A Message from the General Manager

New Programs and Activities for Kids

For over 50 years, Vegas PBS has been dedicated to educating and inspiring the youngest generation of Southern Nevadans. Parents rate PBS KIDS the most educational media brand for children and Vegas PBS reaches more children in low-income homes than any other kids TV network. This reach extends to every ethnic sub group of elementary and pre-school-aged children.

Southern Nevadan children watch over 3.5 million hours of PBS KIDS programming each month and spend another 400,000 hours interacting with PBS KIDS online educational content. Vegas PBS KIDS 24/7 channel ranked the third most-watched PBS KIDS channel in 2018 Whole Day Gross Rating Points (GRP), among PBS affiliates who measure their PBS KIDS audience.

This month we are pleased to announce an all-new Channel 10 summertime kids schedule beginning Monday, July 15. The newest addition to our children's lineup is Molly of Denali, which airs weekdays at 8:30 a.m. The series is the first nationally distributed children's show to feature an Alaska Native lead character. Molly Mabray experiences adventures in beautiful Alaska with her dog Suki and friends Tooeey and Trini. Along the way, Molly's life is enhanced, kept on track and saved by maps, guidebooks, websites, weather reports and more. Molly of Denali is designed to help kids ages four to eight develop knowledge and skills for interacting with informational texts through video content, interactive games and real-world activities. The producers of Molly of Denali created the show in cooperation with Alaska Native advisors to ensure the show accurately represents their unique life and culture.

In addition to diverse cultural representation on television, Vegas PBS is making trusted educational resources available to local families and children in extensive community workshops. These school-readiness events include 15 free family engagement workshops, that will be held throughout the summer. The primary theme will be STEM with Ready, Jet, Go! In these workshops, five-to-eight-year-olds and their families blast off on an age-appropriate space adventure with Jet Propulsion and his Boxwood Terrance friends. The curriculum blends science inquiry and engineering design with imaginative play to maximize creativity and engagement.

Vegas PBS seeks to earn the trust of all parents and caregivers with programming that inspires and educates our younger audiences. The success of our children is essential to the success of our city and county. Vegas PBS' Ready To Learn's mission is to especially support young children from low-income families who need a strong foundation in early science and literacy.

Your generous gifts to Vegas PBS make it possible for us to provide the most trusted kids programming and services, to the families who need it most in our local community.

Exploring the Summer of Space with NOVA

Throughout July

NOVA: Black Hole Apocalypse

Wednesday, July 3 at 9 p.m.

NOVA: Black Hole Universe

Wednesday, July 3 at 10 p.m.

They are the most enigmatic and exotic objects in the universe: black holes. They're also the most powerful; their gravity is so strong it can actually capture light. And they're the most destructive, swallowing particles, dust, gas, planets, even giant stars. Anything that falls into them vanishes. But now, astrophysicists are coming to realize that black holes just might be integral to the structure of the universe — and our very existence. This two-part special explores the cutting-edge research that is helping to shed light on these shadowy monsters. Where do they come from? What's inside them? What happens if you fall into one? And what can they tell us about the nature of space, time and gravity?

Repeats Friday, July 5 from 2:30 – 4:30 p.m.

NOVA: Back to the Moon

Wednesday, July 10 at 8 p.m.

Fifty years after humans first set foot on the moon, new scientific discoveries are fueling excitement for a return to the lunar surface — this time, perhaps, to stay. But why go back? The moon can serve as a platform for basic astronomical research; as an abundant source of rare metals and hydrogen fuel; and ultimately as a stepping-stone for human missions to Mars and beyond. Join the next generation of engineers that aim to return us to the moon. Repeats Friday, July 12 at 2:30 p.m.

NOVA: Apollo's Daring Mission

Tuesday, July 16 at 10 p.m.

Apollo astronauts and engineers tell the inside story of Apollo 8, the first manned mission to the moon. The U.S. space program suffered a bitter setback when Apollo 1 ended in a deadly fire during a pre-launch run-through. In disarray, and threatened by the prospect of a Soviet Union victory in the space race, NASA decided upon a radical and risky change of plan: turn Apollo 8 from an earth-orbit mission into a daring sprint to the moon while relying on untried new technologies. Suddenly everything hinged on Apollo 8. Now Apollo 8 astronauts and engineers recount the feats of engineering that paved the way to the moon. Repeats Friday, July 19 at 2:30 p.m. and Sunday, July 21 at 9 a.m.

