MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Persistence, Preservation and Perseverance

This special issue of Source includes our annual major donors list on pages 8 and 9. More than just a “thank you” or recognition, this list is an affirmation of our community’s strong support for public television, educational outreach and more.

For Black History Month, we have an exciting variety of series, documentaries and more lined up that celebrate the accomplishments of Black communities and icons in America. Developed by Public Enemy frontman Chuck D, Fight The Power: How Hip Hop Changed The World recounts the origins of this bold and revolutionary art form through the voices of those who were there at the beginning, creating an anthology of how hip hop became a cultural phenomenon against the backdrop of American history: airing Tuesdays at 9 p.m. Stick around after the premiere on January 31 for African Americans: The Las Vegas Experience at 10 p.m. This Vegas PBS original recounts what life was like for Black Las Vegans during the Civil Rights Era and how the social movements of the time period fueled change in our city.

Fridays this month feature Making Black America: Through the Grapevine, a miniseries led by Henry Louis Gates, Jr., about the vast social networks and organizations created by and for Black people beyond the reach of the “White gaze.” Airing February 3 and 10 at 9 p.m. On February 24 at 9 p.m., tune in to Great Performances: The Magic of Spirituals to discover the behind-the-scenes story of Jessye Norman and Kathleen Battle’s famed concert at Carnegie Hall on March 18, 1990. Many wondered if the two singers would compete or join forces and sing together. Stick around after for Marian Anderson: Once in a Hundred Years at 10:30 p.m., the inspiring life story of the African American contralto who performed in front of an audience of 75,000 at the Lincoln Memorial after being denied permission to perform at a racially segregated venue.

We’ll also have an interview with the new mayor of North Las Vegas, Pamela Goynes-Brown, on Nevada Week In Person on Saturday, February 18 at 6:30 p.m. Goynes-Brown is the first Black mayor of North Las Vegas and currently the only Black mayor in all of Nevada.

Sunday, February 12 has an entire block from 10:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. of Black History Month programming, including Ida B. Wells: American Story; John Lewis: Get in the Way; In Their Own Words: Chuck Berry; Charley Pride: I’m Just Me: American Masters; Sammy Davis, Jr.: I’ve Gotta Be Me: American Masters; and Hollywood’s Architect: The Paul R. Williams Story. That last one is of note as Vegas PBS is proud to be a Media Sponsor of the Nevada Museum of Art’s exhibit of Paul Revere Williams’ work. As a native Angeleno, I grew up with Williams’ iconic designs across the city. When we moved here I was so excited to learn of his work across my new home town including the Guardian Angel Cathedral, La Concha Motel (which now serves as the lobby of the Neon Museum) and Berkley Square — Southern Nevada’s first African American suburban community. Learn more at nevadaart.org.

“Recording and sharing our history is a crucial part of Vegas PBS’ mission.”

I would be remiss if I didn’t also mention some of the captivating new episodes of Nature and NOVA on Think Wednesdays as well. Check out Dogs in the Wild, A Nature Miniseries, Wednesdays at 8 p.m. beginning February 8. This series travels the globe in search of the untamed species of canine that survive through cunning and tenacity. All-new NOVA episodes on Wednesdays at 9 p.m. include London Super Tunnel on February 1, Star Chasers of Senegal on February 8, Ancient Builders of The Amazon on February 15, and James Webb: Part II on February 22.

Recording and sharing our history is a crucial part of Vegas PBS’ mission. We’re honored by your continued support and trust. Thank you.

All the best,
Mare Mazur

COVER FEATURE - BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Fight the Power: How Hip Hop Changed the World Premieres Tuesday, January 31! Tuesdays, February 7, 14 and 21 at 9 p.m.

This incredible narrative of struggle, triumph and resistance is brought to life through the lens of an art form that has chronicled the emotions, experiences and expressions of Black and Brown communities: hip hop. In the aftermath of America's racial and political reckoning in 2020, the perspectives and stories shared in hip hop are key to understanding injustice in the U.S. over the last half-century. Authored by Public Enemy's Chuck D, who famously labeled hip hop as "the Black CNN" for bringing the stories of the street to the mainstream, this story includes personal testimonies of the MCs, DJs, graffiti artists, filmmakers, politicians and opinion formers who created and shaped its direction as it grew from an underground movement in the Bronx to the most popular music genre in the U.S. and the fastest growing genre in the world today.

Fight the Power:
How Hip Hop
Changed the World

Making Black America: Through the Grapevine Two back-to-back episodes Fridays, February 3 and 10 at 9 p.m.

Independent Lens: Outta the Muck Sunday, February 12 at 11 p.m.

This is the story of a fiercely self-determined family in the deep south as it resists despair with love. It blends family, football and history in an intimate portrait of the Dean family, longtime residents of the historic town of Pahokee, Florida, and journeys back home with McKinley as he reconnects with his niece, Bridget, and nephew, Alvin, and explores their shared family history that spans seven generations.

Making Black America: Through the Grapevine

Our Picks for February 1-8

Almost Royal Thursday, February 2 at 11:30 p.m.

Independent Lens: The Picture Taker

Sunday, February 5 at 11 p.m.

The vibrant life of Ernest Withers — civil rights photographer, and FBI informant — was anything but black and white. From his Memphis studio, Withers' nearly 2 million images were a treasured record of Black history, but his legacy was complicated by decades of secret FBI service revealed only after his death. Was he a friend of the civil rights community, or enemy — or both?

the Final Goodbye

Endeavour: A Countdown to the Final Goodbye

Sunday, February 26 at 10 p.m.

For the past decade, Shaun Evans and Roger Allam, the detective duo at the heart of Endeavour, have charmed audiences with their portrayals of the cerebral and solitary DS Morse and the older and wiser DCI Fred Thursday. Russell always knew where he wanted the series to end, and that remorseful day is nearly upon us. He has many surprises up his sleeve for the final three films, with the return of some familiar faces and new challenges for Endeavour and Thursday to face before the final goodbye.

Sunday, February 5

from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

A mystery author dies under suspicious circumstances, with his last book seemingly unfinished. This leaves two mysteries: What happened to him? And how does his latest potboiler end? Magpie Murders revolves around the character Susan Ryeland, an editor who is given an unfinished manuscript of author Alan Conway's latest novel but has little idea it will change her life.

Joe Bonamassa: Live from the Ryman

Sunday, February 19 at 4 p.m.

Blues Rock Superstar Joe Bonamassa set out to perform his brand-new music for fans amidst a global entertainment shutdown. This led to an incredible live concert, his final show of 2020, at the legendary Ryman Auditorium in Nashville, Tennessee.

This special show includes the critically acclaimed songs from his solo studio album "Royal Tea," recorded at Abbey Road Studios in London and inspired by his British guitar heroes Jeff Beck, John Mayall, Eric Clapton and Cream. Joe also performs a few songs from his debut album "A New Day Yesterday," which helped launch his illustrious career to celebrate his 20th anniversary of that album.

Acclaimed actor Jeff Daniels narrates the film introduction to give viewers the backstory of how this amazing concert came together. (Repeats Saturday, February 25 at 9:30 p.m.)
