MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

A Place in the Sun

Cultural memory has a way of sticking around. Paris will always have notes of La Belle Époque floating through the metro and iconic structures, while the Wild West is palpable in the streets and vistas of Dodge City and Tombstone. In Las Vegas, the postwar boom years solidified the image of Vegas as the glamorous and growing party capital of the world.

“This year's Big Party, our annual celebration of public television in Southern Nevada, will be a throwback to that golden era; the halcyon days of the Rat Pack, glitzy neon signs and shrimp cocktails."

This year's Big Party, our annual celebration of public television in Southern Nevada, will be a throwback to that golden era; the halcyon days of the Rat Pack, glitzy neon signs and shrimp cocktails.

There will be live performances from the cast of FANTASY, Niki Scalera, Michael Shapiro and The Rat Pack is Back! In addition to the wonderful lineup of entertainment, guests will enjoy premium libations courtesy of Southern Glazer's Wine and Spirits and a delectable menu provided by the Michelin trained chefs of S & G Private Events. I humbly invite you to this special evening in support of Vegas PBS. Visit vegaspbs.org/bigparty or call 702.799.1010 x5335 for more information.

To get in the mood for the festivities, this month I recommend Miss Fisher's Modern Murder Mysteries! Set in the swinging '60s, Peregrine Fisher inherits a windfall when the famous aunt she never knew goes missing over the highlands of New Guinea. Following in her aunt's footsteps, Peregrine uses her newfound wealth to become a world-class detective in her own right. Watch it on Vegas PBS Passport.

But... if you prefer the more tranquil side of the Mojave, join us at Ice Age Fossils State Park on Saturday, March 8, 2025 for an Outdoor Nevada IRL meetup with Connor Fields! Enjoy a guided hike with Connor and a light lunch at this fascinating site of natural history. Secure your spot at vegaspbs.org/outdoornevada.

As always, your support is what sustains our mission to create an engaged and inspired community in Southern Nevada. Thank you and I look forward to seeing you on April 4th at the Big Party.

All the best,
Mare Mazur