NOVA: The Planets

Among the stars in the night sky wander the eight-plus worlds of our own solar system — each home to truly awe-inspiring sights, each with a distinct personality and a unique story. This five-part series explores the awesome beauty of these extraordinary worlds. See page 29 for more details.

Inner Worlds

Wednesday, July 24 at 9 p.m.

The rocky planets — Mercury, Venus, Earth and Mars — were born of similar material around the same time, yet only one supports life. Were Earth's neighbors always so extreme? Is there somewhere else in the solar system where life might flourish? Repeats Friday, July 26 at 2:30 p.m.

Mars

Wednesday, July 24 at 10 p.m.

Mars was once a blue water world studded with active volcanoes. But when its magnetic field and protective atmosphere faded, it became the frozen desert planet we know today. With so many necessary elements in place, did life ever form on Mars? Repeats Friday, July 26 at 3:30 p.m.

Jupiter

Wednesday, July 31 at 9 p.m.

Jupiter's massive gravitational force made it a wrecking ball when it barreled through the early solar system. But it also shaped life on Earth, delivering comets laden with water — and perhaps even the fateful asteroid that wiped out the dinosaurs.

A close-up photograph of two young women smiling warmly at the camera. They are outdoors at night, with a dark blue sky and out-of-focus warm lights in the background. The woman on the right is holding a lit sparkler, which is bright and glowing. She is wearing a dark top with a floral pattern and denim overalls. The woman on the left is wearing a striped top. The overall mood is festive and joyful.

Nevada Week Gearing Up for Season 2

Fridays at 8 p.m. beginning July 12

The first season of Nevada Week is on the books, and we are looking forward to even more great things happening in an all-new second season beginning this month.

This series is unlike others on television. We have a unique approach and vision that provides a platform for public discussion and community engagement. There are many people in Nevada that perhaps are new residents to the state and would like to better understand their new community, or long-time residents that would like to become more knowledgeable and involved in local issues. Nevada Week meets those needs.

Rather than relying solely upon politicians or business leaders to discuss local issues, we also bring people to the table who have boots-on-the-ground experience with the topic at hand – volunteers, clients, victims, along with journalists and field experts who provide a wider level of perspective.

Nevada Week has two main goals. First, we want to bring a higher level of understanding and awareness of the issues that impact the people of Nevada. Second, we would like to increase the engagement of our viewers in the community. Our hope is that you walk away from the program understanding the issue better than you did before and knowing how you can be part of the effort. Either through Nevada Week's on-air discussions or featured on the Nevada Week website, each episode will provide resources, such as volunteer or victim/client opportunities, further research, elected officials to contact and organizations that support the effort.

In our first season, we covered a variety of topics, including government, education, healthcare and infrastructure, and we, along with our viewers, made an impact. For example, one week we discussed a Medicaid policy change that prompted the state to organize focus groups that resulted in a policy reversal. On another episode about payday lending, we explored debt repayments alternatives. Viewers used resources identified on that show to seek alternative lending services from a local credit union for payday loan repayments.

Whether the resources discussed on the show could benefit you or your friends and family, or you would like to become more involved by advocating with local government, volunteering with an organization featured on the show, or would just like to become better informed on the issues facing our community, Nevada Week has everything you need in one place.

EPISODES THIS MONTH:

JULY 12: Sex Trafficking: Corporate Advocacy – an inside look at how the nonprofit sector is working with the gaming/tourism industry to reduce illegal sex trafficking in Nevada.

JULY 19: Affordable Housing – a discussion on the growing challenge – and need – for affordable housing affecting larger segments of the low and middle-class populations.

JULY 26: Gender Equity: A Case Study of our Workforce – equal pay and equal leadership among males and females: where does Nevada stack up and how do we compare to other states on gender equity in business, politics and community?

Saturdays at 2:30 p.m. beginning July 20

What is more fun than firing up the grill with some friends for a backyard barbecue! Host Steven Raichlen will show you how as he returns for a sizzling Season 2. In a dynamic format that includes on-set guests and off-road field trips, innovators of live-fire cooking join Steven to share

“Featured this season are new grilling techniques, such as smoking with smoldering straw and grilling with ash...”

new techniques that elevate the backyard barbecue experience.

