A Message from

Margaret Ann Schneweis, Member Services Manager

Grateful for Vegas PBS Members

This holiday season, in an unprecedented year, I am feeling incredibly grateful for Vegas PBS members. I want to thank you for your continued support. We know it's been a difficult year, and many Southern Nevadans are having to make hard financial choices — your generosity sends a clear message that you believe in Vegas PBS.

“This holiday season, perhaps more than ever, it's the little things that bring comfort and joy. Our members make it possible for us to continue to provide programs that inspire and educate; thank you.”

It is very important for us to stay connected with our members despite our many in-person events and trips that have been delayed. We miss seeing your faces and talking to you about what matters most. Vegas PBS focuses on creating a sense of community, and we continue to strive to do so. From our many virtual events to our fun online holiday auction, we are giving you opportunities to connect with us in multiple ways.

Our online holiday auction begins on Friday, November 27 and ends Saturday, December 12 at 10 p.m. You can find the list of items up for bid at vegaspbs.org/auction. From gift certificates to unique offers, you are guaranteed to find something you'll need to have all while supporting this station.

And this December, our holiday programming is in full swing. You'll find many details about these joyful programs in this magazine. A few highlights I am looking forward to include Hanukkah: A Festival of Delights on Sunday, December 13 at 9 a.m. With international travel difficult, and many of Europe's beloved Christmas markets closed, you won't want to miss The Magic of Christmas in Alsace to celebrate these special places from your favorite chair. The program airs Friday, December 18 at 8:30 p.m. And for all of us who are looking for nostalgia this holiday season, don't forget to tune in to The Lawrence Welk Show: Christmas on Saturday, December 19 at 5 p.m. This is just the tip of the holiday iceberg this winter, so read on in this magazine to find many more warm programs to bring the holiday spirit into your home.

Four times a year, this station holds pledge drives to raise vital funds to keep your favorite programs on the air. This quarter you'll find an awesome slate of musical performances to entertain and recreate the concert hall in your living room. On Tuesday, December 1 at 10 p.m. you won't want to miss Ledisi Live: A Tribute to Nina Simone. This renowned American R&B and jazz artist celebrates the music of the one-of-a-kind Simone, performing many of her beloved songs. You'll feel like you're back at Myron's Cabaret Jazz when you see her on that local stage in this new special. On Saturday, December 5 from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. we bring you two back-to-back specials featuring one of America's favorite singer-songwriters, John Denver. Plus, her music went viral among young people on the social media network TikTok, so you're sure to enjoy Stevie Nicks: 24 Karat Tour at 11:30 p.m. on Sunday, December 6.

This holiday season, perhaps more than ever, it's the little things that bring comfort and joy. Our members make it possible for us to continue to provide programs that inspire and educate; thank you. Please know that we are exceptionally grateful that we can count on your membership in 2020 and beyond. Have a happy and safe holiday. We hope to see you soon.

Miss Marple

With a gentle smile and a probing mind, Agatha Christie’s Miss Marple often finds herself at the center of trouble — a witness to betrayals, poisonings and all manner of mayhem. Knitting needles in hand and a cup of tea always at the ready, Marple quietly earns confidence while uncovering secrets and exposing killers.

Why We Support Vegas PBS...

Marydean Martin began volunteering at Vegas PBS as a member of the original Ready To Learn Board. She serves on the Board of Directors of Southern Nevada Public Television (SNPT).

Charlie Silvestri, former Deputy Superintendent with the Clark County School District, worked with Superintendent Kenny Guinn and others who spearheaded and ultimately brought Public Television to Las Vegas.

"Vegas PBS has been our primary source of television information and entertainment from the very opening of the station," Charlie said.

"Charlie and I believe that sponsoring the types of programming that we enjoy is a positive means of showing our appreciation to Vegas PBS and those in the community who volunteer and contribute to public television," Marydean added.

How Do You Become a Sponsor ?

When you support quality Vegas PBS programming, you're helping build a stronger and healthier community. Simply select from favorite evening programs or underwrite a daytime show that children enjoy. We'll do the rest. While our programming value is high, its price is low. For information on how to sponsor Vegas PBS programming, contact Summer Collins at scollins@vegaspbs.org.

The Yao Yuan Sze Community Room

Vegas PBS is proud to introduce the naming of The Yao Yuan Sze Community Room. Mr. Yao Yuan Sze was a well respected aerospace engineer employed by the Boeing Company in Seattle. In 2001, he founded a family foundation that focuses on education grants and health causes.

Yao Yuan Sze

In 2018, members of the foundation took a tour of the Vegas PBS building and became annual sponsors of Vegas PBS' Ready To Learn family engagement workshops. As foundation members learned of the station's high tech, high touch community engagement approach, they asked for opportunities to assist in this work. They will honor the memory of Mr. Yao Yuan Sze by naming the Community Engagement Room in the Vegas PBS Educational Technology Campus after him. This room is used for events related to education and television program outreach.

Elvin J. Vandenberg

The foundation is extremely grateful that Vegas PBS is providing the means to commemorate its founder, Mr. Yao Yuan Sze, by naming the Community Engagement Room after him. The foundation has acknowledged its intent to continue its support for many years to come.

The foundation would also like to express its profound gratitude to and appreciation for Mr. Elvin J. Vandenberg, who passed away on December 26, 2019. Without him, there would be no foundation. It was his idea to establish The Yao Yuan Sze Foundation in 2001; and he was the foundation's attorney and most trusted advisor. What began as a professional relationship developed into a close and lasting friendship with Mr. Sze and the foundation's current President, Ms. Joan Sun. He is sorely missed.
