Building and Engaging Audiences through the Arts

egas PBS' performing and visual arts programs have such large audiences that we should be considered Nevada's Largest Stage. It is a remarkably inclusive audience that includes traditional arts fans; local musicians, dancers and technicians; seniors who have limited mobility; and children who are enjoying new art forms for the first time. Your membership gifts make the arts available to everyone in our community and build audiences for the live performance experiences that help drive our economy.

This month, we are offering exquisite artistic experiences with insights into the greatest film and TV performers of our time. On Great Performances, Fridays at 9 p.m., take a front row seat in the virtual theater featuring "Broadway's Best" with 42nd Street (November 1), Rodgers & Hammerstein's The King and I (November 8), Red (November 15), Much Ado About Nothing (November 22) and Kinky Boots (November 29). On November 26 at 11 p.m. on Rothko: American Masters, explore the life of the celebrated artist whose luminous color field paintings helped define the abstract art movement. Variety Studio: Actors on Actors, airing Sunday, November 17 at 6:30 p.m. and Friday, November 22 at 11:30 p.m., reviews the biggest film and television moments of the past year through candid conversations between today's top box office actors.

The arts are also an important tool in our early childhood education efforts. The children's series Pinkalicious & Peterrific is designed to encourage preschool-aged children to explore the arts and develop their creativity. The PBS KIDS website and mobile apps for this and other children's programs extensively incorporate the arts to stimulate reading, STEM and other topics. Additionally, our Ready To Learn events offered music-themed workshops that over 150 people attended last month alone.

Vegas PBS also engages with adult learners wishing to extend programming experiences. Our history, travel and nature programs offer a window to the world, taking viewers on amazing journeys to remarkable places. On Sunday, November 3 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., we will explore the art and architecture of the Great Estates Scotland. This fourpart series takes an in-depth look at some of Scotland's most magnificent country estates. We are excited to announce the opportunity to join other Vegas PBS members on a trip to Scotland. The seven-day, six night Best of Scotland Land Tour will visit Edinburgh, the Scottish Highlands and Glasgow. The trip departs October 4, 2020, and returns October 10. To learn more, visit VegasPBS.org/tickets.

Also in November, in celebration of Native American Heritage Month, we are airing a special four-part history series, Native America, which uses new archeological evidence to rewrite the history of the Americas before and after contact with Europe. The series airs on Wednesday and Thursday, November 27 and 28 from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

This Thanksgiving, we say thank you to you – our generous supporters who make these experiences and discoveries possible with your generous donations to Vegas PBS. Enjoy the programming you make possible this month and have a very happy Thanksgiving.

Bringing You Broadway's Best!

Fridays at 9 p.m.

We have an exciting month in store for you featuring the Great White Way's brightest stars! Great Performances returns with its third annual "Broadway's Best" lineup of Tony Awardwinning theatrical productions. You can enjoy all the glitter and thrills of Broadway from the comfort of your living room chair. With acclaimed musicals, comedy and drama, there is no better place to be on Friday evenings than with Vegas PBS!

42nd Street November 1

The 1981 Tony Award winner for Best Musical is the song and dance, American dream fable of Broadway, featuring the iconic songs "42nd Street," "We're in the Money," "Lullaby of Broadway," "Shuffle Off to Buffalo," "I Only Have Eyes For You" and many more. This all-singing and all-tapping musical extravaganza includes a cast of nearly 60 people.

Young Peggy Sawyer is fresh off the bus from small-town America and just another face in the chorus line on Broadway's newest show. But when the leading lady gets injured, Peggy just might have the shot at the top she's always dreamed of. Starring Bonnie Langford as Broadway diva Dorothy Brock alongside Tom Lister as the demanding director Julian Marsh, Clare Halse as the ingénue Peggy Sawyer and Philip Bertioli as Billy Lawlor.