EPISODES THIS MONTH Grilling with Wood July 20

It's the world's most ancient grilling method, and to many, it remains the best. It's practiced on six continents by traditionalists and cutting-edge chefs alike. Propane offers convenience and charcoal burns hot, but the ultimate fuel for grilling is wood. Wood smoke contains more than a thousand flavor-producing compounds: it's the one fuel that delivers both heat and taste. From wood-grilled bruschetta with fire-blistered tomatoes to swordfish with raisin chimichurri and magisterial sear and slide beef tomahawks, today's show brings you the primal campfire pleasure of grilling over a wood fire.

Steven Raichlen

Brisket 24/7 July 27

Brisket is simultaneously the easiest and hardest meat to barbecue. Easy, because it requires only three ingredients: salt, pepper and wood smoke. Hard, because, unless you master the fire, airflow, temperature, the stall, the wrap and the rest, you wind up with a mouthful of misery. Today's show is all about brisket, complete with fail-proof methods for smoking it right every time. We'll smoke a not-so traditional Texas barbecue, a distinctive bacon-smoked brisket flat, and make an electrifying Vietnamese brisket salad. You'll even learn how to make breakfast-worthy Tex-Mex brisket tacos.

Big Pacific

Fridays at 9 p.m. concluding July 19

The Pacific Ocean covers one third of the Earth's surface. It is a place where huge and iconic, rare and dazzling creatures live — and where creatures yet to be discovered lurk. The Pacific sees the most violent storms, creates the most powerful waves, and is powered by the strongest currents. This series breaks the boundaries between land and sea, moving throughout the Pacific Ocean to present a broad range of locations, species, natural phenomena and behaviors.

Great Yellowstone Thaw

Fridays at 10 p.m. concluding July 12

From winter to summer, Yellowstone's temperature typically swings 140 degrees. Filmed from deep winter to early summer, this series intercuts the stories of several different animal families — including wolves, bison, grizzlies, beavers and great gray owls. The program follows the animals in the Yellowstone ecosystem as they emerge from winter's cold and adapt to an early spring thaw, before encountering the soaring summer temperatures.

Wonders of Mexico

Fridays at 11 p.m. concluding July 12

Mexico, our neighbor to the south, is a country rich in culture and ablaze with color. The diversity of life and a mosaic of vast landscapes create a festival of life. On July 5, visit the mountains that shape life and culture there. Discover black bears, fiery volcanoes, exquisite birds and millions of monarch butterflies. Then on July 12, journey across the deserts of Northern Mexico. From prairie dogs fighting snakes, bats hunting scorpions, and tiny owls living in giant cacti, its animals have found clever ways to survive against the odds.

Himalaya: Kingdoms of the Sky

Friday, July 19 at 10 p.m.

Discover the extraordinary wildlife and people of the Himalaya — the highest mountain range on earth. Bizarre snub-nosed monkeys live in frozen forests, Tibetan monks perform ancient rituals high in the mountains whilst snow leopards prowl the mountain sides.

Rockies: Kingdoms of the Sky

Friday, July 19 at 11 p.m.

The Rockies stretch 3,000 miles and is one of the great mountain ranges of the world. It is home to cougar, wolverine, wolves and grizzly. Daredevil wingsuit fliers jump from high peaks and Native Americans compete in breakneck horse races.

Great Continental Railway Journeys

Thursdays, July 18 and 25
from 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Join host Michael Portillo as he travels through Europe, following suggested itineraries from the 1913 travel guide Bradshaw's Continental Railway Guide and General Handbook. As he journeys across Italy, Finland, The Netherlands, Transylvania, Switzerland and North Africa, he stays in recommended hotels, explores the sights and samples local traditions. Combining the modern with the historic, Portillo also provides early 20th century context for the places he visits.

Innovations That Defined Our History

Tuesday, June 25 at 8 p.m.

Leonardo's Dream Machines Wednesday, July 3 at 3:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Five hundred years after the artist first committed his ideas to paper, contemporary experts attempt to build some of the fantastic machines envisioned by Leonardo da Vinci. Were Leonardo's ideas the flights of fancy of a gifted artist, or revolutionary designs hundreds of years ahead of their time? The first hour examines da Vinci's plans for both a giant crossbow, with arms nearly 70 feet across, and a glider that predated flight by 400 years.

Hour two concludes with the construction and testing of da Vinci's giant crossbow and glider.

