MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

A Wellspring for Mindfulness

As summer draws to a close and students get ready to return to school, Vegas PBS remains a font of refreshing and insightful content for everyone in Southern Nevada. Our August programming is sure to quench your thirst for invigorating documentaries, cultural showcases, drama and more.

“Our August programming is sure to quench your thirst for invigorating documentaries, cultural showcases, drama and more.”

The exemplary makers of the award-winning documentary Once Upon a Time in Iraq turn their sights to the decades-long conflict of the Troubles with Once Upon a Time in Northern Ireland. This series mixes extraordinary archive footage and emotionally compelling first-person testimonies to create an intimate, multi-generational portrait of Northern Ireland's past, present and future with an emphasis on understanding and empathy for all points of view. Begins Monday, August 28 at 9 p.m.; continues Tuesday, August 29 at 9 p.m., and concludes Wednesday, August 30 at 10 p.m.

Hoover Dam is as surely affixed to the pantheon of American ingenuity as it is embedded in the walls of Boulder Canyon. But there was opposition to the project in its earliest stages, due in no small part to the tragic failure of St. Francis Dam in Southern California. On Tuesday, August 22 at 9 p.m., tune in to Flood in the Desert: American Experience to learn the story of the St. Francis Dam disaster, which not only destroyed hundreds of lives and millions of dollars' worth of property but also washed away the reputation of William Mulholland, the man behind the Los Angeles Aqueduct. Within days of the tragedy, a concerted effort was underway to erase the dam's failure from popular memory.

There's still time for a summer trip to the great outdoors! Embark on an awe-inspiring adventure with Ken Burns: The National Parks on Wednesday, August 16 at 10 p.m. This acclaimed show takes you on a captivating journey through America's most breathtaking national parks, highlighting their natural wonders and the people who fought to preserve these treasured landscapes.

One of my favorite annual programs airs this month, the latest edition of Great Performances: Vienna Philharmonic Summer Night Concert. This special concert, airing on Friday, August 25 at 9 p.m., brings the wonder and magic of this delightful city right to you. Other notable Great Performances episodes airing throughout August include Great Performances: Gloria Estefan: Sangre Yoruba on Friday, August 4 at 9 p.m., and Great Performances: Leonard Bernstein's Kaddish Symphony on Monday, August 21 at 9 p.m.

Vegas PBS continues to offer an exceptional lineup of programs that educate, entertain and inspire. From captivating documentaries to remarkable musical performances, these programs invite viewers to explore the world, celebrate diverse cultures, and appreciate the beauty of the arts. Tune in and let Vegas PBS transport you to new horizons of knowledge and entertainment. Thank You!

All the best,
Mare Mazur

ONCE UPON A TIME IN NORTHERN IRELAND

Once Upon a Time in Northern Ireland a new 5-part documentary beginning Monday, August 28 at 9 p.m.

This is the story of “the Troubles” in Northern Ireland told by the ordinary people whose lives it changed forever.

Monday, August 28
It Wasn’t Like a Movie Anymore (Part 1) at 9 p.m.

Explore how ordinary people became caught up in “the Troubles” in Northern Ireland as events progress from protests and rioting to full-blown violence.

Do Paramilitaries Lie Awake at Night? (Part 2) at 10 p.m.

Discover how ordinary people become surrounded by fear and hatred as violence grows and homegrown paramilitaries begin taking control of many Catholic and Protestant working-class communities. It is now 1972, and society is deeply segregated.

Tuesday, August 29
So Many Broken Hearts (Part 3) at 9 p.m.

Learn about the harrowing impact of the IRA hunger strike through three women’s stories: an IRA prisoner’s wife, a police officer’s wife and a hunger striker’s daughter.

The Dirty War (Part 4) at 10 p.m.

Discover how tensions rise as police and the army infiltrate paramilitary organizations to gain intelligence in the late 1980s. No one can be trusted as fear and suspicion seep into all parts of daily life.

Wednesday, August 30
Who Wants to Live Like That? at 10 p.m. (Finale)

Explore how politicians are propelled back toward peace talks. After decades of cyclical violence, a breakthrough is reached, and there is joy when the Good Friday Agreement is announced in 1998. However, peace comes at an enormous cost.

Our Picks for August 1-8

Almost Royal

Thursday, August 3 at 11 p.m.

Two young British aristocrats venture outside the palace and across the pond on their first trip to the U.S., where they interact with real-life, unsuspecting everyday Americans.

(See additional episodes on Thursdays, August 10, 24 and 31 at 11 p.m.)

POV: Children of the Mist

Sunday, August 6 at 11 p.m.

Trace the story of Di, a 13-year-old girl coming of age in a remote indigenous Hmong community in the mountains of Northwest Vietnam.

FRONTLINE: Inside the Iranian Uprising

Tuesday, August 8 at 10 p.m.

With a trove of gripping footage filmed by protesters, this documentary goes inside the uprising that rocked Iran after the death of a young woman in police custody.

Sunday, August 13 at 4 p.m.