Rodgers & Hammerstein's The King and I November 8

Lincoln Center Theater's critically acclaimed 2015 production of Rodgers & Hammerstein's classic 1951 musical directed by Bartlett Sher ("South Pacific") went on to win the Tony Award for Best Musical Revival. Based on a true story, the year is 1862, and East and West collide when British schoolteacher Anna Leonowens arrives in Siam (modern-day Thailand) to take up her post instructing the royal household of children from the King's several wives. Despite her sharp wit and strong will, nothing has prepared Anna for the lessons this rich and complicated new land has to teach her — or for the powerful connection she will forge with its imperious but conflicted King.

The score features a treasure trove of timeless hits including "I Whistle a Happy Tune," "We Kiss in a Shadow," "Getting to Know You," "Something Wonderful," "I Have Dreamed" and "Shall We Dance." The production was recorded during its 2018 run in London's West End with original Lincoln Center Theater cast members Ken Watanabe as the King and Kelli O'Hara in her Tony-winning performance as Mrs. Anna, along with Ruthie Ann Miles as "head wife" Lady Thiang, who won the 2015 Tony Award for Best Featured Actress in a musical.

Red November 15

Award-winning stage and screen actor Alfred Molina reprises his critically acclaimed performance as the American abstract expressionist painter Mark Rothko in playwright John Logan's Tony Award-winning 2010 play. Under the watchful gaze of his young assistant - and the growing competitive presence of a new generation of artists - Rothko takes on his greatest career challenge yet: to create a definitive series of paintings for the Philip Johnson-designed Four Seasons restaurant in architect Mies van der Rohe's iconic Seagram Building. Molina is joined by rising star Alfred Enoch ("How to Get Away with Murder") as Rothko's assistant Ken.

Learn more about the life of the celebrated artist with Rothko: American Masters, following at 11 p.m. His luminous color field paintings helped define the abstract expressionist movement, which shifted the art world epicenter from Paris to New York.

Much Ado About Nothing November 22

This bold interpretation of Shakespeare's comedic masterpiece features Danielle Brooks ("Orange is the New Black," Broadway's "The Color Purple") and Grantham Coleman (Broadway's upcoming "The Great Society") as the sparring lovers Beatrice and Benedick. Tony Award winner Kenny Leon ("A Raisin in the Sun") directs, with choreography by Tony Award nominee Camille A. Brown ("Choir Boy").

Set in contemporary Georgia with an election race underway, the play finds the community of Messina celebrating a break from an ongoing war, but not all is peaceful amid the merriment. Former rivals battle it out, revenge is sought and trickery runs amok in this timeless comedy of romantic retribution and miscommunication.

Kinky Boots November 29

This 2013 Broadway blockbuster boasts music and lyrics by pop icon Cyndi Lauper, a book by Tony-winning theater legend Harvey Fierstein, and direction and choreography by Tony winner Jerry Mitchell ("La Cage aux

44 ... Molina reprises his critically acclaimed performance as the American abstract expressionist painter Mark Rothko..."

Folles") that went on to pick up every major Best Musical award, including the Tony, the GRAMMY® and London's Olivier Award®. Based on true events, this big-hearted hit tells the story of two people with nothing in common - or so they think.

Charlie is a British shoe factory owner struggling to save his family business. Lola originally known as Simon from Clapton — is a fabulous nightclub entertainer with a wildly exciting idea. With a little compassion and a lot of understanding, this unexpected duo learns to embrace their differences and create a line of sturdy, stiletto-heeled boots for an entirely new clientele. But in the end, their most meaningful achievement is their friendship. This London production features its original West End stars: Matt Henry in his Olivierwinning performance as Lola and Killian Donnelly as Charlie.

Variety Studio: Actors on Actors

Go inside the biggest television programs of the year through candid conversations between today's most acclaimed actors as they engage in one-on-one discussions about their craft and work.

Sunday, November 17 at 6:30 p.m.

This episode features Billy Porter ("Pose") with Rachel Brosnahan ("Marvelous Mrs. Maisel"), Sarah Paulson ("American Horror Story: Apocalypse") with Tracee Ellis Ross ("Black-ish") and Natasha Lyonne ("Russian Doll") with Maya Rudolph ("Forever").