The Statue of Liberty Thursday, July 4 at 3:30 p.m.

This Ken Burns film chronicles the creation and history of the Statue of Liberty and what it represents to all Americans. The film traces the development of the monument — from its conception, to its complicated and often controversial construction, to its final dedication — and offers interviews with a wide range of Americans to explore the meaning of the Statue of Liberty.

10 Parks That Changed America

Thursday, July 4 at 4:30 p.m.

This special highlights visionaries who transformed open canvases of land into serene spaces that offer city-dwellers a respite from the hustle and bustle of urban life. While European cities were traditionally defined by their private squares and royal hunting grounds, American cities were often built around these democratic, public spaces. From the elegant squares of Savannah, Georgia, to a park built over a freeway in Seattle, to the more recent High Line in New York, each story introduces us to the heroes who brought these parks to life.

A Message from the Host of Nevada Week

Nevada Week Gears Up for Season 2

Kipp Ortenburger
Host of Nevada Week

Nevada Week covered a lot of ground in its inaugural season; as did our state. We saw the first female majority elected to our state government, monumental changes to education spending and a multi-state agreement that will affect how — and how much — Nevada uses water. We saw the first anniversary of the Route 91 tragedy and the Vegas Golden Knights usher in a new era of Las Vegas pride, prosperity and recovery.

Nevada Week covered all of these areas and a lot more in a unique way. We gave these issues a voice and platform for public discussion. Sitting around our studio table on any given Nevada Week were field experts, business leaders, journalists, public officials, boots-on-the-ground workers, clients and victims having a conversation.

In an era where the trust in news and media is constantly challenged and questioned, our goal was — and is — to provide balanced but diverse perspectives. And in doing so, our viewers might gain a better awareness and understanding of the issues today that will drive the Nevada of tomorrow.

I took on the role of hosting Nevada Week after first having the privilege of developing this initial vision for the show with a team of my Vegas PBS colleagues. We wanted to develop a show that — much like Vegas PBS' mission — extends and amplifies television as a community and educational resource.

We are very excited as we get ready to launch Season 2 and further expand on this vision. In addition to our weekly show, we piloted several initiatives in Season 1 that will be expanded. We will host more community town halls and take deeper dives into some of the content presented on the show. We will launch in-field produced segments to provide further context to our conversations. And we'll be implementing a new series of digital content focused on personal stories, relevant news shorts and current events content for K-12 students.

In addition to bringing you a wide range of content covering Nevada's critical issues, we will also focus on the upcoming 2020 elections and bring you diverse perspectives on related state and national topics. We'll explore new areas such as art and culture in Nevada and delve more into the future of economic development in the Silver State. We will revisit main topics covered on Season 1 such as education, healthcare, sex exploitation and affordable housing — but with a more narrowed focus on emerging issues.

On behalf of our entire Nevada Week team, I thank you for your viewership and engagement, and we hope Nevada Week is a weekly resource for you as we move into Season 2.

“In addition to our weekly show, we piloted several initiatives in Season 1 that will be expanded.”

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

A Capitol Fourth 2019

Thursday, July 4 at 8 p.m.

Celebrate America's 243rd birthday with a musical extravaganza like no other, topped off by the most dazzling display of fireworks anywhere in the nation! The country's longest-running July 4 national broadcast tradition returns from the West Lawn of the U.S. Capitol, before a concert audience of hundreds of thousands, millions more at home, as well as to our troops serving around the world on the American Forces Network. Repeats same day at 10 p.m.

Space Chase USA (Summer of Space)

Tuesday, July 2 at 9 p.m.

This new special explores how the extraordinary events of the space race transformed the sleepy town of Cocoa Beach, Florida, during the 1950s and 60s. The residents found themselves caught up in the process as the exploration of the future and beyond arrived on their shores. In 1951, Cocoa Beach had its first stoplight installed, and over the next 10 years, the population grew by 1,000 percent. Cocoa Beach, Florida, lies 10 miles south of America's primary spaceport, the Kennedy Space Center. Through resident accounts, archival footage and home movies, the documentary provides a broader personal connection to an important time in Cocoa Beach's history.

Chasing the Moon: American Experience

Monday - Wednesday
July 8 - 10 at 9 p.m.

