MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Changing Tides

My father was an artist. He had a very painterly style, and some of my favorite paintings of his were seascapes. The brushstrokes were so powerful that you could almost hear the pounding of the waves. This month's cover of the SOURCE reminded me of one painting in particular. I always marvel at the stunning displays of nature and thought this photograph would make a perfect cover in celebration of Earth Day.

Earth Day is April 22, an important opportunity to recognize the progress made in environmental protections while also urging us to ensure that our planet can thrive for future generations. In observance of Earth Day, we have several shows lined up focused on the environment, including The Sun Queen: American Experience on Tuesday, April 4 at 9 p.m.; Earth Emergency on Wednesday, April 5 at 11 p.m.; The Earthshot Prize on Wednesday, April 12 at 10 p.m.; and, of local interest, Downwinders and The Radioactive West, Wednesday, April 19 at 11 p.m.

“It's a big world out there, and we strive to bring it all to you whenever you need it.”

When it comes to interconnected systems like our environment, nothing is too small, and what better place to get started than in your own backyard? Check out our newsletter, Vegas Ventures, for a feature on gardening with local expert Norm Schilling. Vegas Ventures is a monthly roundup of events and top food and drink spots in our city. Visit our website, vegaspbs.org/events-newsletter to subscribe.

If you're like me, you have a travel bag that is always ready to go! But this month you don't need to leave your house to experience great travels. We have three all-new episodes of La Frontera With Pati Jinich on April 3, 10, and 17 at 9 p.m. Travel with Pati to Southern California, Baja California, Arizona, Sonora, New Mexico, and Chihuahua as she shares meals with self-described “fronterizos” or borderlanders from all walks of life and reflects on the melding of cultures.

Sanditon fans, it's time to say goodbye as the series finale airs on Sunday, April 23 at 9 p.m. The passion, enthusiasm and devotion of the fan base for this show is unlike any I've seen in a very long time. With the first season ending on a cliffhanger, fans successfully lobbied not only for a second season, but a third one as well! While trying to complete the unfinished story of a legendary author like Jane Austen is daunting, I'm confident in saying that the finale will be a satisfying and heartwarming conclusion to this beloved series.

Costume drama fans, worry not! Head back to the coast as Seaside Hotel returns Saturday, April 29 at 11 p.m. Six years have passed, and now it's the summer of 1939. The dark clouds of WWII are looming over Europe, but the regulars have again gone on holiday to the idyll of the North Sea. And, don't miss the premiere of Tom Jones on MASTERPIECE on Sunday, April 30 at 9 p.m. This four-part miniseries reimagines “The History of Tom Jones, A Foundling,” Henry Fielding's classic novel about the title character's complicated journey to find real love.

It's a big world out there, and we strive to bring it all to you whenever you need it. Through the donations and gifts from supporters like you, we work dutifully to deliver the content and services you've come to expect from us. Thank you for your support.

All the best,
Mare Mazur

Siblings

April 3

Siblings share many things, from the obvious like family members and living spaces to the seldom said of histories and hopes. Rebecca Lampert and her sons experience the many trials of military deployment; Joseph Collymore Small's siblings rally when one of them is diagnosed with cancer; and after their father abandons the family, Anna Conathan and her sibs navigate the fallout.