Sunday, November 17 at 10:30 p.m.

Julia Roberts ("Homecoming") converses with Patricia Arquette ("Escape from Dannemora"), Amy Adams ("Sharp Objects") with Richard Madden ("The Bodyguard") and Taraji P. Henson ("Empire") with Ellen Pompeo ("Grey's Anatomy").

Friday, November 22 at 11:30 p.m.

This episode teams Michael Douglas ("The Kominsky Method") with Benicio Del Toro ("Escape from Dannemora"), Emilia Clarke ("Game of Thrones") with Regina Hall ("Black Monday") and Sam Rockwell ("Fosse/ Verdon") with Renee Zellweger ("What/If").

In Honor of Native American Heritage Month

Native America

Wednesday and Thursday, November 27 and 28 at 3:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Weaving history and science with living Indigenous traditions, this four-part series brings to life a land of massive cities connected by social networks spanning two continents, with unique and sophisticated systems of science, art and writing. Made with the active participation of Native American communities and filmed in some of the most spectacular locations in the hemisphere, the program illuminates the splendor of a past whose story has for too long remained untold.

Recent discoveries informed by Native American oral histories have led to a bold new perspective on North and South America ancient people shared a foundational belief system with a diversity of cultural expressions. This and other research are leading to revelations that will forever change how we understand Native America.

Warrior Tradition Monday, November 11 at 9 p.m.

Learn the heartbreaking, inspiring and largely untold story of Native Americans in the United States military. This film relates the stories of Native American warriors from their own points of view — stories of service, pain, courage and fear. Please see page 27 for

N. Scott Momaday: American Masters

Monday, November 18 at 10 p.m.

N. Scott Momaday was born in Lawton, Oklahoma, to a father of Kiowa Indian heritage and a mother of European and Cherokee heritage and spent much of his childhood on reservations in the Southwest. As a writer, teacher, artist and storyteller, Momaday has devoted much of his life to safeguarding oral tradition and other aspects of Native American culture. This special delves into the enigmatic life and mind of the Pulitzer Prize®-winning author and poet, best known for "House Made of Dawn" and a formative voice of the Native American Renaissance in art and literature.

Independent Lens: Conscience Point

Sunday, November 24 at 11 p.m.

In Long Island's Hamptons, one of the wealthiest areas in the nation and an epicenter of the luxury property boom, a clash of values is taking place. Members of the Shinnecock Indian Nation — the original inhabitants of the peninsula - find themselves squeezed onto a tiny, impoverished reservation. Over hundreds of years, the Shinnecock have seen their ancient burial grounds plowed up for the widening of roads, golf courses and new mega-mansions.

Long-simmering tensions come to a head in the summer of 2018, when the U.S. Open golf tournament unfolds at the ultra-exclusive Shinnecock Hills Golf Club, As thousands descend, Rebecca Hill-Genia, a Shinnecock activist, wants the throngs of visitors to understand one thing: the world-renowned golf course's celebrated slopes and sand traps were literally carved out of a sacred Shinnecock burial ground. Featuring interviews with a cross-section of Hamptons residents, including Shinnecock Nation leaders, Town of Southampton officials, developers, farmers and baymen, the film follows Rebecca as she tirelessly speaks out at town meetings and fights against overdevelopment.

Navajo Math Circles Tuesday, November 19 at 3:30 a.m.

This program follows Navajo students in collaboration with mathematicians. Using a model called math circles, the students stay late after school and assemble over the summer at Dine College in Tsaile, Arizona, to study mathematics. The math circles approach emphasizes student-centered learning by putting children in charge of exploring mathematics to their own joy and satisfaction.

We finish up Season 2, then proceed through Season 3 to the beginning of Season 4. Spend Sunday afternoons with us as we continue to air this blockbuster series in its entirety. Relive once again the lives of the Granthams and their family of servants, through sweeping change, scandals, love, ambition, heartbreak and hope.

