeline of just three months, Broadway in the Hood co-founders Torrey Russel and Preston Coghill struggle to turn a group of local amateur performers into a finely-tuned professional theater company. Driven by their unyielding passion for their mission — to bring high-quality musical theater for free to communities who might not otherwise have access — at the end of the journey, the cast and crew of the Broadway in the Hood production of "Dreamgirls" will have changed lives and brought audiences to their feet.

Great Performances: Movies for Grownups Awards 2019 with AARP The Magazine

Friday, February 15 at 9 p.m.

Broadcast and streamed for the first time, the 17th Annual Movies for Grownups® Awards celebrates 2017's standout films with unique appeal to movie lovers with a grownup state of mind and recognizes the inspiring artists who make them. The special features a moving tribute to Career Achievement honoree Helen Mirren. The show also includes Mark Hamill and Kelly Marie Tran presenting director Rian Johnson with Best Picture/Best Movies for Grownups honors for "Star Wars: The Last Jedi;" Ben Mendelsohn presenting Gary Oldman with the Best Actor award for his role as Winston Churchill in "Darkest Hour;" and Alfre Woodard presenting Best Actress honors to Annette Bening for her role in "Film Stars Don't Die in Liverpool." Shirley MacLaine will receive the Movies for Grownups career achievement award.

Set in a mining camp during the California Gold Rush, saloon owner Minnie has her sights set on the mysterious Dick Johnson, and nothing — not horses, hangmen, nor a high-stakes poker game — can keep her from finding true love.

Deborah Voigt sings the title role of Minnie in Giancarlo Del Monaco's 1991 production, with Marcello Giordani as Dick Johnson (the disguised bandit Ramerrez) and Lucio Gallo as the villainous sheriff Jack Rance. San Francisco Opera Music Director Nicola Luisotti conducts the work, which the composer told The New York Times in 1910 he considered "the best of [his] operas."

A Message from the Educational Media Services Director

American Graduate: Getting to Work

Niki Bates
Vegas PBS
Educational Media
Services Director

The American Graduate initiative is public media's long-term commitment, made possible by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB), to help young people succeed in school, career and life. Each year since American Graduate was launched in 2011, the high school graduation rate has risen and in 2016 reached a record 84.1 percent nationally. However, while the high school diploma is a key launching point into a student's future success, it is not the final destination. As such, in January 2018, CPB embarked on the next phase of the initiative, American Graduate: Getting to Work, with a focus on school and business partnerships to help prepare students with the skill sets and training necessary to be part of the work force needed in high-demand fields.

Vegas PBS is a proud partner with CPB to ensure our local community receives the benefits of such initiatives and has produced a series of interviews with students who are on the path to earning skilled jobs through Career and Technical Education programs. Students discuss the importance of refining the soft skills of interviewing, gaining experience that leads to a career and finding careers aligned with personal interests. Partners have clearly indicated the need not only to focus on in-demand career pipelines, but also to focus on the soft skills needed to be successful. Vegas PBS has also aired two special episodes of its public affairs show, Nevada Week, focusing on developing a middle-skills labor force in Nevada that included panelists from six community partners. Employer interviews and hands-on segments, showing our audience real-world experiences in the workforce will also air.

Additionally, Vegas PBS has implemented an online career pathway course initiative for high school students in partnership with the Clark County School District's Nevada Learning Academy. High school students are able to enroll in online Information Technology, Health Science, and Business Management career pathway courses. Vegas PBS also works closely with the Clark County School District to offer middle skills career fairs to support the educational community and provide assistance with critical labor shortages.

The American Graduate: Getting to Work initiative is another way that Vegas PBS is responsive to community needs and began this work by conducting local needs assessments so that program delivery is responsive to community priorities. The station will continue to curate content that will build awareness and dialogue through broadcast, social channels and in-person community-based events. Vegas PBS is helping to increase the alignment between schools, continuing education entities, businesses and community partner networks so that our young people have greater access to resources needed to pursue the high-demand careers available today and in the future.

Children's Lineup

Pinkalicious & Peterrific Weekdays, February 11-15 at 10:30 a.m.

This fun and imaginative series premieres four all-new episodes to celebrate the most Pinkastastic holiday of all! Airing on February 11 and 14 is a special Valentine's Day story, Pink Love. When her Valentines are accidentally destroyed, Pinkalicious must come up with a creative solution. Pinkalicious and her unicorn friend Goldilicious compete in an imaginary race.

Pinkalicious imagines creative possibilities everywhere she looks. She is an artist at heart — and, like most creative people, she sees the world differently from others. She knows what she likes and delights in expressing herself, joined by her younger brother Peter. Designed for children ages 3–5, the series encourages kids to engage in the creative arts and self-expression, covering areas such as music, dance and visual arts.

Robin Williams Remembered: A Pioneers of Television Special

Friday, February 15 at 11 p.m.

