MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Recognition and Resolution

As I gathered with my family over the holidays, the old photo albums made their appearance, as they always seem to do. Hidden away for most of the year, they feel a bit obsolete, especially as the devices in our pockets can hold exponentially more pictures. But there is a magic to flipping through the pages of printed photos that scrolling on a digital device can't capture. There's a tangibility to the past, physical reminders that bring memories to life. January is a time to look ahead, but to also remind ourselves of what made us into who we are today.

“January is a time to look ahead, but to also remind ourselves of what made us into who we are today.”

Those photo albums are not unlike the Book of Life from one of PBS' most popular series, Finding Your Roots! Returning on Tuesday, January 3 at 8 p.m., the ninth season features an all-star lineup of celebrity guests, including Brian Cox, Claire Danes, Jeff Daniels, Viola Davis, Edward Norton, Julia Roberts, Danny Trejo, Cyndi Lauper, Carol Burnett, Jim Acosta, Van Jones, Angela Davis and many more. Henry Louis Gates, Jr., once again hosts, taking each guest on an illuminating journey of self-discovery that's filled with emotional weight. For those wondering when us “normal folks” will get a chance to be on the show, I have good news as well. Season 10 is inviting one lucky viewer to appear in the series! To learn more and enter for your chance to be on Finding Your Roots Season 10, go to findingyourrootscasting.com.

Sunday, January 8 is set to be an absolute blockbuster night for drama. You've been waiting for months, and now it's quickly upon us; the return of Miss Scarlet and the Duke and All Creatures Great and Small on MASTERPIECE! First up at 8 p.m., fortunes are lost just as easily as they're gained for Eliza Scarlet, whose cases in the new season involve a magician, a conman and an explosive delivery. Then at 9 p.m., the pressure is on James Herriot, now starting a family, as his plans to test for tuberculosis in cattle could put him on the outs with local farmers. Stick around after for Vienna Blood at 10 p.m., a thriller set in 1900s Vienna where a student of famed neurologist Sigmund Freud assists the police in finding brutal killers.

The Anisfield-Wolf Book Awards recognize books that have made important contributions to our understanding of racism and our appreciation of the rich diversity of human cultures. Vegas PBS is proud to present The 87th Annual Anisfield-Wolf Book Awards on Wednesday, January 11 at 11 p.m. Past winners have presented the extraordinary art and culture of peoples around the world, explored human rights violations, exposed the effects of racism on children, reflected on growing up biracial and illuminated the dignity of people as they search for justice.

Enjoy a selection of documentaries this month from some of PBS' premiere programs. On POV: I Didn't See You There, airing on Tuesday, January 9 at 10 p.m., a disabled filmmaker launches into a meditative journey exploring the history of freakdom, vision and (in)visibility. On Monday, January 16 at 10 p.m., Independent Lens: The Big Payback follows a rookie alderwoman's efforts to make reparations for slavery a reality. On Tuesday, January 17 at 9 p.m., learn about the influential author whose groundbreaking anthropological work would challenge assumptions about race, gender and cultural superiority on American Experience: Zora Neale Hurston: Claiming a Space. And finally, on Tuesday, January 24 at 9 p.m., discover how a piano teacher became one of the most influential singers in American music on Roberta Flack: American Masters.

I'm extremely excited for this new year, and, as always, I'm grateful for your support in making everything we do possible. Have a happy New Year, and see you soon.

All the best,
Mary Mazur

Indestructible

January 25: Nature: Soul of the Ocean at 8 p.m.

Take a deep breath and experience the complex world of ocean waters. Get a never-before-seen look at how life underwater co-exists in a marriage of necessity.

NOVA: Beyond the Elements: Life at 9 p.m.

Without the chemistry of photosynthesis, ozone and a molecule called Rubisco, none of us would be here. So how did we get so lucky? To find out, host David Pogue investigates the surprising molecules that allowed life on Earth to begin, and ultimately thrive. Along the way, he finds out what we're all made of — literally.

Searching: Our Quest for Meaning in the Age of Science: The Big & the Small at 11 p.m.

