MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Celebrating Women's Contributions to History and Society

Throughout history, we have seen countless figures that inspire us with their stories of perseverance and hope. This month we celebrate women's contributions to history, culture and society.

Our lineup of Women's History Month programming features a mix of exciting and inspirational stories. From music legend Irma Thomas to renowned international leaders like Angela Merkel, you will not want to miss these specials. Head to page 14 for a full list of titles.

Women have a long tradition as educators both in the family and in the classroom. At Vegas PBS, we support educators of all kinds by providing educational resources on and beyond the broadcast. When the COVID-19 crisis led teachers and families to seek more at-home learning materials, our Educational Media Services team quickly pivoted to serve these needs with the creation of OnePlace — a free multimedia platform filled with thousands of curriculum resources.

“Women have a long tradition as educators both in the family and in the classroom. At Vegas PBS, we support educators of all kinds by providing educational resources on and beyond the broadcast.”

In 2021 our online educational content was viewed or streamed more than 2.5 million times, and our team distributed more than 69,000 grant-funded books to families so they could grow their at-home learning libraries. Our Ready To Learn program reached more than 123,000 parents and children through educational workshops, community events, after school programs and more. Our Special Needs Resource Library, located inside Vegas PBS, loaned 18,000 media resources, and the pace has kept up in these early days of 2022.

To keep you, our members and supporters, connected to this wide range of resources, we created the Vegas PBS Community Classroom. This newsletter goes straight to your email inbox, so you'll never miss a meaningful learning opportunity.

Sign up online at vegaspbs.org/education. For members with kids and grandkids, there is still time to submit an entry into the VEGAS PBS KIDS Writers Contest Presented by Janice Allen. This contest is open to all children in grades K-5 and is designed to celebrate creativity. Students can build their literacy skills by writing and illustrating their very own stories. Entries are open until Friday, April 8. See page 31 for more details.

Education is the journey of a lifetime and as such, we have many opportunities for adult learners looking to acquire a new skill or discover a hobby. Our Lifelong Learning courses, which enable you to take what you see on your favorite programs and transfer it to your personal skill set, are among our most popular. These include photography, culinary arts, language, health and wellness and more. See page 26 to learn how to sign up.

Your support allows us to provide the highest level of service to the community — over the air and through our digital platforms. Thank you for your investment in us to carry forward our mission to create an informed and engaged community through high-tech, high-touch experiences.

Mary Mazur

NEW SEASONS OF FAN FAVORITE DRAMAS

Sanditon on Masterpiece

Sundays

Sanditon on Masterpiece

March 6 and 13 from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m.

This is an eight-part period-drama adaptation of Jane Austen's final novel, written only months before her death in 1817. Rose Williams and Theo James play the lead characters of Charlotte Heywood and Sidney Parker. The story follows Charlotte as she moves to the quiet fishing village of Sanditon for a fresh start, only to soon meet Sidney, a charming man who has ambitions to turn the tranquil seaside residence into a luxury resort.

Father Brown

at 7 p.m. (resumes March 20)

Set in the 1950s in the heart of the beautiful English countryside, Mark Williams stars as Father Brown, a Catholic priest who also happens to have a particular talent for solving crimes. Many years spent hearing his parishioners' confessions have given him an uncanny insight into the origins of evil and the workings of the criminal mind. Full of humor and compassion but with a big dramatic twist each time, this series remains true to the period charm of the original character and setting while bringing a contemporary edge to the storytelling.

▼ Call the Midwife Season 8 marathon and Special Delivery, Monday and Tuesday, March 14 and 15 from 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Wednesday, March 16 from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. As we anticipate the arrival of Season 11 on March 20, we're taking a look back.

Call the Midwife Season 11 at 8 p.m. beginning March 20

Don't miss the return of the multi-award-winning drama, which regularly draws in audiences of over 10 million. Following an eventful Christmas special, the series continues with an episode set in Easter 1967.

Celebrations are underway for a colorful Easter Bonnet parade outside Nonnatus House. Sister Monica Joan and Reggie are excited about the Eurovision song contest and Nancy, having just passed her midwifery examinations, is about to don her red cardigan for the first time.

Sanditon on Masterpiece, Season 2

at 9 p.m. beginning March 20

The fan-favorite drama inspired by Jane Austen's final, unfinished novel is back! After the first season's finale left viewers hanging in suspense, the story continues with its high-spirited heroine, Charlotte Heywood, returning to the picturesque coastal resort of Sanditon and the companionship of her friend Georgiana Lambe. What adventures, scandals, intrigue and above all else — romance — await Miss Heywood this season?

Sanditon on Masterpiece

Face of a Nation: What Happened to the World's Fair?

Saturday, March 12 at 6 p.m.

Presenting the power of architecture on the world's imagination, and its ability to affect a nation's dreams, this film captures the erosion of the American image as the country loses sight of its vision and values. Probing deeply into national identity, Mina Chow investigates the controversy surrounding US participation at World's Fairs for the last 25 years. The film asks important questions about the country's role in the world and perceptions of the American image. With our diminished presence at World's Fairs, have we lost sight of what it means to be American?

(Also airs on the same day at midnight, 6 a.m. and noon)