This fascinating series thoroughly reimagines the race to the moon for a new generation, upending much of the conventional mythology surrounding the effort. With a visual feast of previously lost or overlooked material, the film also features new interviews with a diverse cast of characters who played key roles in these historic events. While other documentaries have largely painted a familiar narrative of goals set, obstacles overcome and missions accomplished, this special tells a vastly more entertaining and surprising story. As the film reveals, the drive to land a man on the moon was fueled as much by politics as it was by technology and was a controversial undertaking during a volatile time. Repeats same days at 11 p.m. and on Wednesday - Friday, July 10-12 at 3:30 p.m. and Tuesdays, July 16-30 at 8 p.m.

Emilia Fox and David Caves

Silent Witness: Falling Angels

Saturday, July 13 at 10 p.m.

This British crime series focuses on a team of forensic pathologists and their investigations. Emilia Fox stars as Dr. Nikki Alexander, a skilled pathologist whose expertise in archaeology and anthropology are an asset in the search for justice. In this two-part episode, the team investigates a bizarre set of murders: a man who is pushed in front of a train on the London underground, a female vicar who is murdered in her bathroom by her husband and daughter, and a young builder murdered in an alleyway on his way home from work. The detective on these cases is confronted with flashbacks from his own father's murder. Part 2 airs on July 20 at 10 p.m.

Grantchester Season 4 on Masterpiece Sundays at 9 p.m. beginning July 14

This popular mystery series returns for an all-new fourth season, starring James Norton and Robson Green as the unlikely clergyman/cop duo fighting crime in the English hamlet of Grantchester in the 1950s. James Norton, who plays the charismatic, jazz-loving clergyman Sidney Chambers, makes his final appearance during the series. We then welcome the new vicar: Tom Brittney ("Outlander," "Call the Midwife") joins the cast as Reverend Will Davenport. Confident, caring and self-assured, Grantchester's new young parish priest channels his boundless energy into a quest for social justice. He is a man of God, but with the devil inside of him. As he is drawn into righting the wrongs of criminal Cambridge, Will's own troubled past is unearthed.

THIS WEEK'S PICKS

Depiction of Saturn

NOVA: The Planets

Wednesday, July 24 at 9 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Among the stars in the night sky wander the eight-plus worlds of our own solar system. Each of our celestial neighbors has a distinct personality and a unique story with awe-inspiring sights. This five-part series explores the awesome beauty of the planets, including Saturn's 175,000-mile-wide rings, Mars' ancient waterfalls four times the size of any found on Earth, and Neptune's winds — 12 times stronger than any hurricane felt on our planet. Using extraordinary footage captured by orbiters, landers and rovers, you will be treated to an up-close look at these faraway worlds. We'll stand on the dark side of Pluto, watch the sun set over an ancient Martian waterfall, and witness a storm twice the size of Earth from high above Saturn. And, we'll reveal how each of them has affected our own planet: Earth. These two episodes explore the inner worlds — Mercury, Venus, Earth and Mars. See page 12 for episode descriptions.

Nadia Murad

POV: On Her Shoulders

Monday, July 22 at 10 p.m.

Nadia Murad, a 23-year-old Yazidi, survived genocide and sexual slavery in 2014 when the Islamic State launched a brutal attack on her home village. Several hundred people were massacred, and girls and young women were abducted and held as sex slaves. After three harrowing months, Nadia managed to escape. She then won the Nobel Prize in 2018 for her work to end sexual violence as a weapon of war. Now thrust onto the international stage as the voice of her people, she must navigate bureaucracy, fame and people's good intentions.

Chasing the Moon: American Experience

Sunday, July 14 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Airing in back-to-back episodes, this new six-hour documentary upends much of the conventional mythology surrounding the effort. Using previously lost or overlooked archival material, the film also features new interviews with a diverse cast of characters who played key roles in these historic events. Among those included are astronauts Buzz Aldrin, Frank Borman and Bill

Anders; Freeman Dyson, the renowned futurist and theoretical physicist; Sergei Khrushchev, the son of former Soviet premier Nikita Khrushchev, who played a prominent role in the Soviet space program as a rocket engineer; Poppy Northcutt, the 25-year-old "mathematics whiz" who gained worldwide attention as the first woman to serve in the all-male bastion of NASA's Mission Control; and Ed Dwight, the Air Force pilot selected by the Kennedy administration to train as America's first black astronaut.

Secrets of the Dead: Galileo's Moon

Thursday, July 4 at 8 p.m.