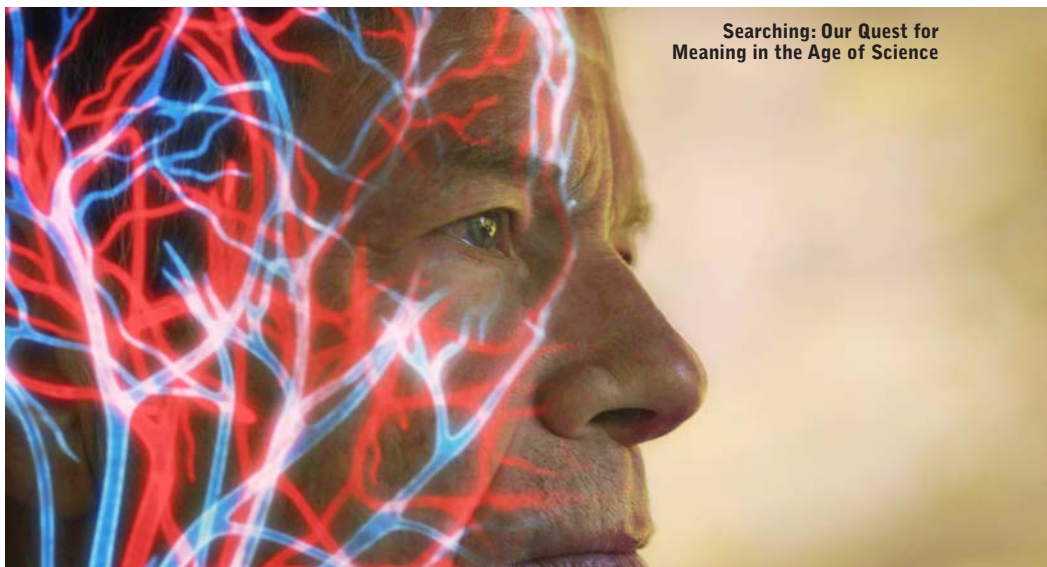

Where do we fit in the scheme of things? How can consciousness, music, even love arise from atoms and molecules? What human qualities will we retain as we become part machine? Renowned physicist Alan Lightman questions scientists at research labs, as well as philosophers and faith leaders. Humans are almost exactly the same distance — in terms of powers of ten — between an atom and a star. But where do we fit in the moral universe? Alan speaks with an advanced android and then a rabbi, a bioethicist and the Dalai Lama about whether such a being could achieve consciousness and whether we could unplug her without asking permission.

NOVA: Beyond the Elements: Indestructible at 9 p.m.

Scientists and engineers have created virtually indestructible versions of common materials by manipulating the chains of interlocking atoms that give them strength — but have they made them too tough? Host David Pogue explores the fantastic chemistry behind the everyday.

Searching: Our Quest for Meaning in the Age of Science: The Stars & the Osprey at 11 p.m.

Alan Lightman tries to reconcile an experience where he felt connected to stars and an encounter with a wild creature with the material world of atoms and molecules.

Meaning in the Age of Science

DRAMA

Sunday Drama Favorites

Season 3 premieres begin on January 8 and continue all month long!

Miss Scarlet and The Duke on MASTERPIECE at 8 p.m.

Eliza finds herself in fresh and surprising mysteries, ranging from a disappearing magician to police corruption, as she struggles to build her detective agency. Growing competition from a rival agency creates new problems, and all the while she is still juggling her relationship with Inspector William Wellington, the Duke. And she has a new challenge on that front: a beautiful woman from her childhood has caught the Duke's eye.

on MASTERPIECE

Vienna Blood

All Creatures Great and Small on MASTERPIECE at 9 p.m.

James Herriot and crew deal with sick animals, eccentric farmers, courtship and strict government mandates in a new season of the series lauded for its "soothing tone" by the New York Times. Change is the order of the day as professional and emotional relationships mature in the rural Yorkshire veterinary practice immortalized by author James Herriot's charming stories.

Vienna Blood at 10 p.m.

Set in 1900s Vienna, follow the adventures of Max Liebermann, a young doctor of psychology, and a world-weary cop, Oskar Rheinhardt. Both are brilliant characters and they team up wonderfully to solve gruesome and often very strange crimes in Vienna. Vienna is a character in itself, providing a perfect backdrop to the series.

HUMAN TRAFFIC AWARENESS MONTH

The Zen Speaker: Breaking the Silence Monday, January 2 at 10:00 p.m.

This is the story of Amy Ayoub, a prominent Nevada businesswoman who found the courage to overcome her shame about the trauma she'd kept hidden for 38 years. A personal portrait, the film explores the emotional and physical devastation associated with sex trafficking, being a survivor, public versus private personas and finding one's voice in unexpected ways.

A top-down view of a tea ceremony setup on a light-colored wooden surface. In the upper left is a white ceramic teapot with a wooden handle. Next to it is a small yellow and blue patterned cup containing a slice of lemon. To the right is a wooden box divided into four compartments, each containing a different type of tea. Scattered around are several white daisies, a large pink and white dahlia, and several slices of lemon and dried orange. The text is centered over the lower half of the image.

America ReFramed:

Thursdays at 5 p.m.

For the Love of Rutland January 12

In 2016 the mayor of Rutland, Vermont, an overwhelmingly white town struggling with income inequality, the opioid epidemic and political polarization, devised a plan to bring 100 Syrian refugees to invigorate his community. What followed was a deluge of deeply partisan rancor that threatened to split the small New England town in two.

The Place That Makes January 19

A quintessential post-industrial American city, Youngstown, Ohio, is seen through the efforts of a new generation. Activists and leaders who have chosen not to abandon their hometown but to stay, rebuild and make a life for themselves are beholden to the memory of Youngstown's heyday, and together they envision a new future.

America ReFramed:
For the Love of Rutland

The Area January 26

When Deborah Payne discovered that her neighborhood was being demolished to make way for a freight yard, she vowed to be "the last house standing." While their neighborhood is literally being torn apart, residents maintain friendships and traditions while fighting for the respect and compensation they deserve.

Stories from the Stage: Culture Shock

Monday, January 30
at 6:30 p.m.

When we experience a new and unfamiliar culture, we often feel like outsiders. Barriers to entry can be high as we are met with traditions and expectations unlike our own. At the same time, crossing cultures helps us become more fully human. Micaela Blei, the grandchild of Holocaust survivors, faces choices about exploring German culture; Anita Deruvo lives in poverty within a community of great wealth; and after being mistaken for a homeless person, Biar Kon expands his view of humanity. Hosted by Wes Hazard.

Clinical Research at Comprehensive has led to 100 New FDA Approved Cancer Treatments Giving me my chance to be mom again

Comprehensive Cancer Centers has participated in the development of 100 new FDA approved cancer treatments. With 170 ongoing clinical research studies, right here in Southern Nevada, we are entering a new age in cancer treatment — where people are no longer entrenched in their battle against cancer, but instead living with cancer. These new cancer therapies are increasing the quality of life for our patients and their families, and most importantly, giving them the opportunity to live their lives to the fullest.