This touching special features Williams' last full-length television interview, including footage of his comments on life and work, tributes by those who knew and worked with him closely in all phases of his career, and clips from iconic moments throughout his career. Williams shares stories about his first stand-up act, his desire to be a serious dramatic actor and his tireless efforts to entertain U.S. troops overseas. The program also includes an exclusive interview with Williams' former “Mork & Mindy” co-star Pam Dawber, who shares her memories of working with him. Dawber was the actor who worked most closely with Robin Williams, and for the longest stretch — more than four years. The two remained friends long after the show's end and had spoken just a few weeks before his death.

Charley Pride: I'm Just Me: American Masters

Friday, February 22 at 9 p.m.

Charley Pride stands as a symbol of hope and an example of the ways that music can influence societal change. He arrived in Nashville in 1963, a year in which the Tennessee capital was the site of sit-ins and racial violence. Two years later, he was a recording artist on a major label, and in short time he became a superstar whose path would lead him to a Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award and a place in the Country Music Hall of Fame. Charley Pride's story is a lesson in the ways that art and expression can triumph over prejudice and defeat injustice. Raised as less than a citizen in brutally segregated Mississippi, Charley Pride's buttery voice and steely resolve helped him to a place as one of the world's most impactful musical artists.

In Their Own Words: Muhammad Ali

Sunday, February 24 at 12:30 p.m.

Muhammad Ali (1942-2016) was an American former heavyweight champion boxer and one of the greatest sporting figures of the 20th century. An Olympic gold medalist, he was the first fighter to capture the heavyweight title three times. This special follows Ali's rise from Louisville, Kentucky, to international fame, as key events unfolded in Ali's life. These events include his stunning conversion to Islam and his change of name, his dramatic stand against the Vietnam-era draft, his three-year exile from the ring, his legendary comeback fights, his courageous battle with Parkinson's disease and his inspirational reemergence on the world stage at the 1996 Atlanta Olympics.

Won't You Be My Neighbor

Wednesday, February 6 at 9 p.m.

From Academy Award-winning filmmaker Morgan Neville (“20 Feet from Stardom”), this nostalgic special takes an intimate look at America’s favorite neighbor: Mister Fred Rogers. A portrait of a man whom we all think we know, this emotional and moving film takes us beyond the zip-up cardigans and the land of make-believe and into the heart of a creative genius who inspired generations of children with compassion and limitless imagination. His landmark series could gently delve into important subjects no other children’s show would have dared for that time. Through interviews of his family and colleagues, the life of this would-be pastor is explored as a man who found a more important calling to provide an oasis for children in a video sea of violent bombardment.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Nature: Wild Way of the Vikings

Wednesday, February 13 at 8 p.m.

Experience the natural world through the eyes of the Vikings, when nature meets history in a journey showcasing the wildlife of the North Atlantic. Combining natural history filmmaking and dramatic recreations, this special travels from Norway to Newfoundland, just as the seafaring warriors did in 1,000 A.D., to get a glimpse of the Vikings' world in the Americas hundreds of years before Columbus. Experience the deep history and cultural respect the Vikings had with the land and sea. Go back to the age where Vikings ruled the northern seas, when their only compass was the birds in the sky and the whales pushing through the icy waters. Ewan McGregor narrates.

Midsomer Murders Season 14 - New!

Saturday, February 16 at 7:30 p.m.

Set in the deceptively idyllic fictional English county of Midsomer, the suspenseful drama features an eccentric cast of characters, ubiquitous red herons and quaint countryside scenery. In an all-new season 14, there is a new policeman in town as DCI John Barnaby (Neil Dudgeon) joins DS Benjamin Jones (Jason Hughes). The two investigate the scandals and deadly deeds that lurk just beneath the well-manicured surface of Midsomer. In the season premier, new DCI Barnaby is bemused by the quaint villages and their quirky residents. But when a local DJ is crushed to death at a traditional girls' boarding school, Barnaby soon discovers that murder and deception are never far away. As the death toll rises, could his first case also be his last?

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Sammy Davis, Jr.: I've Gotta Be Me: American Masters

Tuesday, February 19 at 9 p.m.

Sammy Davis Jr. had the kind of career that was indisputably legendary, yet his life was complex, complicated and contradictory. Davis strove to achieve the American Dream in a time of racial prejudice and shifting political territory. He was the veteran of increasingly outdated show business traditions trying to stay relevant; he frequently found himself bracketed by the bigotry of White America and the distaste of Black America. Featuring new interviews with such luminaries as Billy Crystal, Norman Lear, Jerry Lewis, Whoopi Goldberg and Kim Novak, this special explores the life and art of a uniquely gifted entertainer whose trajectory blazed across the major flashpoints of American society from the Depression through the 1980s. Repeats Friday, February 22 at 10 p.m.

Sammy Davis, Jr.

Antiques Roadshow: Hotel Del Coronado

Monday, February 18 at 8 p.m.

