MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

A New Era of Local Public Affairs Begins

Last year, the coronavirus health crisis brought many production crews to a halt due to social distancing guidelines and location restrictions. At Vegas PBS, we remained committed to keeping you informed with the latest news by ensuring Nevada Week never ceased production — and in the fall of last year, we were delighted to bring guests back in the studio.

When I joined the station, I was amazed to learn that our Nevada Week host Kipp Ortenburger was also the head of the station's grants department. Both jobs are critical to the health and well-being of the organization and require full-time attention. It was clear to me that Kipp could be successful in either job, but knew he needed to focus full time on only one. Kipp chose the role of Grants and Government Relations. In addition to returning to the studio, we are extremely appreciative that Kipp continued to host the show for the remainder of the year while we built out the infrastructure and brought on an executive producer for this important program. While Kipp will now be focused on his new leadership role, he will remain a resource to the show. We are all grateful for his gracious humor and extra efforts in juggling two critical assignments.

All this leads me to the big news! You may recognize a familiar face on the cover of our magazine: Amber Renee Dixon. While she is a newcomer to our PBS family, Amber is no stranger to the local news, our community or the public affairs arena. As an Emmy®-Award winning journalist, an Arizona native and a proud graduate of the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication at Arizona State University, Amber is ideally positioned to bring you insights into the most current and critical issues facing our community. Amber started her career reporting on border issues in South Africa before anchoring and reporting television news in Corpus Christi, Texas. In Las Vegas, she was most recently a sports anchor and news reporter at the local NBC affiliate, KSNV. Amber's passion for excellence in journalism shines on and off the screen. Her energy and enthusiasm are contagious. I'm thrilled to welcome Amber to our team as the new host of Nevada Week and cannot wait for you to get to know her better.

I am also excited about the power of digital content and proud to be at the forefront of the transformation of traditional television to digital media through the development of mobile apps, OTT streaming, Connected TV, ATSC 3.0 and more. Throughout my career, I have been fortunate to lead teams to the achievement of huge digital milestones. One of my biggest goals for Vegas PBS is to grow our digital content footprint. Vegas PBS is expanding on this front with the addition of a digital marketing director who will help set the strategy for more local digital content for web and social media. Our digital production team will also be growing this year with the addition of new digital-first producers.

“Las Vegas is a vibrant community and we want to tell the stories of the people who are proud to call this city home.”

Las Vegas is a vibrant community and we want to tell the stories of the people who are proud to call this city home. On the air this month, you'll find some of your favorite programs and new specials. Turn to page 14 to see the variety of content we have curated in celebration of Black History Month, including African Americans: The Las Vegas Experience and a new documentary film titled Fannie Lou Hamer's America: An America Reframed Special.

The excitement of the new year continues for us at Vegas PBS, and we are excited to share these new changes with you. Thank you for your ongoing support of this public television service.

All the best,
Mary Mazur

Nevada Week Fridays at 8 p.m.

Our smart and state-focused public affairs program, Nevada Week, has a new host! Murrow and Emmy® award-winning reporter Amber Renee Dixon will bring you insights into the most current and critical issues facing Nevada, including health care, politics, arts and culture, education, economic development, social services and more.

Passionate about our community, Dixon worked as a sports anchor and news reporter at KSNV-TV, the NBC affiliate in Las Vegas, for over eight years. She began her career reporting on border issues in South Africa, then served as a television news anchor and reporter in Corpus Christi and the Rio Grande Valley.

We are excited for you to discover Dixon's passion for outstanding journalism and her energy, enthusiasm and commitment to delivering you timely, unbiased information on important statewide issues.

(Repeats Sundays at 5:30 p.m. and Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. and 11 p.m.)

Host Amber Renee Dixon and Executive Producer Natalie Cullen Nevada Week

Sundays

Father Brown at 7 p.m.

Set in the 1950s in the heart of the beautiful English countryside, Mark Williams stars as Father Brown, a Catholic priest who also happens to have a particular talent for solving crimes. Many years spent hearing his parishioners' confessions have given him an uncanny insight into the origins of evil and the workings of the criminal mind. Full of humor and compassion but with a big dramatic twist each time, this series remains true to the period charm of the original character and setting while bringing a contemporary edge to the storytelling.

Around the World in 80 Days on Masterpiece

Around the World in 80 Days on Masterpiece at 8 p.m. (concludes February 20)

David Tennant stars as Phileas Fogg in Jules Verne's tale about a daring bet in the 1870s to circle the globe in just eighty days. Ibrahim Koma plays Fogg's resourceful valet, with Leonie Benesch as the intrepid reporter who accompanies them. The plot includes exciting new themes, characters and incidents. The round-the-world feat would be hard enough for the trio, even if someone weren't trying to sabotage them at every turn.

(Repeats Tuesdays at 2:30 p.m. and Sundays at 4:30 p.m.)

Around the World in 80 Days: Unpacking Adventure Sunday, February 27 at 8 p.m.

Celebrate the 150th anniversary of the story — and the new MASTERPIECE series — with highlights from all 8 episodes, along with behind-the-scenes interviews and features. Let the adventure begin!

Sanditon on Masterpiece

All Creatures Great and Small, Season 2 on Masterpiece at 9 p.m. (concludes February 20)

After a triumphant first season, All Creatures Great and Small returns to the Yorkshire Dales to follow the adventures of veterinarian James Herriot in the 1930s. This series captivates viewers with its quirky humor, lovable characters and heartwarming stories. The acclaimed ensemble includes Nicholas Ralph, Samuel West, Callum Woodhouse, Anna Madeley and Rachel Shenton.

(Repeats Sundays at 3:30 p.m.)

All Creatures Great and Small

Vienna Blood, Season 2 at 10 p.m. (concludes February 13)

A student of Sigmund Freud and an Austrian detective team up to solve some of the most mysterious and deadly cases in early 1900s Vienna.

Sanditon on Masterpiece February 27 at 9 p.m. and 10 p.m.

This is an eight-part period-drama adaptation of Jane Austen's final novel, written only months before her death in 1817. Rose Williams and Theo James play the lead characters of Charlotte Heywood and Sidney Parker. The story follows Charlotte as she moves to the quiet fishing village of Sanditon for a fresh start, only to soon meet Sidney, a charming man who has ambitions to turn the tranquil seaside residence into a luxury resort.