Press on Masterpiece Concluding November 10 at 10 p.m.

Set in the world of newspapers in London — its past riven by hacking scandals, its present at the mercy of the digital age and the 24hour news cycle, its future uncertain — this razor sharp and observant drama explores the current, turbulent media landscape and the ethical dilemmas that journalists and editors face each day.

The Chaperone on Masterpiece

November 24 at 9 p.m.

Journey from Kansas to New York City in this Jazz Age drama that reunites Downton Abbey screenwriter Julian Fellowes and actress Elizabeth McGovern. The special is based on Laura Moriarty's best-selling novel, telling the fictionalized backstory of real-life silent-screen star and 1920s sex symbol, Louise Brooks (Haley Lu Richardson).

The story begins in 1922, when Brooks is a teenage modern-dance sensation in her hometown of Wichita, Kansas. Winning a place at the renowned Denishawn Dance Company in New York City, Louise requires a chaperone. Enter family friend, Norma (Elizabeth McGovern), a middle-aged woman who would never dream of breaking a rule. Once in New York, Louise pursues dance by day and forbidden pleasures by night (whenever she can sneak away from Norma), while the chaperone embarks on a personal mission: discovering exactly who she is. Years before, Norma was raised by nuns in a New York orphanage. then placed on a notorious "orphan train." Tracking down the orphanage, Norma asks for the records of her adoption but is refused. She then enlists the friendly caretaker to help her penetrate the mystery of her identity.

A Message from Vegas PBS' Content Director

Cyndy Robbins Content Director

Giving Thanks

n this season of giving thanks, I am humbled to be giving thanks to you - our members, whose support keeps Vegas PBS among the nation's most-watched PBS stations. For eleven consecutive years, Vegas PBS Channel 10 was ranked in the top 3 stations, this year coming in second, of those that receive overnight Nielsen ratings. Our two other measured channels also fared well, compared to other markets. Our Create channel was ranked 6th out of 19 measured Create channels and our VEGAS PBS KIDS channel ranked 2nd out of 21 measured PBS KIDS channels and grew by more than 33% last year compared to the previous year.

What helped make us so popular among viewers like you? On Channel 10, dramas were mostly to credit, but science, nature and our perennial specials were also among the most watched shows. The most popular shows in Southern Nevada were:

	Channel 10	Create	VEGAS PBS KIDS
1	Victoria on Masterpiece	Nigella: At My Table	Clifford the Big Red Dog
2	Midsomer Murders	Ask This Old House	Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood
3	Antiques Roadshow	Food Flirts	Odd Squad
4	Death in Paradise	Yan Can Cook: Spice Kingdom	Arthur
5	Nature	Rick Steves' Europe	WordGirl
6	A Capitol Fourth	The Woodwright's Shop	Sesame Street
7	Call the Midwife	America's Test Kitchen	Dinosaur Train
8	NOVA	Lidia's Italy	Peep and the Big Wide World
9	Rivers of Life	Cook's Country	Molly of Denali
10	National Memorial Day Concert	Rough Cut from Fine Woodworking	Caillou

Ranking based on Nielsen +7 ratings from the 2018-19 Television season (Sep 2018 - Sep 2019)

The fall season is when programmers like me from all across the country attend marketplaces where we preview new content for our channels and determine how we will each spend our local acquisition dollars, which allow us to customize our schedules, meeting the needs of each of our unique communities. Programs like Midsomer Murders and Death in Paradise fall into this category, and I am happy to report that new seasons will be available for us to purchase and schedule in the upcoming season. The new season of Death in Paradise has yet to be released, but the ninth season should be made available to us sometime in the winter of 2020 and will have eight brand new episodes. Another title likely to be added to our schedule in early 2020 is a 13-part comedy featuring John Cleese, Alison Steadman and Jason Watkins. It's titled Hold the Sunset and deals with a returning adult son who throws a wrench into his mother's dreams. Keep an eye out in future issues of this magazine for feature articles as these

Thank you for your financial support of Vegas PBS, which makes all this possible.

