VEGAS  RECIPE

MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

In Search of The Great Vegas Recipe

Summer is officially here! Much like the temperatures rising, things at Vegas PBS are heating up with a great lineup of programs and initiatives that I am excited to share with you.

In line with celebrating the multiculturalism that makes our country truly unique and Las Vegas so vibrant, Vegas PBS is the proud recipient of a grant from The Great American Recipe — a new PBS cooking competition show that embraces culinary traditions through storytelling, premiering on Friday, June 24 at 9 p.m. Our team has taken this initiative to the next level by creating a companion digital series titled The Great Vegas Recipe.

With Las Vegas becoming a national food destination, this new series brings together a renowned celebrity chef and aspiring culinary students from CCSD's Career and Technical Education's Culinary Arts Program. These students are incredibly talented, and I've had the chance to sample some of their delicious creations myself — their pastries were worthy of a little happy dance!

The students submitted videos explaining how and why they prepare their favorite recipes for a chance to appear in The Great Vegas Recipe. Our partners at Caesars Entertainment could not have been more generous or collaborative! The featured students will get a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to cook alongside James Beard Award-winning chef and public television star Martin Yan as part of this project. Chef Yan will also host a virtual cooking demonstration on Tuesday, June 21 at 6 p.m. See page 4 for more details on this event. I hope we will see more of The Great Vegas Recipe and for now I am delighted to be bridging the gap between the celebrity chefs of today and the kitchen stars of tomorrow.

Up until now, the Vegas PBS WORLD Channel has only been available on cable. Because of our commitment to new technology upgrades the channel will now be available free and over-the-air on channel 10.4 beginning on Monday, June 13. I am so pleased to finally be adding a new channel to our lineup for all viewers. Vegas PBS WORLD offers the best of international news, documentaries and fact-based content covering public affairs, culture, and science.

Speaking of science, this month we also premiere a new season of Vegas PBS STEAM Camp, on Monday, June 6, at 2 p.m. Vegas PBS STEAM Camp brings the fun and discovery associated with summer camp, directly into viewers' homes through interviews with community experts and interactive at-home STEAM challenges. Season three episodes will cover science related topics with the Vegas Golden Knights, Republic Services, Nevada Science Center and other community partners. You can watch all the episodes at vegaspbs.org/steamcamp.

“Celebrating diversity and inclusion is deeply rooted in our core values.”

Celebrating diversity and inclusion is deeply rooted in our core values. Our June lineup of Pride Month programming explores the LGBTQ experience across the country. Programs like Prideland features a journey to discover how LGBTQ Americans are finding ways to live authentically in the modern South. True Colors: LGBTQ+ Our Stories, Our Songs celebrates with songs and shares real-life stories of hope.

I hope you have exciting plans for the summer and that they include spending time with Vegas PBS! The team is energized and full of great ideas. Your support allows us to put these ideas into motion, with new productions and projects that help create a sense of place for our community. Thank you for being a trusted partner in our efforts.

All the best,
Mary Mazur

NEW Digital Series

On the cover this month, we feature one of our viewers' favorite kitchen masters, Chef Martin Yan. A James Beard Award winner and star of Yan Can Cook, Chef Yan recently announced the opening of his first restaurant in Las Vegas this fall. M.Y. Asia will open at Bally's Hotel, as the property gets ready to change its name to Horseshoe Las Vegas. Why is Chef Yan on our cover you ask? We are excited to share he has joined forces with us to create a new digital series titled The Great Vegas Recipe.

Chef Martin Yan
Great Vegas Recipe

Our digital series is a companion to a new PBS cooking competition The Great American Recipe, premiering on Friday, June 24, at 9 p.m. Food brings people together and Las Vegas is at the epicenter of this growing epicurean movement. The Great Vegas Recipe matches the most talented students from CCSD's Career and Technical Education's Culinary Arts Program, with Las Vegas celebrity chefs. The goal is to share some local family recipes and culinary traditions that are rooted in the dishes they prepare and highlight the diverse people, cultures and history that make up Las Vegas and its unique cuisine today. We are incredibly grateful to our friends at Caesars Entertainment for their partnership in this new creative endeavor.

Students submitted videos explaining how and why they prepare their favorite recipes. In The Great Vegas Recipe, these students get the special opportunity to cook alongside Chef Yan. In addition to these digital shorts, on Tuesday, June 21 at 6 p.m., Chef Yan will host the The Great Vegas Recipe Live Virtual Cooking Demo, where he creates his own spin on a student's recipe. This virtual event is free and open to the public and Chef Yan will provide the ingredient list so you can follow along in your own home kitchen. Check out vegaspbs.org/greatvegasrecipe to watch this digital series and RSVP for the virtual event.

Taste of Malaysia with Martin Yan

Saturday, June 25 at 2 p.m.

To appreciate the cuisine of Malaysia fully, we must embrace the three ethnic divergences of the country: Malay, Chinese and Indian. The harmonious co-existence of these groups forms the foundation and weaves the social fabric of the country.

While natural beauty is in abundance, human kindness and hospitality are also found everywhere in Malaysia. From the modern capital of Kuala Lumpur to the smallest villages on the East Coast, we were welcomed into homes and gardens by everyday people and VIPs, all strangers to us. This gentle spirit is what holds the three layers of Malaysian society together, and we wish to share that with our viewers.

By presenting a wide variety of dishes of this tri-cultural culinary landscape, we present the diverse cultural and historical elements of this stunning gem in Southeast Asia.