When it was published in 1610, Galileo's "Sidereus Nuncius" (Starry Messenger) set in motion a scientific revolution. Using observations he made of both the Earth's moon and Jupiter's moons, Galileo proved Earth is not the center of the universe. Five hundred and fifty copies of the original treatise were originally printed and roughly 150 are known to exist today. When an original copy with Galileo's signature and seemingly original watercolor paintings of the phases of the moon believed to be done by Galileo himself came on the market in 2005, "Sidereus Nuncius" caused a worldwide sensation 400 years after its creation and again in 2012 when it was proved a fake. Original broadcast on Vegas PBS Channel 10 on Tuesday, July 2 at 8 p.m.

JACKPOT! SPOTLIGHT

F. S. Key: After the Song

Thursday, July 11 from 9 p.m. - Midnight

Airing back-to-back, this three-part series continues the story of Francis Scott Key's life and times after his writing of "The Star-Spangled Banner" that would become the national anthem in 1814. The series is a window into antebellum society and the attitudes and behavior of Americans on slavery that lead to Civil War and in some ways still exist to this day. Hour one starts a heartbeat after Jackson's battle of New Orleans and is a primer on early slavery. Hour two centers on Key's change in character, his involvement in the Jackson Administration and his transformation into a political operative. Then hour three shows how Key goes head-to-head with abolitionists' ideas — and loses.

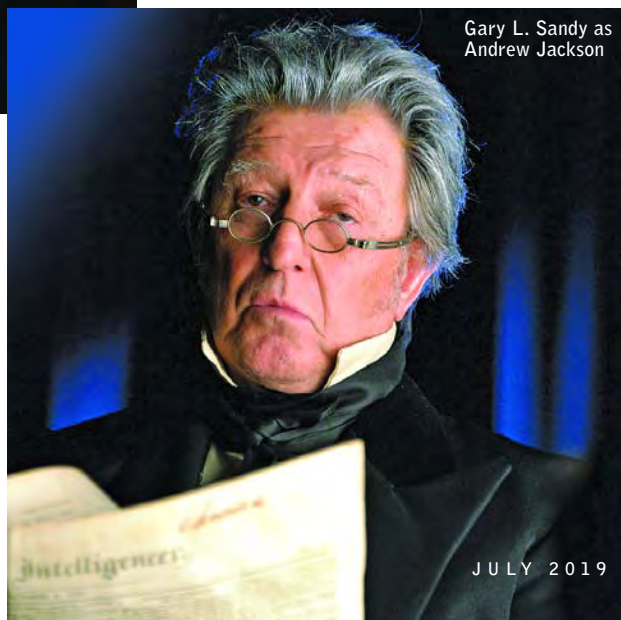

Mike Müller

WORLDVIEW SPOTLIGHT

The Undertaker

Tuesdays from 6 p.m. - 9 p.m.

Airing three episodes each Tuesday, actor and comedian Mike Müller stars as Luc Conrad, a former police detective turned funeral home director whose investigative instincts always seem to get the better of him. These days his job is to comfort and console the bereaved, but as soon as Luc starts to suspect foul play, his inner sleuth takes over and so do the headaches for his on-again/off-again girlfriend, police inspector Anna-Maria Giovanoli. Filmed in breathtakingly beautiful Switzerland, the series serves up equal helpings of sinister mystery, quirky comedy and heartfelt drama. Luc and his friends make sure that no murder goes unsolved and that anyone entrusted to their care definitely leaves as a good-looking corpse. In German with English subtitles. Repeats same days from 9 p.m. - midnight.

Why I Support Vegas PBS...

Jacobi

"Jacobi's Men's Fashions has been a family-owned staple for high-quality menswear in Las Vegas since 1993. Through years of watching our city grow, we maintain the same appreciation in calling Las Vegas home. When given the opportunity to provide wardrobe support to Vegas PBS for their public affairs show, we were excited to join the Vegas PBS family. That excitement only increased after watching Nevada Week and meeting the host, Kipp Ortenburger, as it was apparent we all share a common goal of bettering our community. Aside from elevating our neighbors with the confidence of a newly fitted suit, Jacobi also offers sermons and meals to people without homes every week outside our storefront. Showing value, appreciation and aid to another human being can be life changing, as seen time and again through our services. We hold integrity in our work, care in our clothing and pride in being a supporter of Nevada Week and Vegas PBS."