Xavier Riddle and the Secret Museum

This month we welcome an inspiring new animated series to both the Vegas PBS Channel 10 and the VEGAS PBS KIDS channel lineups! Xavier Riddle and the Secret Museum will premiere with a one-hour special on Monday, November 11 at 9 a.m. before settling in to its regular time slot weekdays at 9 a.m. on Channel 10. The series is inspired by Brad Meltzer and Chris Eliopoulos's best-selling kids book series, "Ordinary People Change the World."

The new series follows the adventures of Xavier Riddle, his sister Yadina and their friend Brad as they meet real life heroes from the past — from Eleanor Roosevelt to Leonardo da Vinci. Watch as these heroes demonstrate their resilience in the face of adversity and perseverance toward their goals, proving that anyone can do remarkable things, and that kids can learn to be their own heroes of the present!

Please note that the addition of a new series will cause some programming changes beginning November 11.

In observance of National Alzheimer's Awareness Month, this special recognizes the efforts that are being made to make Las Vegas a modern medical destination for fighting against terrible diseases. A cutting-edge brain health facility is luring experts, medical professionals and patients seeking life-saving solutions. Larry Ruvo spearheaded the creation of the Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health, a testament of his love for his father, Larry Ruvo. He hopes to spare others the suffering his family endured as they sought answers, care and treatment for Alzheimer's disease not available in Las Vegas at the time.

Warrior Tradition

Monday, November 11 at 9 p.m.

Learn the heartbreaking, inspiring and largely untold story of Native Americans in the United States military. During World War I, not all Native Americans were even citizens of the United States, yet more than 12,000 Native men volunteered. Even in Vietnam, 90 percent of the 42,000 Native people who served were volunteers. More than a dozen Native American veterans appear in the film, having served in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force and Army National Guard. Hear the stories of these warriors from their own points of view – stories of service and pain, of courage and fear. They each have their own reasons for having served and how the warrior tradition played a role in their lives.

Classic Christmas (My Music)

Saturday, November 16 at 7 p.m.

There's nothing more joyful and heartwarming than the familiar songs of the Yuletide season. Old-fashioned favorites celebrated through the generations performed by legendary artists are featured in this nostalgic new special hosted by Gavin MacLeod and Marion Ross. Enjoy carols ("Silent Night," "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing") as well as popular standards ("White Christmas," "Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas"), children's tunes ("Rudolph The Red-Nosed Reindeer," "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus") and romantic selections ("The Christmas Song," "Winter Wonderland," "Merry Christmas Darling"). Among the great artists featured in rare, archival footage from the 1950s through the 1970s are Bing Crosby, Perry Como, Judy Garland, Nat King Cole, The Carpenters, Andy Williams, Johnny Mathis, Gene Autry, Brenda Lee, Burl Ives, Mitzi Gaynor, The Beach Boys and The Lennon Sisters.

Sesame Street's 50th Anniversary

Sunday, November 17 at 7 p.m.

Come and celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the world's most iconic street with all our furry friends and some very special guests! To mark the special event, the whole neighborhood comes together to take a photo under the Sesame Street sign — but the sign is missing! While Elmo and friends search for the sign, Joe takes a look back at 50 years of Sesame Street memories, and everyone soon realizes that Sesame Street isn't just a sign or a street — it's a place where everybody is welcome, learning is fun, and all kinds of monsters, birds and humans come together to form lifelong friendships. Wondering how to get to Sesame Street? Don't worry, it's closer than you think.

FRONTLINE: For Sama

Tuesday, November 19 at 10 p.m.