A cappella group Straight No Chaser, formed 25 years ago at Indiana University, have sold more than three million albums, more than 1.5 million concert tickets, and garnered over a billion streams. They returned to Indiana to tape this concert at the Murat Theatre, performing classic and contemporary songs alike.

Jacque Pépin: Heart & Soul

Saturday, August 26 at 3 p.m.
NEW!

This series highlights Pépin's 60 years in the kitchen — including his apprenticeship as a 13-year-old cooking in some of Paris' most revered establishments and cooking for French President Charles DeGaulle. This series also touches upon a key period in Pépin's life when he crossed the Atlantic and entered the kitchens of New York at Le Pavillon and his 10 years as director of research at Howard Johnson's.

DocWorld: Afghanistan: The Wounded Land

Sundays at 7 p.m.

Kingdom

August 6

In the 1960s, Afghanistan was divided between a westernized elite and a traditional, largely poor majority. A communist revolution set these contradictions on fire.

Jihad

August 13

In 1979, the Soviet army entered Afghanistan. In reaction to this, the Afghans called for Jihad against the godless invaders. The "Soviet Vietnam" began.

Taliban

August 20

The Soviet army left Afghanistan, but the war continued between Mujahideen commanders. The country fell into chaos, until a new force emerged: the Taliban.

Trap

August 27

Following 9/11 and the overthrow of the Taliban, an international coalition tried to bring peace and democracy to Afghanistan. But hopes were short-lived.

Ola Hou: Journey to New York Fashion Week
August 7

When Hawaiian fashion designer Sharayah Chun-Lai receives an invitation to showcase her brand, Ola Hou Designs, at New York Fashion Week, she and her family are tossed into a world of planning, preparation and runway readiness. This is a story of resilience, family and all the things it takes to make a dream become reality. Join the journey as Sharayah puts it all on the line to bring Ola Hou Designs to the New York runway.

Island Cowgirls

August 14

Learn about two Hawaiian cowgirls (paniolo) who have dedicated their lives to caring for their family ranches. As La'I Bertlemann prepares to graduate from high school, she must make a difficult decision whether to stay home in Hawai'i and continue her family tradition of land stewardship or leave. Lani Cran Petrie is at a crossroads as she plans for the future of her ranch while faced with the uncertainty of the state-held lease of the land expiring soon.

Daughters of the Waves

August 21

Vahine surfs like no other Polynesian girl has before. In Tahitian culture, riding the waves is an ancestral activity from which women had been gradually eliminated, but now surfing is open to women, just in time for the Olympics. Coming from an entire family of surfers, Vahine and her two sisters hope to make a living with their passion and travel the world.

Hawaii's Precious Resources

August 28

Three short films explore the delicate balance in Hawai'i's ecosystems and encourage us to reflect on our relationship with the natural world while showing us that even the smallest species, like Hawaiian tree snails, and ornamental trees, like the coconut, are worth saving.

NEVADA ARTS COUNCIL

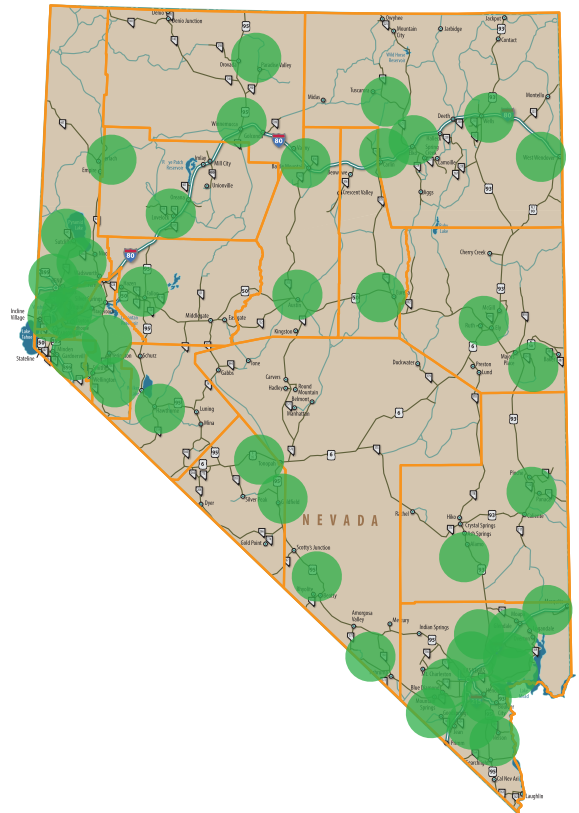

strengthening the lives of all Nevadans

The Nevada Arts Council is the primary source of public arts funding for Nevada's creative industry investing federal and state dollars in projects that increase Nevadans access to statewide cultural experiences and arts education opportunities.

Guided by its mission and goals, the agency supports the work of artists, organizations, and communities to provide Nevadans the experience of participant, patron or audience member in the arts. The agency endeavors to strengthen the learning experience of K-12 students through the arts, and promote understanding of the essential role of the arts in serving all ages and stages of life.

The Nevada Arts Council is a state agency charged with promoting the value of the arts and creativity; increasing access to and participation in the arts for its citizens without geographic or social prejudice; and supporting Nevada's growing creative industry.