Opening in February 1888, this legendary hotel near San Diego debuted as an architectural masterpiece, acclaimed for its spectacular seaside setting and world-famous weather. Now designated a National Historic Landmark, the stunning hotel was a destination resort before the term existed, attracting a wealthy clientele from around the world. Check in with us this week and discover such finds as a 1962 Baldessari oil "Sign for Rothko & Albers," a Fortuny Delphos gown and a "Kitchen Debate" table with a signed Nixon photo. Which is $90,000? Repeats Saturday, February 23 at 4 p.m.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Holly Near: American Masters

Friday, March 1 at 9 p.m.

Experience the power of song in the struggle for equality through the story of feminist singer and activist Holly Near. Holly is a unique combination of entertainer, teacher and activist. Starting in the early 1970s, she promoted a variety of left-wing political causes with music that touched on folk, rock and the musical theater. She began her work against the Vietnam War and for the last 40 years has worked on global social justice coalition-building in the women's and lesbian movements.

FRONTLINE: Right to Fail

Tuesday, February 26 at 10 p.m.

After decades in institutions, a man with schizophrenia faces violence and death after the court mandates that he live on his own. In collaboration with ProPublica, this special investigates a court-ordered effort to move those with serious mental illness into independent living. FRONTLINE is the flagship investigative journalism program of the Public Broadcasting Service (PBS), producing award-winning in-depth documentaries since 1983.

Nazi Mega Weapons Season 1 Marathon

Sunday, February 10 from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Plotting leaders

This revealing series recounts Germany's engagement in World War II from a unique perspective, recounting the engineering feats that sparked a technological revolution and changed warfare forever. Discover the engineering secrets of iconic megastructures and learn the stories of the engineers who designed them. Airing back-to-back, the series details the design and building of six powerful mega weapons: Learn about a great fortification project of the 20th century, Hitler's Atlantic Wall; uncover how Nazis built impenetrable submarine pens to protect U-boats from Allied attacks; see how von Braun heralded the birth of ballistic missiles; discover how Nazi engineers created super-heavy tanks; explore the most technologically advanced plane of World War II, the Messerschmitt Me262; and learn why Berlin was turned into a fortress during the final days of the Third Reich.

P.O.V.: Minding the Gap

Wednesday, February 20 at 10 p.m.

Meet three young men who bond together to escape volatile families in their Rust Belt hometown. Through a shared love of skateboarding, this special takes an intimate look into friendships and the resulting bonds that are as strong as any between members of a conventional family. The captivating coming-of-age story tackles topics like domestic violence, relationships and masculinity, all while its three central subjects approach adulthood. As they face adult responsibilities, unexpected revelations threaten their decade-long friendship. A critical hit, the film has won numerous awards, including the U.S. Documentary Special Jury Award for Breakthrough Filmmaking at the 2018 Sundance Film Festival. In an exploration of what it means to become a man, this film is a revelatory, heart-breaking and hopeful story that opens a much-needed discussion about experiences usually kept in the shadows.

Richard M. Sherman: Songs of a Lifetime

Thursday, February 21 at 11 p.m.

This Emmy® Award-nominated special celebrates the legendary Disney songwriter Richard M. Sherman, whom with his brother Robert, composed some of the most beloved songs of all time. Richard is joined by a brilliant cast of performers, including the star of Broadway's "Mary Poppins" Ashley Brown, as well as Juliana Hansen, Wesley Alfvén and The Dapper Dans of Disneyland. They perform classic songs from "Mary Poppins," "Jungle Book," "Winnie the Pooh," "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang" and more, composed by Sherman.

Blue Eyes

Sundays at 8 p.m.

This taut, contemporary Swedish thriller echoes "House of Cards" as it explores the European political upheaval currently underway. Sweden is preparing its general elections when right-wing politician Annika Nilsson (51) is murdered. Her daughter is convinced that immigrants killed her mother. In her hunt for scapegoats, she comes across a violent, extreme-right movement, which is carrying out attacks against Swedish society. If all goes according to plan, their actions will culminate in a spectacular bombing of the Stockholm Stock Exchange. Meanwhile, in the Ministry of Justice, Elin Hammar becomes aware that something is wrong in the department. Not only are important documents missing, but her predecessor also disappeared under mysterious circumstances. In Swedish with English subtitles. Repeats same days at 11 p.m.

Why We Support Vegas PBS...

Research shows hands-on, interactive learning experiences and imaginative play in informal settings help reinforce what our children learn in school. DISCOVERY Children's Museum and Vegas PBS help children develop essential foundational skills and ignite a passion for discovery and lifelong learning in unique and innovative ways. It is important to DISCOVERY Children's Museum that parents are provided educational content they can trust in a space that is safe and respects the amazing journey of childhood. Vegas PBS does all of this with its award-winning PBS KIDS programming. Southern Nevada children and families are stronger because we work together and support Vegas PBS.

How Do You ? Become a Sponsor ?

When you support quality Vegas PBS programming, you're helping build a stronger and healthier community. Simply select from favorite evening programs or underwrite a daytime show that children enjoy. We'll do the rest. While our programming value is high, its price is low. For information on how to sponsor Vegas PBS programming, contact Bruce Spotleson at bspotleson@VegasPBS.org.