One of the year's most critically acclaimed documentaries, this special is an intimate yet epic journey into one woman's experience of the Syrian war. Unfolding as a love letter from filmmaker and young mother Waad al-Kateab to her daughter, the film tells the story of Waad's life through five years of the uprising in rebel-held Aleppo, Syria. Waad falls in love, gets married and gives birth to Sama — all while filming the cataclysmic conflict raging around them. It is a time of almost unimaginable darkness. Hospitals are bombed, Aleppo is besieged by the Assad regime, and the remaining civilians witness attacks by chlorine gas, cluster and barrel bombs, and massacres of women and children. Amid the horror, baby Sama gives Waad the strength to endure: fighting for her dream of a free Syria.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

A Kansas woman finds her life forever changed when she accompanies a young dancer on her fame-seeking journey to New York City in this Jazz Age drama that reunites Downton Abbey screenwriter Julian Fellowes and actress Elizabeth McGovern. Louise Brooks, the 1920s silver screen sensation who never met a rule she didn't break, epitomized the restless, reckless spirit of the Jazz Age. But, just a few years earlier, she was a 15-year-old student in Wichita, Kansas. When the opportunity arises for Louise (Haley Lu Richardson) to go to New York to study with a leading dance troupe, Norma Carlisle (Elizabeth McGovern), a local society matron who never broke a rule in her life, impulsively volunteers to accompany her. It's a story about who these women really are, and who they eventually become.

College Behind Bars

Monday and Tuesday, November 25 and 26 at 9 p.m.

This documentary film series directed by awardwinning filmmaker Lynn Novick, executive produced by Ken Burns, tells the story of a small group of incarcerated men and women struggling to earn college degrees and turn their lives around in one of the most rigorous and effective prison education programs in the United States — the Bard Prison Initiative. The four-hour film takes viewers on a stark and intimate journey into one of the most pressing issues of our time — our failure to provide meaningful rehabilitation for the over two million Americans living behind bars. The film reveals the transformative power of higher education and puts a human face on America's criminal justice crisis.

Great Estates of Scotland

Sunday, November 3 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Visit Scotland ith Vegas PBS See Pg. 14

Take an in-depth look at the fascinating stories and inner workings of four of Scotland's most magnificent country estates, through the eyes of not only the current owners and the ghillies, gardeners and housekeepers that keep them running, but also from the viewpoint of the paying guests who frequent these sumptuous country estates. Airing back-to-back, the episodes include: Dumfries House - Boasting one of the largest collections of Chippendale furniture in the world; Kincardine Castle — The 70room castle and its 3,000-acre estate is home to only two people; Rosslyn Chapel — Many believe the mysterious Chapel to be home to the Holy Grail; and Inveraray Castle — For more than 500 years, Inveraray Castle has housed the Clan Campbell, and is now home to the 13th Duke of Argyll.

Three hundred sailors went down with her and the 900 survivors drifted for four and a half days, battling the sun, thirst and sharks. Ultimately, only 316 of them were pulled from the sea alive. Now the definitive story is told as we reconstruct the ship's heroic legacy, her final moments and the discovery of the wreck site.

Scramble the Seawolves at 11:30 a.m. From meager beginnings in 1967, the Seawolves would become the most decorated Squadron in the Vietnam War, arguably in all of Naval Aviation History. This is their story.

The Secret Life of Dogs

Sunday, November 17 from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The dog has been man's best friend and companion for ten thousand years. But how much do we really know about our four-legged friends and where they came from? Dogs are the most diverse species of mammal on the planet — there are an incredible 340 breeds each with their own distinctive appearance, character and super-power. The three-part series, aired back-to-back, gets under the fur of our most prized companions, from their superpower senses to their extraordinary behavior and unquestioning loyalty; but most of all this film really gets to grips with their relationship with us. Revealing spectacular new insights into the way dogs understand us, love us and in some cases, can dramatically save or enhance our lives, this film uncovers how the true success of their species is our mutually beneficial relationship.

In Their Own Words: Jim Henson

Sunday, November 24 at 9 a.m.

