MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Community, Traditions and the Future

Part of my responsibility as President of Vegas PBS is to be mindful of the development and happenings across Southern Nevada. This past year, it seems things were moving much faster, perhaps even more so as we come to the end of 2023. One of the best ways for your public media station to stay in touch is to reflect on the local stories, voices and concerns of the individuals in our region. I am very happy to share that this year we accomplished exactly that by adding to our local productions.

In September, we launched a new web-series, Tales from the Trails, a companion to Outdoor Nevada. Hosted by Maria Silva, these charming shorts spotlight trails accessible to all and within two hours of Las Vegas. Additionally, featured trails were added to the interactive Outdoor Nevada map on our website, supporting easy access for those spontaneous hikes! Happily, we secured funding for Outdoor Nevada and season six will debut in January with our new host, Olympic gold medalist Connor Fields.

We expanded our public affairs content with the Nevada Democracy Project, produced in partnership with the Nevada Independent. Based on the principle that every Nevadan who is affected by an issue should have a say in the decision-making around it, we have teamed up with the Indy to host regular community listening sessions. Our aim is to better understand community needs and provide in-depth news coverage on the channels of both organizations.

Rounding out our community-focused productions are the ongoing Nevada Week In Person and a new pilot, Bienvenidos a Las Vegas, which is a look at the contributions of Hispanic communities to our region, past and present. Also in development is Vegas All In — a series about the entrepreneurialism, innovation, unique individuals and industries that make Las Vegas an international destination, global brand and so much more.

While I am keenly aware of our need to look ahead, one of our skills as a public media outlet is also keeping in touch with the past. The holidays are when this becomes most apparent, as we carry on traditions that bring us all together.

If our travel offer to the Scottish Highlands has caught your attention, you can get a preview of the wonders of the Highlands in Mary Berry's Highland Christmas. Join host Mary Berry as she explores the rolling hills, cozy cottages, recipes, and heartwarming stories of this beautiful region during the holiday season on Friday, December 8 at 10 p.m.

Lidia Bastianich has been a culinary trailblazer, and a new special, 25 Years with Lidia: A Culinary Jubilee, airing on Monday, December 18 at 10 p.m., celebrates her remarkable journey. The popular chef and host reflects on her incredible career, shares memorable moments and, of course, prepares a jubilant meal.

For many, the charming village of Portwenn has been a welcome presence in our lives. But as the saying goes, all good things must come to an end. In the bittersweet final season of Doc Martin, we bid farewell to Dr. Martin Ellingham and the residents of his Cornish village. We invite you to join us in celebrating the conclusion of this beloved series, beginning Thursday, December 14 at 9 p.m. The season is available in its entirety right now to Vegas PBS members on Passport.

“Happy holidays, and cheers to the very best to you in the new year.”

As the days get shorter, it's a good time to think of the year ahead. We've got plenty in store, such as the next Nevada Democracy Project Listening Session in February 2024 and our inaugural benefit event, The Big Party, in March 2024. We hope to see you there.

I hope you share in my sense of pride over our accomplishments this year, as none of this is possible without your support. We have big plans for next year and I am glad you are with us on this exciting journey. Thank you for being a champion of public media year-round. Happy holidays, and cheers to the very best to you in the new year.

All the best,
Mare Mazur

Expedition With Steve Backshall

Tuesdays, December 5 and 12

at 8 p.m.

Head into the unknown with explorer Steve Backshall as he journeys to the world's last unexplored places and faces challenges around the globe, encountering extraordinary wildlife and meeting remarkable people along the way.

America ReFramed: By Water

Thursday, December 14

at 5 p.m.

This is the first animated experimental film to appear on America ReFramed. The story follows an unlikely hero's journey into his own memories, which transform into a vehicle for reconciliation and healing for himself and his sibling. Based on a true story, the film was written and inspired by Iyabo Kwayana's personal experience with her brother.

Stories from the Stage

Mondays

at 6:30 p.m.

Finding Family December 4

While some families are tied together by biology, others are created when people welcome children into their hearts and homes through adoption. Betsy Komjathy helps her teenage son make contact with his birth mother; Dan Dahari describes being smuggled out as an infant from Mexico; and Paul Brouillette's relationship with his mom takes a twist when he adopts a baby boy.

Taking Flight December 11

Some people are terrified of flying yet others can't wait to take off. Heather Angell confronts her worst fear: flying; Tom Williams indulges in a midlife crisis splurge by purchasing a plane; and Linda Button learns the difference between curses and kindness during a bumpy flight.

Holiday Horror December 18

Holidays can be a source of joy, stress...or horror! Cyndi lands a gig as one of Santa's elves and uncovers a gruesome reality; Ekhlas waits hungrily as calamity creates an epically long Ramadan fast; and Matt gathers his courage at Thanksgiving to stand up to his girlfriend's tough as nails dad. Plus, Wes Hazard shares a hilarious Christmas story involving his younger self.