Follow Jim Henson's career as he transcended puppetry to become one of the most creative, prolific, and influential artists of his time. Witness key events unfold in his life, from his early television work with the Muppets and his commercial work in the late 1950s and early 1960s, to his breakthrough with "Sesame Street," "The Muppet Show," "Fraggle Rock" and his groundbreaking fantasy films "The Dark Crystal" and "Labyrinth." This will be followed at 10 a.m. by Sesame Street's 50th Anniversary. It's an event 50 years in the making as Sesame Street celebrates its 50th Anniversary. We're celebrating the world's most iconic street with all our furry friends and some very special guests including Joseph Gordon-Levitt, Patti LaBelle, Sterling K. Brown and many more! Wondering how to get to Sesame Street? Don't worry, it's closer than you think.

CREATE SPOTLIGHT

MAKE48 Season 3

Sundays and Wednesdays at 11:30 a.m. beginning November 10

This exciting competitive series immerses you in the product invention process from idea to store shelf. It all begins with 12 teams from 12 states competing in a real-life invention competition where they must brainstorm the best product idea within a given product category, make a prototype, and pitch it - all in just 48 hours. In the hands-on action, the invention showdown unfolds including brainstorming, designing and building their ideas in order to pitch their prototype to a team of expert judges. In the final episode, the inventors present the final design along with manufacturing and marketing plans at the National Hardware show right here in Las Vegas!

JACKPOT! SPOTLIGHT

The Interpreters: Independent Lens Sunday, November 17 at 9 p.m.

This is a poignant but tense portrayal of a very human and high-stakes side of war's aftermath, the story of how Afghan and Iraqi interpreters risked their lives aiding American troops — but then became the people we left behind. During the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, more than 50,000 local interpreters helped protect U.S. military forces on the ground, enabling them to communicate with the local population. But those who took the job were often considered traitors. In the aftermath of war, some have been able to leave their home countries and reach safety, while others still languish in hiding and fear for their lives. Filmed over the course of two years, the documentary follows three of these men, each of whom faces an impossible dilemma: remain in place and wait for paperwork that may never arrive or attempt a hazardous exit route to Europe. As the years go by. hope dwindles for the thousands of interpreters still seeking the protection they were promised for their sacrifice.

REWIND SPOTLIGHT

FRONTLINE: Kids Caught in the Crackdown

Thursday, November 14 at 10 p.m.

This special exposes the traumatic stories of migrant children detained under Trump's immigration policies. This investigation with The Associated Press uncovers the widespread consequences — and business — of the mass confinement of migrant children. The original broadcast airs on Vegas PBS Channel 10 on Tuesday, November 12 at 10 p.m.

WORLDVIEW SPOTLIGHT

Welcome to Hindafing Saturdays at 6 p.m. and 7 p.m.

You like the Coen Brothers? You like "House of Cards"? Then you might very well fall head over heels in love with this hilarious, Fargostyle look at the dark underbelly of Western civilization, Bavarian-style. Equal parts satire, drama and bawdy, clever comedy, the series tells the story of the rise and fall (mostly fall) of provincial mayor Alfons Zischl, Jr. (Maximilian Brückner) and the fictional town of Hindafing, a village so deep in the Bavarian backwoods that it doesn't even have its own Autobahn exit (yet). Its soccer team aspires to qualify for the ninth division next season, its nightlife is dominated by a truck stop and a beer hall and its biggest employer is a faux-organic slaughterhouse. Welcome, indeed. In German with English subtitles. Repeats same days at 9 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Why We Support Vegas PBS...

Egg Works and Egg & I, with six locations throughout the Las Vegas Valley, is committed to serving Eggs-cellent food with Egg-ceptional service. We pride ourselves in giving the best service and experience to our customers and employees. We also specialize in many unbelievable entrees from our country-style Breakfast and Brunch, offering a variety of skillets, omelets, crepes, pancakes, waffles, benedict, burgers, sandwiches, wraps, pizza and so much more. Our food truly speaks for itself.

We support Vegas PBS because they give the same exceptional service to our communities and focus on what's essential to our future: our families and children, education and job training. Their endless resources give those in need a chance to be successful and the confidence to thrive in our community. Together with Egg Works and Egg & I family restaurants, the goal is similar: to be trusted, add value and be an essential part of this community. Thank you Vegas PBS for all that you do!
